OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

LEFT TODAY.
V. C. Gorst and family left today for Port Orchard, Wash., going via Roseburg. Mr. Gorst's mother is quite ill and they will visit her.

K. OF P. CONVENTION.

Geo. Ross Makes Arrangements for Coos and Curry Meeting Here.

George Ross, who is a leading officer of Myrtle Lodge No. 3, K. P. of Catching Inlet, was a Marshfield visitor today. He is making arrangements for the Coos and Curry District K. of P. convention to be held in Marshfield the latter part of September and expects Grand Chancellor Gulian, of Pendleton, and Grand Keeper of Records and Seals L. R. Stinson, of Salem, to be in attendance.

At the last meeting of Myrtle Lodge, L. A. Wherest installed the following officers: C. C. T. M. Collier; V. C., George Blake; Prelate, Tom Bennett; M. W., George Ross; M. F., P. P. Norton; M. E., Geo. F. Winchester; M. A., Fred Moore; I. G., L. A. Hall; O. G., Wm. Steckel.

SMALL SUBURBAN RANCH.

7 acres of fine land close to Marshfield; 4 acres of it mellow, well-drained bottom land; 3 acres level, wooded bench land. The hill land is situated across the north end of tract and furnishes shelter to the bottom land portion. Also the hill land will afford an ideal site for ranch buildings, orchard, etc. Part of the bottom land has been cultivated and the present crop is proof of the soil's fertility. Located one mile south of the city limits and within 200 feet of a navigable tidalwater stream.

You can buy this ideal suburban ranch property on good terms and at a price which you cannot approach elsewhere.

This is something special, sure to make a show place with proper handling. For further particulars see
