Bible School Rally.—The Bible School rally that is now being conducted at the Christian Church is attracting considerable attention. Great enthusiasm will be shown before the rally is far along if present indications are to be taken seriously.

Old Voter.—Robert Starkey of Bay City was a Marshfield visitor today. He said that he cast his first vote sixty-one years ago and thinks that this is a record that will be hard for anyone on Coos Bay to come up to.

Haynes, Inlet, Visitors.—Among those who came down from Haynes Inlet on the Messenger this morning were: G. W. Sanford and daughter Vivian, Miss Marion Brown, Milton Lighthall, Edward Schiffeler, Mrs. William Simpson and Miss Peterson.

Ship Apples.—A carload of dried apples, the first shipment of the season's output of F. S. Dow's fruit dryer at Myrtle Point is expected here today. It will be taken to San Francisco on the Steamer Hardy. The Hardy was delayed slightly.

Dr. Cooley Speaks.—Dr. J. E. Cooley, lately of Salem, will preach at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. E. Burkhart, the pastor is absent on attendance at the synod at Portland. There will be no morning service.

Sells Ranch.—Fred Selander, of Coos River, was in Marshfield today. He states that he has sold his half interest in the ranch there to Chas. Hagquist and that henceforth Mr. Hagquist and John Grant, will conduct it. Mr. Selander and family will move back to Sumner.

Greek Restaurant.—George Stamos and Nick Dimos are opening a Greek restaurant on North Front street. It will cater chiefly to the Greeks, similar to the one recently opened on Market in the rear of the Claymore.

Seeks Relative.—Mrs. Jack Rand of Hood River, has written to The Times asking for information about Mascuin Rand who left Hood River last March for Coos County. She expects to come here shortly to live and would like to know the whereabouts of her relative.

that the latter was unwilling to move his floathouse off Eugene O'Connell's property was a mistake. They state "French Joe" will move just as soon as he has secured a new location and has so notified Mr. O'Connell.

Is Well.—Gust Rosburg, whose sudden departure from his home in Bunker Hill a few weeks ago alarmed his friends, writes The Times from Bandon that he has steady work at Bandon, is very well and intends to stay there for awhile and does not wish his friends to be alarmed about him.

Quick Results.—P. N. Flagg placed a small four line adv. in The Times' want column last evening offering some white leghorn pullets for sale. He expected to run it a few days, but up to noon today he had 17 inquiries and said he could have sold many times as many as he had. Times' want ads get results because everybody on Coos Bay reads The Times.

Check Trouble.—Howard Britt, who sustained the loss of an arm and a leg in a train accident on the Isthmus Inlet logging road a few months ago and later lost all the damages allowed him through a fire in a Portland artificial limb factory, is having more troubles. Some of his checks that he has issued have been protested for lack of funds. It is hoped that he will be able to adjust the matter shortly.

Make Coast Trip.—Col. Webb, representing the E. Guitard Tea and Coffee company, went out on the train this morning to Bandon, where he will be joined this afternoon by Paul Soule of the R. N. Nason Paint company and they will make the trip down the coast together to call on the trade in Curry County. They came in on the Speedwell to Bandon.

Questions and Answers

QUESTION—Who Rides Wheels?
 ANSWER—The Busy Men.

QUESTION—Why should I buy a Time-Saver?
 ANSWER—Because you can come right back at me if anything goes wrong with your wheel.

QUESTION—What does the Dayton guarantee mean?
 ANSWER—Last week I replaced a defective frame for a man in Bandon. His Dayton was bought in California in 1910—but they authorized me to replace his frame.
