Hub to Enlarge—The Pioneer Grocery plans to move from Front street into the Rogers building on Central avenue from whence the Bazar recently moved, about November 1. It is understood that the Hub Clothing Company may take the room vacated by the Pioneer, thus doubling their store room.

Boat Changes—Capt. Edwards will deliver the Rainbow to Rogers and Smith for use on the South Coos River run about November 1 when the overhauling of the Alert will be completed. It is reported that Rogers and Smith have purchased Harvey Russell's interest in the Tloga service, but whether they will take over the Tloga is not known.

Remodel Store—The "Busy Corner" is literally and figuratively a busy corner today. Carpenters have torn out the side of the building, which is to be replaced with plate glass. The interior is being entirely remodeled and a plate glass mirror will occupy the entire rear, with a large circular leather divan in the center. Ladd & Harris have charge of the work and W. S. Turpen is the architect.

Three Ill.—J. W. Motley, Secretary of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce, is able to be up and around after being confined to his home for two days by a severe attack of stomach trouble. Alva Doll, C. H. Marsh and others who were at the Brotherhood banquet Wednesday night suffered similar illness, and Mr. Motley thinks that they must have got a little ptomaine poisoning in something, possibly a crab salad.

Accident on Street—Prof. Harry Leppert, who plays the piano at the Orpheum, was slightly injured yesterday by a careless motorcyclist who was speeding on Front street. Prof. Leppert was on his bicycle and the motorcycle ran into him, smashing his wheel and throwing him to the pavement, rendering him unconscious for a few moments. No serious injuries were sustained. The motorcyclist did not even stop and he is offering a reward to find out who was riding the wheel.

Divorce Case Here—R. O. Graves today received his appointment as referee to take evidence in the case of Minnie Bishop vs. Henry Bishop, the appointment being made by Judge W. L. Bradshaw, of Wasco County, where the case was begun, and partly heard. Mrs. Bishop asks for divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The case is to be heard here on or before November 15. Bishop formerly lived here and was in the fruit and produce commission business here for a time.

Beautiful Flowers—The Times office desk is radiant today with a bunch of beautiful cosmos, the thoughtful gift of Milo D. Sumner from his flower garden.

New Ranch Homes—H. W. Walker and J. Lindstrom of Cooston, are erecting fine homes on their ranches there. Frank Rogers of Coos River, is erecting a new home on his ranch.

Mayor Straw Ill.—Mayor E. E. Straw was reported very ill at his home this morning. Whether it was an attack of ptomaine poisoning or an attack of la grippe had not been determined.

Supply House—It is reported that parties are arranging to establish a supply house for plumbers, hardware dealers and building material here. Frank H. Paige, who has been representing a Portland house in this line is also arranging to move his family here and make headquarters on the Bay.

Driver Gone—Marshal Carter is incensed today because Chauffeur Hughes of the Foote line who was arrested the night before last for driving without lights skipped out. Hughes was not required to give bond and was to have appeared in police court yesterday, but instead, Carter says, he left on the Alliance.

Two Arrests—Chas. Johnson and Jas. McInnis were two arrested last night and today for intoxication. Johnson did not have any money and was released and McInnis had not had his hearing this afternoon.

Train Late—Today's train from Coquille was very late, not reaching here until nearly 2 o'clock and consequently was late in returning.
