the Social Sewing Club at her home in West Marshfield last Thursday afternoon. Needlework was followed by refreshments. Those present were: Mrs. Geo. Ayre, Mrs. D. J. Rees, Mrs. J. C. Swinford, Mrs. Del Rhodes and Mrs. R. N. Fenton and Mrs. Selma Thomas and Miss Underhill were special guests. The Club will meet a week from next Thursday with Mrs. Thomas.

PLAN PARTY

Misses Inez and Esther Johnson will entertain a few friends at their home Monday evening as a sort of farewell for Miss May Preuss, who will leave Tuesday for Berkeley.

ARBUTUS CLUB MEETING

Mrs. M. P. Burrows entertained the Arbutus Club at her home in South Marshfield Friday afternoon. After the business meeting a dainty lunch was served to Anna Downs, Clara Abie, Leona Hoffman, Lorena Hoffman, Gladys and Alice Burrows, Willie Woodring, Augustus Hoffman, Ferdinand Lecocq, Ernest and Raymond Burrows. The next meeting will be August 15. Mrs. M. C. Hoffman will entertain.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Thursday night about seventy invited guests met at the Landrith home on North Coos River and participated in a bonfire party, given in honor of Philip Landrith's twenty-first birthday. The evening was passed in playing out-door games. A hot supper was served at midnight and a very pleasant time enjoyed.

MIZPAH CLASS

Miss Alice Watters this week entertained the Mizpah Bible Class and the Christian Endeavor Society, at the home of her parents in North Bend. The gathering was the social and business meeting of the society. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hazer, Mr. and Mrs. Whitner, Mr. and Mrs. Covey, Misses Helen and Catherine Meude, Mildred Rood, Bess Immel, Grace Fulton, Alice Carlson, Naomi Smith, Juno Young, Rose Pulley, Messrs. Paul Barclay, Lyle Chappell, Melvin Jacobson, Leslie Pullen, Herman Meude, Horace Holm and Marlon Reynolds.

PLAN PICNIC

The annual picnic of the Ladies' Art Club will be enjoyed tomorrow by the husbands, families and a few friends of the members. It will be held at Charleston Bay.

MEET NEXT WEEK

St. Mary's Guild of North Bend will be entertained next Friday afternoon by Mrs. I. B. Bartle at her home.

ENJOY SOCIAL

The Norwegian Lutheran young people enjoyed a social at the church last evening. Various diversions were enjoyed, followed by refreshments, served by Miss Jennie Johnson and Palmer Nelson. It was decided not to hold any more socials until the last Friday in August. Among those present last evening were Rev. and Mrs. Thorpe, Misses Elsie Larson, Jennie Johnson, Dorothy Johnson, Louise and Amelia Lillebo, Mabel Cora and Alice Madison, and Messrs. Chris Peterson, Magnus Thorpe, Andrew Anderson, Alfred Jaren, Andrew King, Emil Gabrielson, Mellen Palmer Nelson, Olaf Kirkright and Oliver Larsen.

Mrs. Jory, formerly Miss Ella Hodson of Coos Bay, arrived here this week from Seattle to visit her sister, Mrs. J. E. Edmonds, and other relatives and friends in this section.

J. S. Coke and family plan to leave tomorrow for a short outing trip. They had first planned to spend it at the Merchant ranch near Bullards, but the cottage they had planned to get was taken.

Robert Marsden and wife and son left this week to visit Willamette Valley points and Portland.

Mrs. Chas. E. Seafuse returned this week from a short visit with her parents in Portland.

Mrs. Ed Moehler and baby spent the first of the week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Wickham, in Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weaver and baby, Miss Millie McIntosh and Vivian Carlson are camping at the Stora ranch above Allegany for a couple of weeks.

Miss Lillian McNary, for ten years head of the Salem hospital, and her niece, Miss Elizabeth Dyer, arrived here this week from Portland for a short visit at the home of Miss McNary's sister, Mrs. I. S. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wiggins and children left this week for their home at San Diego after a pleasant auto trip to the Bay and a short visit

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine dribbling by day or night.

at the home of Mrs. Wiggins' sister, Mrs. F. S. Dow.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Birch and Mrs. Merryman, will leave the first of next week for the Merchant ranch near Bullard's, where they will camp out for a few weeks.

Miss May Preuss and Miss Helen Merchant will leave Tuesday on the Speedwell for San Francisco. Miss Preuss will resume her studies at the University of California, while Miss Merchant will join her mother, Mrs. W. T. Merchant, who has taken apartments in the city.

Miss Nora Tower will leave Tuesday on the Nann Smith to resume her course at the University of California at Berkeley.

Mrs. Lee Fuller will leave tomorrow on the Breakwater for her home in Wenatchee, Wash., after a delightful visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. C. Chapman in South Marshfield and with other relatives and friends on the Bay.

Miss Hilda Stenholm, who has been attending summer school at Monmouth will go to Portland Monday to spend a few weeks there and is expected to return here about August 20.

Mrs. Harry Bradfield will leave tomorrow for Spokane in response to a message announcing the serious illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, Miss Grace Kruse and Mrs. J. Albert Matson and son, Julius, arrived home Thursday evening from a long auto trip. They first motored to Medford, via Roseburg, where they visited at the home of Mrs. Matson's sister, Mrs. Vandecar, and later proceeded to Crater Lake and returned via Crescent City, Gold Beach and Port Orford.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Magnus, who have been spending a few weeks on the Bay, will leave soon for their home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Walter Richardson and children will leave soon for McMinnville, where the older children will enter the Baptist College.

MEETING FORCE WITH FORCE.

If force has been used in quelling the L. W. W. disturbances in Portland and elsewhere in the state, there should be little cause for complaint from the I. W. Ws. themselves. Force is the cornerstone of the I. W. W. creed. The members of this organization have little use for the gentler ways of the ballot; they prefer to preach direct action, which is a milder name for plain force.

The I. W. W. seeks the overthrow of the present system, and the foundation of a new one. He would have the machinery of production placed directly in the hands of the workers, eliminating the employing class altogether. This he would accomplish by so crippling the employing class that it will be compelled to give up in despair. He frankly avows that he will stop at no means that will help to bring about the end he seeks.—Eugene Register.

NOTES FROM SCHOFIELD

(Special to The Times.)

SCHOFIELD, August 9.—The school entertainment given last Saturday, was a great success, and spoke well for Miss Schilling, the teacher, who had charge. The net social following netted over eighty dollars, which will be used in buying the school library in a neat cabinet case. Among those attending from a distance, were the Miss Schilling, sisters of the teacher, Mrs. Byler of North Bend, who was a guest at the home of Engineer at Mrs. F. D. Browne, Miss Jennie Walker from Smith River and Miss Agnes Sprague from Templeton. The patrons of the school greatly appreciate the good natured bidding by the contractors and the young men from the Engineer's camp.

The following lines outline something that really happened at Tunnel Camp No. 7, as nearly as can be ascertained by the Times correspondent, from the Mexican chore mat.

"Over the hills and far away,
Joe, the Mexican, dark and gay,
Went for some sheep that had gone astray.
At stern command from Sir Treble lay.

Quoth the wild chef, Charles Elmer,
As he whetted his blade and wildly swore;
"Mutton's the bill today as of yore,
And the tunnel crew gasped, 'more."

But it so happened that blessed day,
That a bold cougar, lean and grey,
That hadn't his fill since the last of May,
Was prowling round for timid prey.

'Twas past high noon when Joe found
The sheep,
One, two, three, all in a heap,
And Joe soon knew they were not asleep.

For the bold old cougar had his meat,
So back to the camp the chore man flew,
Carrying with him many a steak,
And by six o'clock all of Porters' men knew
That for supper they'd have had
Steak to chew.
So long and loud the whistle blew.
