located at Beaumont, Texas, where he is road man and erector for the Beaumont Iron Works. He says it has been very hot there and that he longs for a Coos Bay breeze. Business in that section is fairly good, but he says it is very quiet in Tennessee and Alabama.

Champion Hunter.—The Roseburg Review says: "Gard Sawyers, of Elkton, continues to be the most successful varmint hunter of the county. He has recently killed eight cougars, five of them in Coos County. In three weeks hunting in that county his scalp bounties amounted to $105."

Waite Coming.—F. B. Waite is expected to return to the Bay next Monday. There have been no developments in the Kinney affair reported today, but it is understood that Mr. Waite is arranging to push his mortgage foreclosure suit and that the hearing of testimony in it will be started by 'ra B. Riddle as special referee in a short time.

Is Better.—Word was received here yesterday that Mr. Merryman, father of Mrs. F. C. Birch, who had been critically ill at his home in Chico, Cal., is somewhat improved. Mrs. Merryman, who is spending the summer here with her daughter, had intended to leave for Chico today, but owing to the improvement in her husband's condition she will remain longer.

Starts Church.—Contractor Hilbarger has started work on the new Episcopal church here and has the work well under way. Owing to the failure of the Myrtle Point school board to finance their proposed new $18,000 school house so that the contractor could get his pay promptly, Mr. Hilbarger has given up the Myrtle Point contract on which he was low bidder.

Mind is Blank.—Thomas McNair, who came here about three months ago was picked up last evening by the officers in South Marshfield. He was wandering about in a dazed condition, his mind being a blank. He is being detained at the city hall, until Taylor Siglin, a cousin, can come for him. McNair is about 40 years old, has been a bookkeeper and is up in Masonry.

Back From Trip.—J. T. Harrigan and wife and daughter, Miss Mabel, and Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Perry, arrived home last evening from an auto tour of Southern Oregon and Northern California. They came back via Roseburg. They had one of the most enjoyable trips imaginable.

At Beaumont.—Warren L. Bachtel, formerly of Marshfield, is now
