Trojan Powder

THE BEST FOR STUMPS AND ROCK.

It will not freeze under any conditions. It is the safest high explosive used. It cannot be exploded by any ordinary impact or jar, as it contains no nitro-glycerin, picric acid, chlorate of potash or gun cotton. It will not produce headache or nausea in handling. Its expansive force is such that it removes material more thoroughly and economically than any other explosive. It may be stored without attention for long periods with no impairment of its efficiency.

Clearing Big Creek.—L. J. Simpson has a force of men clearing paths through the Big Creek bottom near Shores Acres, making it a fine natural park. Paths are being arranged, foot bridges built and all the natural beauties left.

Sails Today.—Miss Marie T. Maloney is scheduled to sail today from Liverpool for New York, having concluded her trip through Europe. From New York she will go to New Orleans and thence to Panama. She will return via San Francisco, reaching Coos Bay about October 1.

Hammond's Suit.—Attorney A. S. Hammond, of North Bend, arrived here Friday afternoon to hold a consultation with W. W. Cardwell concerning a damage suit, to be tried soon in the Coos County courts. He left for Portland to spend a few days looking after business matters. —Roseburg Review.

Autoists Bother.—Residents of South Marshfield are threatening to prosecute autoists who have been bothering them lately. They claim that the machines have been nightly using the Eleventh street hill between Elrod and Flanagan as a test for their cars and making so much noise that the residents can't sleep.

Made Quick Auto Trip.—Lester McDonald drove an auto from Gold Beach last Saturday in about thirteen hours, and if it were not for tire trouble he would have made it in nine hours. He had as passengers Mr. and Mrs. John D. Goss, T. T. Bennett and a Mr. Robinson, of Portland. They left Gold Beach at 5 a. m., and were in Marshfield shortly after 6. It is the record trip of the year.

Case Settled.—The divorce case of Mrs. Wheeler vs. W. S. Wheeler has been settled, the couple adjusting their difficulties and living together again. The case which was to have been tried at the coming term of Court has been dismissed.

Return From Trip.—Tom Waters and George Watkins returned home yesterday from their hike to Yaquina. They had a good trip but decided that Coos Bay was best after all. While taking a swim at Yaquina some one got into their clothing and took most of their surplus coin.

Claim Property.—Annie E. Stickney, through John W. Motley, her guardian, has begun suit to eject Max Timmerman from the residence property on North First street. It is claimed that Mrs. Stickney's husband bequeathed the property to Timmerman although it belonged to his wife who had been sent to the asylum several years prior to his death. I. N. Miller is Mr. Motley's attorney.

New Hotel at Ten Mile.—C. C. Going returned Saturday evening from Lakeside where he has been installing between $4000 and $5000 worth of furniture in the new Hotel Ten Mile at that place. Col. Going says it is one of the best hotels in Coos County outside of the Chandler and has been elegantly fitted up. The hotel is now open and the proprietor cordially invites Coos Bay people to inspect the new hostelry.

Booster Booklets.—D. C. Green today received word that the booster booklets which the Southern Pacific is issuing for the Marshfield and North Bend Commercial bodies will reach here Wednesday. The booklets were originally planned to be thirty-two pages each, but it is intimated that they will be much larger, possibly reaching eighty-six and including many of the fine views which their official photographer took in this section.

Crawford Reticent.—The Roseburg Review says: "Attorney General and Mrs. A. M. Crawford were here Saturday en route to Salem after a trip to Marshfield and Bandon, where Mr. Crawford inquired into the recent deportations of I. W. W.'s, who were causing trouble there. Mr. Crawford, of course, declined to discuss the matter, but will make a report later to the Governor. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford still hold Roseburg as their legal residence and will come here to vote in November.

Back From Trip.—W. S. Chandler and Tom Coke returned Saturday with Judge J. S. Coke from Curry County where they enjoyed an outing while Judge Coke was holding court at Gold Beach. They got several deer while away. While stopping at the Fromm ranch, Judge Coke killed a bear, but the latter got away in the brush. Both Judge Coke and another man shot at the bear, but the friends of Judge Coke who witnessed the shooting say his bullet put an end to bruin's earthly career and depredations on the sheep.

Many on Excursion.—The Coos Bay Band excursion to Bandon yesterday was successful in every way except attendance, which did not come up to the expectations of Manager Wilson. About 200 made the trip over and a number who had previously gone over came back with the crowd, arriving home about 9:30 last night. There were no accidents. The day was delightful along the beach with the exception of the heavy wind. Bandon was just cleaning up after the carnival. A number went over in autos. North Bend failed to show up for the ball game and a team was picked to play the Bandon nine an exhibition game.
