Autumn Suits Are Here

Authoritative apparel—every garment thoroughly correct—every new and proper fabric, pattern, style and color modish this season is here in extravagant variety—a world of foreign and domestic fabrics—novelty weaves in the new shades of gray, oxford blue and wood browns—silk mixed worsteds, fancy weave blues in self stripes and silk decorations—also grays and browns in inexhaustible assortments—hundreds of the staple blues and plain blacks—all sizes to fit men of every build, whether regular, extra large, stout, short stout or thin—as usual our value giving supremacy is strongly maintained—the prices range from $10.00 to $40.00.

We Particularly Wish You to inspect the Superior Lines We Are Showing at $15.00 to $17.00

Advance Showing of Ladies' New Fall Coats and Suits

To those desiring to know the trend of the season's styles this event will be welcomed with pleasure; those who desire to make an early purchase will find suits to their liking and taste in this showing, and last but not least, it is good practice to come and look over these new arrivals as they come, even if you have no intention of making a purchase until later—many a woman has lost the suit she most desired by its purchase prior to the time that she saw the style.

WEDDINGS

At Eugene, Or., August 16, the marriage of Chas. Tower of Marshfield, formerly of Lane County, and Miss Mildred Poole of Cottage Grove was solemnized by the Reverend H. S. Wilkinson. The bride is a charming and popular young woman, and the groom is becoming well known in Marshfield through his able management as co-partner with his brother in the Orpheum Theatre. After a honeymoon visit with relatives in Lane County the young couple arrived yesterday in Marshfield, to make their home here.

THIMBLE CLUB.

Mrs. L. K. Strate entertained the North Bend Thimble Club at her home Friday afternoon. Owing to many of the members being at the Roundup and races, the attendance was small. Those present were: Mrs. E. F. Russell, Mrs. Chas. Kaiser, Mrs. Hazer and Mrs. R. F. Gebhart. The next meeting place was not designated.

HONORS RELATIVE.

Mrs. Chas. LaChapelle entertained a number of friends at sewing

Tuesday, complimentary to her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. A. Baker, who arrived here recently from Omaha with her family to make their home on the Bay. Sweet peas predominated in the decorations and in serving. Mrs. LaChapelle was assisted by Mrs. V. S. Brown. Among those present were Mrs. F. H. Dresser, Mrs. Wallace, of Minneapolis, Mrs. Chas. Davis, Mrs. Wm. Dasher, Mrs. E. E. Kelly, Mrs. L. W. Langdon, Mrs. W. S. Brown, Mrs. G. N. Bolt and Mrs. Baker.

EVENING PARTY.

Dr. and Mrs. Ira B. Bartle entertained a few friends informally at their home in North Bend last evening at cards and dancing and a crawfish supper. Those enjoying their hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Painter, Miss Thea Kruse, Miss Hazel Carlson and Miss Mildred Coke, and Messrs. Dr. Will H. Mott, Phil Kaiser, John Mullen and Lester Eaton.

♦ DON'TS on Rheumatism ♦

Rheumatism is stubborn as a mule. Hangs on like a leech, wears you out, worries you with pain, drags your vitality, depresses your mind and health. DON'T give up to it. DON'T let it hang on. DON'T overlook Foley Kidney Pills. They are a natural enemy to the conditions that cause rheumatism, which they will promptly remove. Owl Prescription Pharmacy, Frank D. Cohan, Opposite Chandler Hotel, Phone 74.
