

LEAVE TODAY ON ALLIANCE

Steamer Sails This Morning for Eureka—Has Fair Cargo Out-going.

Paskrom.

The suggestion of the candidacy of John A. Blatt for Mayor has met with much favor, many having warmly approved the suggestion of his name. Mr. Blatt has made no announcement yet.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS:
If a man had a pool table at home he would have to go down town for a few hours every night to find some one to play with him.

You might just as well be frank and admit that you are inclined to be more or less gossip.

A girl's idea of Economy is to cut a dress lower at the neck, higher at the bottom and tighter across the hips and save goods.

If you are a chronic fault finder it's a sign that your acquaintances are tired of having you around.

You'll notice that old men who are poor and young women who are wealthy never marry.

A professor claims that corsets have filled more graves than whiskey. Well, they both make their victims tight.

Reformers have been demanding the naked truth for centuries. And now that it is almost here they change the fashions.

Just think it over, son, and then you'll find out that I'm right: A wise man will stay sober when he knows that money's tight.

If you knew what we know about Vinegar—the harsh, dangerous acids that are foisted on the public as Vinegar nowadays—you would be mighty careful of the kind you bought.

We recommend Heinz Vinegar—it's real Vinegar. Has not only sourness, but flavor, aroma. Best for table use—best for pickling and preserving. The Pure Food Laws attest its purity. We sell it bottled—and in bulk by the quart or gallon.
