

CENTRALIZE AND MERCHANDISE ON CENTRAL AVE.

The wife of a prominent Marshfield business man phoned just this afternoon and asked if she might open a thirty-day account. She stated that she was not always able to come down when she wanted drugs, but desired to trade where she could get what she wanted without substitution and when she wanted it. This incident is not infrequent at this store and displays a confidence in "THE OWL" which is continually increasing as our methods and policy become better known and keeps pace with our increasing business. "You are safe when you buy at 'THE OWL'."

A BIT OF ADVICE.

Don't wait until someone offers to turn the grindstone for you if you need an edge on your axe.

QUESTION OF THE DAY.

Between ourselves, who will win the world's series?

The man who is merely a round in the ladder must expect to get stepped on. He who is a lemon must expect to get squeezed.

NEWS OF NORTH BEND

TWO ARRESTED FOR SPEEDING

Len Lambert and Roy Ruffner Were Arrested at North Bend Yesterday.

Len Lambert and Roy Ruffner, were in the act of battling for speed supremacy last evening on the road between Marshfield and North Bend when taken into custody by Night-watchman Emery and charged with violation of the speed law, which is more than a mile in three minutes. Lambert was trying out his new "14" Cadillac, to ascertain how high he could speed up his car, when encountered by the gallant Roy, who attempted to set the pace in an Old car. It is reported that the race started in Marshfield and continued until caught by the watchful eye of Nightwatch Emery. If the good Marshal had not taken the racers into custody, they would in all probability have been going yet. Both were released on $25.00 cash bail.

Each was fined $25 and Lambert was forced to leave his new car there until he could get a license number put on it.

This makes the second or third time that Lambert has been up for speeding and Ruffner said it made the third time for him.

NORTH BEND NOTES.

A. Gaspin, of Bangor, went fishing at Pony Inlet today.

G. Putney, of North Bend, left for Ten Mile this morning.

Three of the leading sports at North Bend, Dr. Burmester, D. Brainard and M. H. Millhorn, started up Haynes Inlet last Sunday in quest of trout. Before they had proceeded very far into the wilds they discovered their boat had sprung a leak. It started to fill with such rapidity that they were compelled to row ashore and secure another boat. They then went in quest of great things and returned with eighteen quail and forty-two trout.

N. D. Johnson, representing John Bollman & Co., is a visitor at North Bend today.

Among the attractions at the Star Theater in North Bend is Ali Zada, the juggler. He presented a very amusing and interesting act last evening. He will remain at the Star Theater four evenings and present a new act each evening. Manager Quatermass has arranged for a children's matinee tomorrow afternoon at which there will be a special children's prize.

Fred Johnson, of North Bend, left for Lakeside today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Worrell left over the Drain route this morning for Vancouver, Washington. They will visit relatives while there.

Fred Kellogg, left this week for

Roseburg to testify in the hearing of some of the Fall Creek homestead-timber land contests.

The ladies of the Thimble Club at North Bend are planning to entertain their husbands at a Halloween party. Details for the party have not been completed as yet.

Secretary D. A. MacLead, of the Chamber of Commerce, will leave on the Breakwater tomorrow for Portland.

The North Bend City Council will meet this evening to take up street matters.

WHAT IS STYLE?

Let us tell you our idea of it: In the first place, stylish clothes must radiate GOOD TASTE. Then they must accent the wearer's personality. The cut and hang must not be extreme or forced, but rather a genuine expression of an artistic designer's most painstaking styles. If you are not acquainted with our styles, come and investigate.
