

Does the Cost Count?

Is the fact that you can buy the same goods for less money or better goods for the same money worth anything to you? In other words, do you value your money? If you do and we can get your attention, we will sell you. We know and we wish you to know, that we are selling merchandise from ten per cent to fifty per cent cheaper than others. This is not just talk. We make good.

Several Arrests.—Several arrests were made Saturday night and Sunday for intoxication. They gave names as A. Oliver Wood, Ed Redmond, John Manfolk, Jas. McCormick and J. Koraci. Part of them paid $5 apiece.

Died Today.—Constantine Davenport, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Davenport, of North Bend, died at Mercy Hospital today of spinal trouble after a seven weeks' illness of spinal meningitis. Mr. Davenport is a brother of Wm. Davenport and the family came here from Lincoln, Nebraska.

Sells Cows.—Stephen Rogers, of Coos River, came down on the Express this morning. He reports the sale of eight cows to L. J. Stimpson of North Bend. The stock purchased by Mr. Stimpson was from Mr. Rogers' ranch on Coos River. Mr. Rogers reports a very busy season up the river at the present time, everyone being busy gathering spuds and picking apples. In conversation Mr. Rogers spoke of his trip to Arizona last winter, in which he was really surprised to see the wonders worked in that section of the country through irrigation. Nevertheless, with all the irrigation and its wonders, Mr. Rogers would sooner trust his crops to good old Coos Bay rains, than to any of the irrigation projects in Southern California or Arizona.

Mitchell in a visit before returning. GEO. H. ROTNOR, of the Woolen Mill store expects to leave next week for Portland to meet a number of representatives of Eastern manufacturers and place orders for future delivery.

C. P. COLEMAN, one of the well-known and prosperous ranchers of Ten Mile was a Marshfield visitor today. He says the people in that section are for good roads, but they would like to be sure of getting the roads before getting the bonds.

REV. J. E. BURKHART of the Marshfield Presbyterian church, returned yesterday from Portland, where he went to attend the Synod meeting. I. S. Smith, who also attended, will return later this week, having gone to Corvallis to visit his family.

J. LEE BROWN, of the Brown Drug Co., has returned from his trip to Portland, where he was in attendance at the meeting of the State Board of Pharmacy. He says the number of candidates for examination was considerably less than usual, there being thirty-three. He reports that business conditions seem to be improving in Portland.

E. N. SMITH, who has large timber interests about Bandon and in the Coquille Valley was a Marshfield visitor today. Mr. Smith drove up in his auto from Riverside, California, where he spends his winters, coming up the coast road. He says there is much evidence of development work from Eureka northward to Bandon, and there is a general feeling that the Southern Pacific will push the new line from Marshfield on to Eureka.

RECOVERS CROSS Through a Times lost ad, Rev. R. O. Thorpe has recovered a gold cross, which he lost in Ferndale several days ago. Miss Ruth Golden, daughter of F. A. Golden found it and restored it to the owner.

NOTICE TO AUTOISTS The Marshfield City ordinance prohibiting the operating of autos with exhaust open and making unnecessary noises will be rigidly enforced henceforth and auto drivers are hereby notified to familiarize themselves with the regulations and comply with same if they wish to avoid trouble.
