B. J. U. SOCIAL

The Baptist Junior Union will hold a social and business meeting at the church Friday, October 24, at 7:30 o'clock. The Union meets every Sunday at the home of Rev. G. LeRoy Hall.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

The ladies of Eastside, with Mrs. J. A. Swanson in charge, gave a most successful ice cream social Saturday evening. About two hundred were present during the evening. The church assembly hall and the city council hall were open to the guests, the city council granting the ladies the privilege of the hall. These rooms were prettily decorated with red, white and blue bunting and autumn leaves. Games were played and a jolly good time enjoyed by all those present. The ladies were very fortunate in having accommodating grocers who furnished them the necessary dishes and other utensils to conveniently serve those present. The celebration was due to the fact that the church assembly hall had just been completely furnished and those who had been striving for this end were jubilant.

PLAN MUSICAL

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Haines this week issued invitations for a musical and lance to be given at Eagles' Hall Wednesday evening, October 22.

HONOR MISS CHURCH.

A handkerchief shower was given Wednesday evening complimentary to Miss Effie Church. The evening was spent in sewing and conversation, at the close of which Miss Preuss, assisted by Miss Mable Lang, served her guests to delicious refreshments.
