Summer Visitors.—Among the arrivals from Sumner this morning this morning were Fred Bisset, C. G. Stadden, Mrs. E. M. Lawhorn, Mrs. S. A. Farrin and Chester Sanford.

Athletic Meeting.—A meeting of the Coos County High School Athletic Association is to be held at Coquille next Saturday to discuss football and basketball schedules and other matters.

Gets Homestead.—H. G. Fulton today received word that a patent had been issued to him for his North Inlet homestead upon which he made final proof some time ago. The homestead is on North Inlet.

School Closes.—The Blue Ridge school on Daniels Creek will close their six-months' term next Friday. A program is being prepared by the instructor, Miss Lola Montgomery. An ice cream social will also be given that evening.

Few Register.—Justice Pennock reports that only about fifteen people registered with him last week. Corner Fred Wilson was among the last to register. Fred has been keeping his age secret, but he had to tell the registrar and he admitted 37.

Is Improved.—Marshal Carter has received word from Portland that George Hymer, of North Broadway, concerning whose whereabouts some apprehension was felt by his family, has been quite ill in a hospital there, but is improving and will be able to leave the hospital soon.

Party to Beach.—The fine weather yesterday was taken advantage of by a number of Marshfield people, who went on an outing trip to Charleston Bay. Among them were Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Drillette, Mrs. Alice Morgan, J. O. Jackson and A. L. See. They caught a good string of fish.

Dance at Simpson Pavilion.—The dance given Saturday night at Simpson's Pavilion by Joe Winsor, Eugene Johnson, William Davis and John Stalvik, was well patronized by the young people of Coos Bay and proved to be a financial as well as social success. About one hundred couples took part in the festivities.

To Coquille Court.—Among those going to Coquille this morning were Judge Coke, J. D. Goss, Tom Bennett and Bennett Swanton. The first case up this morning was that of the Bandon Water, Light and Power Co., the next the divorce case of Krantz vs. Krantz, which was followed by McKeown vs. Condon & Reed.

Dredge Changes.—C. R. Wright, who has been in charge of the government harbor and river work here and at Coquille, has been transferred to Yaquina Bay to take charge of the work that the dredge Oregon is to do there. Roy H. Rozell will succeed him in charge of the work on the Bay and on the Coquille River.

Divide Ranch.—Chas. Hagquist and family today moved to Coos River to occupy the ranch which he recently bought from Fred Selander. Mr. Hagquist and Mr. Grant will divide the ranch, Hagquist taking the upper portion. Mr. Selander is arranging to purchase the interest of Fred Wilson and Mrs. Fred Barnard in the Wilson ranch at Sumner and he and Orvil Wilson will divide up that property.

Judge Morrow oming.—Judge Morrow has been secured to come here and hold a special term of court at Coquille about November 1 for Judge Coke, to hear some cases which the latter does not wish to hear because he was connected with some of the principals in the cases as attorney prior to his election to the bench. Judge Coke first tried to get Judge Kavanaugh of Portland, but the latter was too busy just now.

Gets Pony.—Carl Albrecht is expected home on the Redondo today from California. He is to bring a Shetland pony for his daughter, Miss Vera.

More Register.—Last week, Justice Pennock registered twenty-seven additional ones in the Central Marshfield precinct, making a total of 312 registered there.

Water Pipes Broken.—A water main broke on Central avenue in front of the new Irving block today and in consequence a long stretch of paving had to be torn up to find the leak.

Back From Hunt.—Hal Stutsman, Engineer of the Fire Department, and a party of friends returned today from a deer hunt in the Bald Mountain country. They brought back some jerked venison with them as evidence of their success.

Cousin Dead.—W. G. Chandler today received word that his cousin, Capt. C. R. Spencer, had died suddenly at Portland yesterday. Mr. Spencer was about the same age as Mr. Chandler and he and his father operated the Spencer line of boats on the Columbia. He visited here a few years ago.

Banquet Tuesday.—Another "Get-together banquet" will be held at the Swedish Lutheran Hall Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock and it is expected to have most of the men in the various congregations in the city in attendance. The first one was given about a month ago under the auspices of the men of all the churches. Affairs in general will be discussed.

Schooner Sold.—A report from Gardiner says: "There seems to be no foundation for the story that the schooner Lily was to have been sold on her arrival at San Francisco last trip. The Lily is really a relic of former days, having been built in 1883, and her passing would be regretted by all, as she has come to be regarded as an absolute necessity. The Lily would be an ideal craft to lead the marine pageant through the Panama Canal."

Get Trout.—State Game Warden Finley has wired that he will send a large consignment of Eastern brook trout and of black bass here on the next Breakwater to be liberated. It is likely that they will be put into North Coos River above Allegany and near Daniels Creek, but they may be scattered even more than this to determine where the best place is for them. Frank Smith will probably have charge of their liberation unless a special man is sent with them.

Case Dismissed.—Justice Pennock today suspended sentence on Andrew Stora, the Coos River rancher, who was arrested on the charge of selling diseased fruit, which was preferred against him by Fruit Inspector P. M. Hall-Lewis. Mr. Stora said that he did not know that the fruit was diseased and said that he had been trying to see the Fruit Inspector to find out about the matter.
