JOHN M'NABB CALLED AS WITNESS ALSO

Chief of Police of Reno, Nev., Tells of Arrest of Two Men and Girls There.

(By Associated Press to Cos Bay Times.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—If a cross examination of minor witnesses does not consume too much of the Government's time, the Government expects to reach the crisis of the case against Maury Diggs, on trial charged with violation of the Mann white slave act late today when Marsha Warrington was to take the stand. John McNabb, whose designation from the office of Federal District Attorney became a national incident, took the stand a few minutes before the noon adjournment to identify an exhibit.

Judge Van Fleet today reiterated that no evidence intended to show whether the girls went to Reno gladly or unwillingly, or whether they stayed there happily or in fear would be admitted. Such testimony is immaterial, he held, and would not be allowed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—In the Diggs white slave trial today, J. Hillhouse, Chief of Police of Reno, testified to the arrest of Maury Diggs, Caminetti and the two girls at the Cheney street bungalow on the morning of March 14. The defendant and his posses tried the front door and got no answer. After ringing the door bell for some time no answer was given. "You're Mr. Diggs, aren't you?" Chief asked.

"No, I'm Earlith," was the answer.

"I think you are Diggs, and I want you in Sacramento for a while."

"All right, there's no use in my attempting to deny it."

During this conversation the defendant testified Marsha Warrington was in the south bedroom and Caminetti and Lola Norris were in the north bedroom. Caminetti was in the same stage of undress as Diggs. The girls' hair was down and their dresses were not wholly fastened.

Socialists Call General Suspension of Work Throughout Country Today.

(By Associated Press to Cos Bay Times.)

MILAN, Italy, Aug. 11.—A general strike throughout Italy was proclaimed in a manifesto issued today by the Socialist workman's organization here.

The leaders of the strike movement are preaching revolution. One said today: "We don't wish to follow the example of America, where certain strikes have lasted as long as eighteen months, because the strikers received wages from unions, but ended in a moral and financial disaster."

The strikers and troops maneuvered all day to outwit each other. Every assemblage of strikers was dispersed by the troops, although there was much stone throwing and singing of anarchist songs.

Three miles outside of Milan, a striker lay down across the tracks in front of an approaching passenger train. The engineer stopped, whereupon the prostrate man called on the train crew to strike. A riot followed between strike sympathizers and their opponents, which a detachment of troops finally ended.

WILL IMPEACH GOV. SULZER

New York Legislature Plans to Oust Governor—Republicans Oppose Action.

(By Associated Press to Cos Bay Times.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 12.—That Governor Wm. Sulzer will be subjected to the ordeal of an impeachment trial as a result of today's session of the Assembly, was the confident prediction of the Governor's opponents. Despite the fact that on the Levy resolution calling for impeachment of the Governor for "willful and corrupt conduct in office and for high crimes and misdemeanors," the Republicans at last night's session, which extended into the early hours of today, voted almost solidly against its immediate consideration. Minority Leader Hindman and several others of that party made it plain that this did not indicate their hostilities to the general proposition.

Governor Sulzer sauntered over to the capitol a full hour before his customary time, and entered his office. The Governor's secretary announced there would be no word from the Governor until after the vote. "If the vote is to impeach," said the secretary, "Governor Sulzer will have nothing to say, but will reserve his answer for the impeachment proceedings before the Senate. Should the resolution to impeach be defeated, the Governor will give out a statement setting forth his side of the controversy in its entirety."

Because of the probable close of vote on the impeachment resolution and because some Democrats feel the Assembly should not attempt to rush it through, it is possible the Assembly will defer its action several days, and possibly a week.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 11.—John A. Hennessey, special commissioner appointed by Governor Sulzer to "investigate the irregularities, if any, in the state department," began his investigation before the Frawley committee today. Hennessey read a letter from Matthew J. Horgan, an employe of the Frawley committee, declining to honor a subpoena on the ground that his time is entirely taken up by the Frawley committee. Hennessey then read what he called a certified statement which indicated that Horgan had been discharged repeatedly from public service for drunkenness, had served several terms in prison and had been guilty of perjury in attempting to screen his prison record when applying for public office.

President Wilson Wants All Misunderstandings Cleared Up in First Place.

WILL THEN PROCEED WITH PEACE PROJECT

European Powers Expected to Support Any Move United States Makes There.

(By Associated Press to Cos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—Charge d'Affairs O'Shaughnessy cabled the State Department today that the situation in Mexico City was peaceful and quiet. His message was gratifying to the administration officials, who desire that all misunderstandings which the Mexican government may have as to the intentions of the United States shall be cleared up before any other steps are taken in the peace policy of President Wilson.

The presentation of the note presenting the views of President Wilson is expected soon, but various steps in the American Government's program will be carried out gradually. The first note will be transmitted in duplicate to all foreign governments represented here and will declare for the first time in formal terms the attitude of the administration toward Mexico.

Administration officials who are hoping that European countries will lend their moral support to the efforts to adjust the Mexican situation peacefully were favorably impressed with the statement of the British government that recognition of Huerta had been only recognition of the Provisional President, pending the election, and was done on the theory that it was likely to assist in the restoration of order. The added comment from the British government that France and Germany had recognized President Huerta after American Ambassador Wilson had made a congratulatory speech at the reception given by President Huerta to the diplomatic corps, was received as further strengthening the view of President Wilson that the American Ambassador had been a personal factor in the situation.

SENATE WILL AID

Will Not Permit Mexican Situation to be Stirred Up by Debate.

(By Associated Press to Cos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—There were evidences in the Senate today of a determination on the part of the leaders to keep Mexican affairs out of the debate. Members of the Foreign Relations committee said President Wilson had exacted no promises from them to that end, but they could agree that the administration should be allowed to carry out its work for the next few days with as little embarrassment as possible.

BAD CHECKS PASSED HERE

Emerson Ferry Looking for I. W. Billings to Make Good $25.00 Loss Today.

After posing around here for a few weeks as a man with $6000 or so to invest in a saloon, I. W. Billings is being sought today by Marshal Carter for passing worthless checks on Emerson Ferry of the Blanco bar and hotel. Billings was here three days ago, but whether he is still here is not certain.

Billings passed three checks, two for $10 each and the third for $5. One of the checks was cashed by Mr. Ferry personally, one by Bert Belien in the Blanco bar and the other by a guest at the Blanco. They were drawn on a San Diego bank and came back marked "N. G." and with the notation that Billings was evidently a swindler, according to Marshal Carter.

Billings claimed to be a relative of the Billings family near Myrtle Point and talking of knowing many people in that section but Marshal Carter said today that he was not related to them.
