BORN.

BRIGGS—To Mr. and Mrs. Carl Briggs at their home at Smith-Powers camp 1 on South Coos River, Sunday, October 12, a daughter.

Gets Insurance.—W. U. Douglas of the local W. O. W. camp has just paid Mrs. Alex Stonelake $1000, the insurance which her husband who died a few weeks ago, carried in the order.

Locates Here.—R. V. Crawford and wife and daughter of Portland, have decided to locate on Coos Bay and Mr. Crawford has taken a permanent position with J. O. Langworthy's barber shop.

Came After Men.—P. L. Burr of the Willett & Burr construction company, came down yesterday from Myrtle Point with the company's engine and coach to get fifteen men who arrived on the Redondo.

Sell Anvil.—The gas schooner Anvil is to be sold at auction November 11 under order of the U. S. Courts to satisfy claimants. The claims are the outgrowth of the Anvil going on the beach at Florence last summer.

Columbus Day.—Today is a state holiday—being Columbus Day, in honor of the anniversary of the discovery of America. The anniversary fell on Sunday and so today is being observed. Thirty-three states now observe the holiday.

Sunday Outing.—A number of the guests at the Dotson Hotel went to Charleston Bay yesterday on an excursion and had a splendid time. Among them were W. G. Tucker, W. O. Tate, J. D. Culver, Mrs. Alice Morgan and A. L. See.

Dave Holden Sick.—Dave Holden was seized with a sudden illness last evening and was unable to take the Gasco out on the Drain run and the passengers were taken by Capt. O'Kelly on one of his boats. Dave sufficiently recovered today to be around again.

Auto Licenses.—Coos County is well among the leaders in the payment of auto licenses. In two years to September 30, Coos County paid $1163.50, Curry County $47.50, Douglas $1189 and Multnomah paid $25,949.50, the total for the state being $55,696.

Start Bowling.—The bowling season will be formally opened Saturday evening when a series of contests will be inaugurated by the first two teams in a six-team league. The opening games will be played by teams captained by F. O. Brooks, the mail carrier, and Nick Oleson. They promise to be an interesting series of games.

Loss Small.—A. H. Powers returned Saturday night from Cedar Point and reported that the fire loss there would not be heavy. He said the building was twelve or fourteen years old and the only special damage was to the donkey engine and the burning of some cable, etc.

To Survey Road.—County Surveyor Bert Gould and assistants, Walter Hodge and Marian Custer, went over to Coquille today to survey a road near Eckley. In a couple of months they expect to be finished in that section and will come to Marshfield to survey the Marshfield-to-the-Sea boulevard.

Recovers Bundle.—Through one lot ad in The Times, Mrs. Nick Stanbone of West Marshfield has recovered a package of fancy work which she lost in one of the Gorst & King cars a week ago. The ad ran in The Times once and the package was soon recovered.

Recovers Cuff Button.—Through a Times found ad, Stanley Myers today recovered a gold link cuff button that he prized as a present. He lost it the other day in the Alliance warehouse. Harry Huggins picked it up and advertised it once in The Times and the owner was found.

Big Bond Sale.—Allan R. Frake, who handled the $300,000 bond sale of the Port of Coos Bay for the C. W. McNear Company of Chicago. In a note to Arthur K. Peck, says that he has just purchased a $3,500,000 bond issue from the city of San Antonio, one of the big issues of the past season in the South.

Hymner Still Missing.—Mrs. G. E. Hymner has not been able to find any trace of Mr. Hymner, who left here September 11 for Portland, whose tools and personal effects are unclaimed at the Alliance warehouse in Portland. The Portland police are looking for him there and the Portland Oregonian contained a detailed description of him.

Move Church Today.—Work of moving the Christian Church from its present location to the adjoining lot was commenced today. The building will also be raised about eighteen inches to permit of the building of a basement underneath for Sunday School purposes. It is expected the moving will be finished in time for next Sunday's services. Prayer meeting Thursday night will be at the home of W. B. Cox.

Answers

QUESTION—Why Ride a Wheel?

ANSWER—To Save Time.

QUESTION—Can I ride during the winter?

ANSWER—On paved or planked streets you can ride every day in the year.

QUESTION—Why should I buy a TIME-SAVER?

ANSWER—Because the fact that we sell nothing but bicycles means that we must sell good bicycles or go out of business.
