The program was in charge of the Brotherhood and was arranged by F. L. Sumner.

BOWRON-BOWHAY WEDDING

Beautiful and impressive was the ceremony which united in marriage Miss Maude Noble Bowron and Alfred V. Bowhay, at the L. M. Noble residence on North First street, at nine o'clock this morning. The living room, where the ceremony took place, was artistically decorated with autumn leaves and the blooming clematis. To the beautiful strains of the Lohengren wedding march, played by Miss Edna Larson, the bride, on the arm of her father, entered, lead by the bridesmaid, Miss Alice Curtis. The groom and best man, Mr. Herman Werner Mehlmann, followed. Rev. Robert E. Browning officiated with the impressive Episcopal ring ceremony and the happy young couple knelt on two satin pillows to receive the blessing. After the congratulations a wedding breakfast was served. Misses Ursula Farringer and Wilda Harris aiding Mrs. L. M. Noble. The table was beautifully set with land painted china, the work of the bride, embroidered linen and silver. A hurried change was then made and the wedding party next found Mr. Bowhay and his bride at the wharf alighting from a taxicab, bedecked with "wedding attire." Mrs. Bowhay, in a traveling suit of blue, with a lovely blue hat trimmed to match, was alighting from the taxi when it began to rain—rice. The party had driven up in an auto and the usual suitable farewell was given them. The brides gown was a lovely affair of Dutchess satin and lace, caught up in places with the pearl trimmings. A butterfly of the same lace and chiffon completed her hair dress. She carried an elaborate bouquet of brides' roses and maiden hair fern with drop streamers of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was attired in pink and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair fern. The groom wore a blue traveling suit, while the best man was attired in black. Miss Ursula Farringer caught the brides' bouquet. Mr. and Mrs. Bowhay, after touring California, will be at home in the Farringer cottage on Central avenue. They plan to return the first of November. Many beautiful and costly presents of cut glass and silver were given by the friends of this popular young couple. Hosts of friends will wish them success and happiness in their life together.
