

A Real Money-Saving Sale!

The permanent business isn't built up in single sales. It is to our own interest, we realize, to satisfy our customers. Our sales only emphasize the low prices that prevail all over the store every day whether there is a sale on or not. It is the principle and policy of this store to give satisfaction and never misrepresent anything. Our prices win trade and the quality of our goods holds it.

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of City by-the-Sea, as Told by The Recorder.

Vera, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Gregory, died at their home in this city Sunday.

The four-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hoxie, of Prosper, died last Thursday and was buried Friday at the Bandon Cemetery.

Mrs. H. F. Morrison, who underwent a serious operation at Emergency Hospital a week ago, is getting along nicely now, although she was in a very weakened condition, owing to the fact of being on the operating table for five hours.

Frank Catterlin has severed his connection with the Bandon Dry Goods Company, and expects to leave Friday for Portland, where he will join Mrs. Catterlin and remain for the winter. They may return to Bandon in the spring.

A. F. Estabrook and wife arrived on the Speedwell and Mr. Estabrook will look after the business of his company for a short time.

L. L. Brandenburg, who had charge of the Estabrook Warehouse about three years ago, arrived on the Speedwell and will take over the warehouse business again.

LAIRD GETS CONTRACT.

Geo. P. Laird returned on the Speedwell from San Francisco where he was securing his supplies for his sewer contracts. All supplies arrived except one car load of fixtures and the digger, which will come on the next trip of the boat. Mr. Laird says it will not take him over thirty days to finish up the whole job after he gets started.—Bandon Recorder.

The Times want ads get what they go after.

WRESTLING AT BANDON.

Ajax won the first fall in nine minutes and four seconds, with a barlock and chin hold. Lutsey won the second fall in twenty-two minutes and fifty-seven seconds, with a scissors hold and the third fall in forty minutes with a toe and leg hold. Ajax was not down in the third fall, but gave up when Lutsey had him where it was impossible to get away without breaking a leg.

The preliminary was by Young Zumwalt, of Curry County and Donaldson, of Riverton. Zumwalt was much heavier but Donaldson displayed more science, although he was not in condition and after about forty-five minutes going Donaldson was sick and gave the match to Zumwalt, although both men were on their feet when the bout closed.

Ajax and Lutsey will wrestle again Saturday night for $1000 side bet.—Bandon Recorder.

BANDON MOOSE PLAN HALL.

Society Is Formed to Erect Building to Cost $25,000.

BANDON, Or., Nov. 14.—The Bandon lodge of Moose has formed a building society and plans to erect a large hall. The cost of the building is estimated at $25,000. It will be heated by steam. In the basement will be a swimming pool containing salt water. To facilitate obtaining the salt water the building will be erected on a sandy stretch of beach which is not more than 100 feet from the city hall.

The officers of the building society are: J. N. Crain, president; W. Le Gore, vice-president; D. M. Averill, treasurer; L. A. Langley, secretary; J. T. Sullivan, Donald MacKintosh and Clarence Edmunds.

DEATH AT BANDON.

Mrs. Jacob Waldvogel died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Erdman in this city at midnight Sunday night. Clara Robitcz was born near Millbrook, Michigan, July 27, 1842, on April 5, 1883, was married to Jacob Waldvogel. To this union four children, all of whom are living, were born. They are: Mrs. Geo. Erdman, Ington, and Clark and Helen, of Bandon. All the children, together with Mr. Waldvogel, were present at the time of her death. Mr. and Mrs. Waldvogel came to Oregon in 1899 and lived in Tillamook for thirteen years, coming to Bandon ten years ago.—Bandon Recorder.

NORTH INLET NEWS.

NORTH INLET, Or., Nov. 14.—C. E. Nabb and bride have returned from Finland, and will locate here. They are receiving congratulations from their many friends.

The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. Stretch Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. M. A. C. Riley, representing the Northwestern Viavi Company, gave a very interesting and instructive chart talk to the ladies of North Inlet Thursday.

J. H. Pinkerton was a Marshfield visitor Friday of this week.

MELE WILL HUNT.

Bill Mele, the baseball pitcher, who was with Bandon this summer, came down from Portland last week and will spend the winter trapping between here and Rogue River. Mele has signed up with the Portland Northwest League for next year, providing Portland has a team in the league.—Bandon Recorder.

NOSTRILS AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD? TRY MY CATARRH BALM

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasty Catarrhal Discharge Stops.
Try "Ely's Cream Balm."
Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.
End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat; and raw dryness is distressing, but truly needless. Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.
