WALP.—To Mr. and Mrs. David C. Walp, at their home in South Marshfield, Tuesday, September 2, 1913, a boy. Mother and child are doing well and the father is as happy as the father of a future president—of a railway—ought to be.

WAGES.—At South Inlet, August 25, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wages, a seven-pound daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely and the father is happy over the arrival of their first child.

Meet Thursday.—The College Women's Club will meet Thursday evening with Mrs. M. C. Maloney.

Train Late.—The passenger train from Coquille was nearly two hours late last evening caused by unusually heavy freight and passenger traffic.

Options Ranch.—Carl Briggs, who came here recently from Vancouver Wash., has taken an option on the W. H. Morgan ranch on Daniels Creek for $10,000.

Leave Tomorrow.—The Arnold Amusement company which has been putting on carnivals in this section will leave Thursday on the Breakwater for Portland.

Killed Dog.—E. W. Bernitt and Warner Ogren went out Saturday night to get a deer. Mr. Bernitt's pet dog went along and in the brush Mr. Ogren accidentally shot and killed the pet.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield City Council will meet this evening to take up various city matters, including additional street work.

Going to Portland.—The Arnold Amusement Company arrived from Bandon yesterday and will leave tomorrow for Portland after a successful trip through this section.

Visit Rebekah Lodges.—Mrs. Kate Landon, vice-president of the Oregon Rebekah Assembly, left this morning via Allegany to make an official visit to the Rebekah lodges in Gardiner, Florence and Mapleton.

Move to Daniels Creek.—G. T. Coleman, the blacksmith, has been engaged by the McDonald & Vaughan Camp at Daniels Creek to take charge of their machine shops. He will build a house there and expects to leave with his family on Thursday for their new home.

Heavy Passenger Traffic.—There is an unusually heavy passenger traffic from Coos Bay to Coquille Valley points and return these days. The passenger train last evening was crowded and many had to stand in the aisles.

Libby Dance a Success.—The dance at Libby last Saturday evening was one of the most successful of the season. The wee sma' hours were growing big before "Home, Sweet Home" sounded for delighted dancers.

Beautiful Lilies.—A stem of beautiful Japanese lilies from the garden of Mrs. Norris Jensen is on exhibition at the "Busy Corner" and has been much admired. There are seventeen lilies in full bloom on a single stem.

Benedicts Won.—Sunday, the second of the series of games between the bachelors and benedicts at Libby was played and the married men won. There was quite a turnout for the game, a number from Marshfield witnessing it.

Court Today.—Judge J. S. Coke and a number of lawyers went to Coquille this morning. Judge Coke convening the adjourned term of Circuit Court. The regular term of Court will open next Monday when the Jury and Grand Jury will get busy.

South Slough Trouble.—County Superintendent Baker of Coquille, passed through here yesterday en route to South Slough to investigate some trouble in the South Slough School district No. 79. It being claimed that Director Bruce was not qualified for the place.

Summer Dance.—The dance that was to have been given at Sumner last Saturday but was postponed until this week, Saturday, September 6, promises to be a big success. A midnight supper will be served. The launch Standard will make a special trip, leaving Marshfield Saturday evening.

Novel Beehive.—L. T. Matthews who was up from his South Inlet ranch yesterday discovered a novel beehive on his ranch. The bees when they swarmed did not bother about finding a hollow tree or box, but simply made their hive underneath a big board on a fence, and have about fifty pounds of honey hanging from the board.

Pioneers Revisit Coos Bay.—Mr. and Mrs. Wingfield Applegate, of Raymond, Washington, have arrived here in their own touring car to revisit scenes that were familiar to them many years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Applegate were among the pioneer residents of Coos Bay but left here many years ago to make their home in Washington. Many old-time friends here will remember them and be glad to greet them again and renew the days of "Auld Lang Syne." They were accompanied on their trip from Roseburg to the bay by Mrs. J. J. Caulfield, of that city.

Leaves Today.—The Tillamook, which brought in a donkey engine and other supplies for Porter Brothers, sailed this morning for Portland.

Mother Very Low.—Will Sneddon yesterday received a card from D. J. Rees and wife, who went to Roslyn, Wash., to see Mr. Rees' mother. The card stated that she was very low.

To Bring Bride.—Reports here again have it that Geo. Goodrum, who has been on a tour of Eastern auto factories, will return with a bride. He is expected in about two weeks. The last report of his matrimonial possibilities is given a semblance of authenticity by the statement that he has written to a local gardener to fix up his place in West Marshfield in fine shape.

Beaver Hill Mine.—It is expected to have the new slope in the Beaver Hill mine completed by January 1. Supt. Russell is making progress, having it down 2,600 feet now and 400 feet to go. Following the completion of the slope, there will be much development work so that it will be nearly a year before the mine can be operated at anywhere near its capacity.

Coquille Won.—Coquille defeated Myrtle Point at Coquille yesterday 10 to 0. This was probably the last game of the season in Coos County. North Bend did not go to Bandon, where an exhibition game was played between the home team and a picked up nine. Most of the imported players are leaving and it is not likely that any further effort will be made to have Enreka come here unless Manager Bedillion decides to keep his bunch together for a series.

Get Books.—The Marshfield public library has just received two new sets of works, one on Russia, from the Oregon State Traveling Library Association. They have also secured pamphlets and reference works for the Biltmore students. A meeting of the library board was held last evening, but nothing particular was done. No further word has been received from the Carnegie people relative to increasing the promised contribution for a library building here.

Hotel for North Bend.—Negotiations are underway which may result in the erection of a fine hotel in North Bend soon. L. J. Simpson is aiding in the movement and Capt. A. M. Simpson may also aid it. It was reported yesterday that the syndicate had tried to get an option on the Davenport Real Estate Company's down-town corner for $25,000, but this was denied. S. Kearney and wife, of Chipewa Falls, Wis., are at North Bend and Mr. Kearney may become interested in the project if a friend who is expected here soon approves of the idea.
