The Blanco Cigar Store

HAS BEEN remodeled, renovated, refitted and redecorated until it is now a modern and metropolitan establishment. Robert Marsden, Sr., has worked wonders with this popular pioneer resort for lovers of the weed and a rubber at whist or a game of solo.

The club room has been enlarged and refitted with electric lights and redecorated, making it an elegant and pleasant place to while away an hour or two.

The front room has been remodeled and with its new fixtures presents a pleasing and attractive appearance. One of the largest and most extensive lines of cigars, tobaccos, pipes, cigars and cigarette holders and smokers' supplies on Coos Bay may be found here.

Only the choicest brands are carried in all lines and while all the popular makes of cigars are in stock, including the five-cent brands, these are of the best and highest priced on the market.

A choice line of confectionery is also to be found here and refreshing fountain and soda water drinks of all kinds.

Nothing has been omitted or neglected to make it one of the most popular resorts on Coos Bay. Robert Marsden, Sr., the proprietor, extends a cordial invitation to everyone to call and especially to all former patrons and all his old-time friends.

THE BLANCO CIGAR STORE,
Robert Marsden, Sr., Proprietor.

Pleased Customers Are Our One Object

Pleased customers mean satisfactory goods and satisfactory service. That's the idea that we keep in mind whenever we buy drug store goods, or whenever we receive an order. We want both our service and our goods to be of so high a character in quality that you will always depend upon us for your every purchase, no matter how small it may be. There is nothing too good for our customers, that's why we are extremely careful in supplying you with the best of drug store goods at all times. Satisfaction is a guarantee that goes with every purchase you make at our store. Try us and be convinced.

Many From Coaledo.—A large delegation of shoppers arrived today from Coaledo. Among those in the City were Mrs. T. H. Williams, Mrs.
Wilschey, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Tibbetts.

Won Suit.—A jury, by a nine to three vote, gave F. W. Stevens of North Bend, a verdict against Levi Helsner, of Marshfield, for $100.
Stevens was suing on one of the notes given by Helsner as a stock subscription to Geo. F. Averill when he was promoting an electric line to Oakland.

Inspectors Here.—Inspectors Edwards and Fuller arrived here overland this morning and left this afternoon for the Coquille. They are the U. S. steamboat inspectors for this district and are making a general tour of inspection. They will return Monday and proceed to Portland on the Breakwater.

Railroad Man Here.—According to a local report, a consulting engineer of the Milwaukee Railway spent about ten days on the Bay.
He did not make himself known or give out his mission, but a Marshfield man who knew him years ago recognized him. Whether there is any significance attached to his visit is a problem.

Consider Booklets.—A meeting of the Publicity Committees of the Marshfield and North Bend Chambers of Commerce will be held here this afternoon to check over the new booklets which the Southern Pacific is issuing for Coos Bay. The proofs of the booklet were received a few days ago and are very handsome, the pictures being especially good.

Engagement Rumored.—According to social gossip, the engagement of Miss Maud Bowron and Alfred V.
Bowhay will be formally announced soon. Miss Noble is a well known Marshfield young woman and Mr.
Bowhay is a draughtsman in the offices of the Southern Pacific, coming here from Grass Valley, Calif.
Miss Noble makes her home with her aunt, Mrs. L. M. Noble. The wedding is expected to take place this fall.

Manager Arrives.—H. S. Harris, an experienced men's clothing and furnishing goods man, for eleven years manager for W. W. Dreyfoos, of Spokane, has arrived to take the management of the men's clothing and furnishing department of the Parisian when it opens in its new home in the Irving block. Mr. Harris expresses himself as very favorably impressed with Coos Bay and thinks it has a great future.

Arrives Here.—Prof. H. D. Scudder of the Agricultural Extension Department of the Oregon Agricultural College, arrived Thursday to make arrangements for establishing an experiment station in Coos County. He was accompanied by his wife and son, Donald, and they went to Myrtle Point to take in the fair, after which he will return here to make arrangements for the County experiment farm in which Senator J. S. Smith will cooperate with him.

On Novel Tour.—The Agness Orchestra arrived here today to give two concerts, after having made a seven weeks' tour of Josephine, Douglas and Coos and Curry Counties, and also of Del Norte County, California. They are under the direction of R. C. Norton, a graduate of the New England and Columbia University conservatories of music, who settled in Curry a year ago to engage in mining. He organized the orchestra about eight months ago. Most of those in the company had never been outside of Curry County before. There are fourteen pieces in the orchestra and after tonight and tomorrow night's concert at the Royal here, they will return home via Bandon. Agness is about thirty miles above Gold Beach on Rogue River and those in the orchestra are: A. J. Berg and O. Powell, of Crescent City, Mrs. Lucas and sons, Lawrence, Clifford and Donald; Charley and Francis Scanlon, Martha, Frank and Teller Price, Ola Jones and Robt. Edgren.

Along the Waterfront.

The Rustler will probably sail this afternoon for Rogue River. She has a miscellaneous cargo of coal and general merchandise.
The Nann Smith is due in tomorrow morning from San Francisco.
