Gets Two Deer.—W. E. Best returned yesterday from a week's hunt on Kentuck Inlet, bringing two deer back with him as trophies of the hunt.

Goes East.—C. A. Smith who was expected here this week was called east on business matters and is now in Chicago. Just when he will be able to visit the Bay is not certain.

Pension Stops.—Mrs. Layton, now Mrs. B. B. Smith, is the first one to lose a mother's pension in Coos County. She was granted a pension in June and her marriage last week terminates the monthly allowance.

Get Quarters.—All of the Biltmore students have been located in rooms by Cornell Lagerstrom and others who were arranging for them. Dr. and Mrs. Schenck are located in the Painter bungalow on Tenth street.

Build Home.—Herman Hillier has put in the foundation for a home for himself on Elrod avenue, near Twelfth, adjoining C. H. Bonebrake's residence. He has not decided whether he will erect the house this fall or wait until next spring.

No Claims.—Yesterday was the day for filing claims against George Washington Stewart, bankrupt, but as he had no assets, a couple of suits of clothes, which are exempt, no one took the bother to file claims. He owed about $350.

Big Bonfire.—Plans are being made for a big bon-fire tonight at the home of Alva Granby on Coos River. It is expected that about seventy-five young people will be present. Rumors that the occasion will be marked by a surprise wedding could not be confirmed today.

Pipe Corrodes.—The Coos Bay Water Company is having lots of trouble with its main on Commercial avenue near Broadway. The pipe has been in several years and Foreman Jack Swanton says the salt has eaten it out so that it breaks easily. The breaks are expensive on account of the hard paving.

Meets Old Friend.—Lew Isenberg, of Hood River, who arrived here recently to take a position, saw a man on the street whom he thought he knew and finally went up to him and said, "Hello Bob." The latter turned around and recognized the voice. "Bob" was R. A. Copple, and the two had not seen each other for over a dozen years.

Visits Salem.—Miss Mabel Wilson, who was a teacher in the Salem public schools last year, and who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. F. L. Grannis, at Marshfield, has returned to Salem and is the guest of Mrs. Fletcher Homan. Miss Wilson will be in Salem for a week, when she will go to Seattle, where she has been secured as a teacher in the institutions of the big Sound City. — Salem Statesman.

Many Voters.—The voting strength of the North Inlet precinct has been considerably increased this year as a result of the railroad operations, and it is reported that about 150 have been registered there so far. Oscar Ohman is registering the voters of the precinct. The ranchers are also taking much interest in the coming election as they are planning to submit a "herd law" question which will restrict the running of cattle wild in that section.

Friend Drowned.—Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Jones were much interested in the story of the wreck of the steamship State of California on the Alaskan coast as carried in The Times, as Miss Blanche Fridd, of the Monmouth Normal, one of the victims, was a close friend of theirs. Mrs. Fridd and Mrs. Jones attended school together at Valley City, N. D., and the two families knew each other well prior to the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Jones to the Bay. Mrs. Jones saw her about two years ago at Valley City, just before Miss Fridd came to Monmouth to teach.

Engagement Announced.—Friends of Miss Kara Shouse and Mr. Joseph Schmedding have been apprised of the engagement of the young couple, the nuptials to take place the latter part of September. Miss Shouse has been bookkeeper for the F. S. Dow company for some time and since her arrival on the Bay from South Dakota has won many friends. Mr. Schmedding is bookkeeper for the Bradley Candy company, but he and his bride will leave October 1 for Manila, where he has taken a fine position with one of the largest mercantile concerns in the Philippines. He was formerly at Manila and the tender of the new position came by cable the other day. During his residence here, Mr. Schmedding has won many friends who will regret to hear of his departure, but will unite in wishing him all the success that can come to him.

S. C. SMALL came over from Coquille yesterday on business. He reports they are making progress with their street improvements in Coquille and hope to complete them within a week or so. They are planning to get their street work in Marshfield underway soon.

E. L. ROBINSON has returned from a trip to his ranch in the Sand Hills and reports that the cranberries are ripening and the first of the crop will be ready in a week or so. The crop this year will not be up to the average, and will probably fall short of 2000 bushels.

MILTON GLASS of San Francisco, whose cousin is the author of the famous Jewish stories which have been running in the Saturday Evening Post, is on the Bay. He travels for a San Francisco house and owing to his clever imitations is known here as the "Human Brass Band."

HON. GEORGE M. BROWN, and wife and two children, and Frank Brown and Mrs. Stanley leave here tomorrow for Bandon, where they will enjoy an outing for a week or two. Mr. Brown will continue on to Gold Beach, where he has official business needing his attention for a short time.—Roseburg Review.

A. H. Davis, an attorney of Ashland, Oregon, arrived here last evening via the old Coos Bay Wagon Road on a business and pleasure trip. The stage line autos from Roseburg were overcrowded yesterday and he had to take the latter route. He will spend a few days here and then plans to go to Gold Beach.

A. C. KURTZ, who has a dairy ranch at Bancroft, near Bridge, was a Marshfield visitor today. Mr. Kurtz has leased his ranch for three years to W. H. Huff and will return to Chicago for an extended stay. Mr. Kurtz is an old time printer and pressman and held a responsible position with the well-known book publishing concern of W. B. Conkey & Co.

WALTER CONDRON, of Myrtle Point, who has some grading contracts on the Smith-Powers line beyond Myrtle Point, was here yesterday and reports good progress is being made and that additional workmen are being brought in. If Willett & Burr are able to increase their force as they hope to, they will probably complete the line this fall if the weather remains good.
