

ALLEGANY TO GET NEW HALL

P. E. Larson Contributes Site Providing no Booze be Permitted There.

P. E. Larson of Allegany, has just ceded a tract 36x40 at Allegany to the "Allegany Glee Club" to be used as a site for an amusement hall. The site is being donated to the new organization formed by Messrs. Larson, Noah and others, who will raise funds for the erection of a building. Concerts, public meetings, etc., will be held there.

The only stipulation in Mr. Larson's gift of the site is that liquor is never to be served in the hall or permitted on the ground.

Mr. Larson is also arranging to put in a water system at Allegany, a fine spring which has a large flow being the source of supply.

THINK PRIEST KILLED OTHERS

Death Certificate for Disposal of Six Bodies—Police Redouble Efforts.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Detectives rummaging through the effects of Hans Schmidt, the Catholic priest, who confessed to the murder of Anna Aumuller, were strengthened today in their belief that he planned other murders by finding complete sets of Health Department blanks necessary to dispose of six bodies. Such blanks are issued by the Department only to physicians in good standing.

The discovery of the certificates made the police redouble the vigor of their search for Helen Green, who vanished a month ago, after writing Schmidt that she could not live without him.

ELKS TO PUT ON BIG SHOW

Marshfield Lodge Arranging for Big Performance Here This Fall.

The Marshfield lodge of Elks is making arrangements for putting on a big show again this fall. So far, only tentative plans have been made.

The show will probably be in charge of F. D. Fletcher and C. W. Montgomery, insuring a howling success. Messrs. Fletcher and Montgomery recently returned from San Francisco, where they got in touch with the latest in vaudeville and minstrel stuff and this, with a few up-to-the-minute stunts at home are planned.

It is expected that definite arrangements will be made at the next regular meeting of the lodge, a week from next Wednesday.

"LEARN ONE THING EVERY DAY"

No. 3. ALCAZAR AT SEVILLE

Copyright 1913, by The Mentor Association, Inc.

TRANQUILLY amid its gardens that glow with roses and orange blossoms, the Alcazar of Seville, palace of the old Castilian kings, stands now as it stood in the days of the Moors. Here and there a ceiling, a stairway, or a colonnade, damaged by fire or earthquake, has been repaired according to architectural ideas of more modern times; but in the main those Moorish kings who built it could sleep, if they were there today, in their own rooms undisturbed by any feeling of strangeness.

The site on which the Alcazar was built is probably the oldest in Seville. The palace replaces an old Gothic castle, which had been erected on the foundation of a Roman villa. Uncertain traditions and the imagination of historical writers have pictured the houses of shepherds on the same spot before history began.

There are many stories about the Alcazar, both true and fabulous. The Court of Maidens took its name from one of these. It was told how a tribute of a hundred maidens paid to the Mohammedan ruler had been lodged in that part of the Alcazar. History does not show that the emir ever asked for such a tribute, but it is probable that the Court of Maidens had not been built at the time when this incident is supposed to have happened. Nevertheless, such a story has grown up, and given to the room a name that it will doubtless bear for all time.

After Castile had thrown off Moorish rule Seville was made the capital of Spain. For several centuries Christian kings lived in the Alcazar, adding somewhat to the original structure as the moors had left it. The name of Pedro is more closely connected than any other Spanish ruler with the history and fiction of the building. He was called Pedro the Cruel. A grim sense of humor and a habit of going through the streets of Seville in disguise made him the subject of odd tales and rumors. Some of these stories are merely whimsical. He is said to have met four candidates for a judge's position beside a pool in the gardens where they had gone to find him. Pedro turning to the first, asked him what was floating in the pool.

"An orange," replied the candidate without hesitation.

The second and third gave him the same answer.

The fourth fished out the piece of fruit with his staff, examined it, and replied more accurately, "Half an orange."

Pedro immediately gave him the appointment.

Every day a different human interest story will appear in The Times. You can get a beautiful intaglio reproduction of this picture, with five others, equally attractive, 7 by 9 1/2 inches in size, with this week's "Mentor." In "The Mentor" a well-known authority covers the subject of the pictures and stories of the week. Readers of The Times and "The Mentor" will know Art, Literature, History, Science, and Travel, and own exquisite pictures. On sale at The Times office. Price fifteen cents. SOME PIONEER NEWS

(From The Coos Bay News, published at Marshfield, Sept. 15, 1880. Siglin & Bennett, publishers)

Gruby's mill on the Coquille is receiving a thorough overhauling.

W. Webster is building a residence on the sawdust, near the baseball grounds.

Three buildings are being constructed at this place, and no houses vacant for want of tenants.

Pershbacker, Rosa and Darie will commence the work of opening their blacksand mine at Randolph in a short time.

John Kelly, the pioneer violinist of California gave an entertainment at this place last Friday which was largely attended.

Alex Lang is building a livery stable on the lot which he purchased from Andrew Nasburg, in front of Mark's Furniture Store.

Judge Watson and J. W. Hamilton are the only attorneys from the valley attending the present session of Circuit Court at Empire.

Chas. F. Doe one of the largest dealers in cedar and pine lumber of San Francisco, is on the bay. He visited the Coquille River last week.

Dr. Tower left on the Telfair for San Francisco where he will remain for a few weeks. His practice will be attended to by Dr. Chislow of Portland.

A term of public school will be held in the Academy, commencing Monday, September 27th, 1880, with J. T. T. McCormac principal and Mrs. Rotnor and Miss Clinkenboard assistants.

The tax levied at the last term of County Court is as follows: For state school 3 mills and for county purposes 17 mills, on each dollar of taxable property within the County for the year 1880.

At a meeting of the legal voters held on Tuesday the 7th, inst, a tax of one per cent was levied by a unanimous vote.

As many are in doubt as to the amount of taxable property within the district, we took a look over the assessment roll while at Empire last week, and find according to our calculations, the valuation to be $102,358 and according to the assessment $1,023,58 would be raised for the support of the public school in the district.

HE PUT KISS IN KISSING

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—"McCay's disposition is like that of a kitten. He is so frolicsome."

This testimony offered here by twelve candy store girls and every one of them pretty, regarding George McCay, a candy store proprietor, won a divorce suit here for Mrs. Annie McCay.

When asked if McCay ever kissed them all the girls giggled.

"I should he has" testified one of the girls. "McCay used to tell us that he was the guy that put the kiss in kissing and believe me he knew how, too."
