

WHEN you're ready to buy your clothes, just remember one thing about this store; we're really a lot more interested in what we can give you for your money than in what you pay us. We expect to make some profit on what we sell; you want us to; we couldn't keep up our service to you if we didn't. We advise you to buy

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Clothes and pay more for them than you'll pay for most other clothes, because of what you're going to get, not because of the money you'll pay us.

We can say $25 is a good price for you to pay; we can show you value for the money; but we'll just as cheerfully show you a $20 suit or a $35 or $40 one. We want you to know the real economy of these goods.

DAUGHTER IS BORN

Their many friends and acquaintances will rejoice to learn that to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Juza a daughter was born Thursday morning at 8 o'clock. Mr. Juza is the guiding star in the mechanical department of the Sentinel and very naturally that 18-karat smile over-spreading his countenance has an exhilarating effect on walls. —Coquille Sentinel.

Leave Today.—Those leaving this morning on the Marshfield-Roseburg stage were R. A. Graham and Geo. P. Sheridan.

Get Ducks.—Lyle Savage and Chas. Rehfield were the first Coos Bay hunters to get ducks, bagging seventeen, principally mallards, in the lower bay the first day of the season, Monday.

Kill Bears.—Word has been received from Allegany that Geo. A. Gould and Harry Stull killed two large bears the other day on the West Fork of North Coos River. They almost got a third one.

Fair Progress.—Manager R. E. Miller of the Dredge Seattle, reports that they are making fairly good progress on the work at North Bend and that they expect to have that work completed within a month.

Enjoy Concert.—The Coos Bay Band concert at the Masonic Opera House last evening was largely attended and the various numbers were loudly applauded. The piccolo solos by Mr. Schmedding were especially applauded, Mr. Schmedding responding to the encores.

Father Ill.—C. H. Marsh left yesterday for Colorado in response to word that his father was critically ill there. Mr. Marsh, Sr., has been spending the summer in Illinois and Colorado. He is quite advanced in years. His many friends on Coos Bay will hope for his recovery.

Cases Go Over.—Owing to the fact that most of the jurors summoned for this term of court had become more or less familiar with the Averill note troubles so that it would be difficult to get a jury who were not biased, the trial of two of them, those of Stevens vs. Goodwill and Stevens vs. Campbell, will not be heard this term of court probably.

Returns to San Francisco.—After visiting for a couple of weeks with his sister, Mrs. J. W. Carter, at Allegany, J. H. Murray will leave today for Roseburg, where he will stop several days at the home of his brother, and will then return to San Francisco. He is in the employ of the Southern Pacific engineering corps and was in Mexico engaged in that work when the last revolution broke out there, the corps being ordered to leave by the providing, of course, you take the right medicines for the right ailment. Therein lies the secret of the doctor's skillful and scientific diagnosis. He knows what drugs to prescribe for you and the exact amount to take. The best thing to do in all cases of illness whether slight or serious is to call in your physician at once. He will tell you exactly what to take. We will give you exactly what he orders, and it will be compounded right in every respect. See your doctor first, then see us, yours for health.

You Can Have Better Health

American Consul. His trip here this summer is the first time he has visited Marshfield in twelve years.

Kills Boat Service.—Capt. J. A. O'Kelly is planning to take his launches Bonita and Marshfield to San Francisco Bay and dispose of them. The advent of the auto has ruined the launch business on the Bay and the former launch king will have to get a new line. O'Kelly once tried the auto business, but his attempt ended badly, being unable to meet the Gorst & King competition.

Change Exam.—The civil service examination which was to have been held in Marshfield for applicants for the job as Postmaster at Florence was called off and the examination will be held at Florence September 27. The change was made as a result of the protest made by Postmaster Kyle of Florence against having to come to Marshfield. The Florence position pays $895 per year.

Sent to Jail.—Joe Schott has received a letter from Earl Henderson, who had a rather meteoric career as a pugilist on Coos Bay, that he was convicted of prize fighting at Rock Island, Illinois and fined $100 and sentenced to sixty days in jail. He is now serving his jail term and when it is over expects to come West. Henderson's conviction was for knocking out Jack White of Chicago in a Labor Day bout.

Found Book.—M. McDermid, a recent arrival on Coos Bay, lost his membership book in the Carpenters' Union, which he valued highly. He mentioned his loss to an acquaintance, who told him that The Times would find it for him. He came to the Times office, inserted a small want advertisement and the next day the book was brought to The Times office by B. P. Colvin, who found it. The Times want advs. get results because everybody reads The Times.

Brown's Version.—The Roseburg News prints a statement by District Attorney George Brown in which he vigorously denies a report that he is opposing a division of the Prosecuting Attorney's district as is proposed by the County Attorney bill on which the referendum has been invoked. Mr. Brown says he will favor the County Attorney bill and work for it as there is enough criminal business in Coos and Douglas Counties for each to have a Prosecuting Attorney of its own.
