MEXICANS UNITE IN REFUSING PEACEABLE MEDIATION BY U. S.

President Huerta Joins Carranza in Refusing Negotiations With America.

View in Mexico City is That There Will be no Renewal Of Negotiations.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] MEXICO CITY, Nov. 15.—In view of Venustiano Carranza's repudiation of any form of mediation by, or alliance with, the United States, provisional president Huerta can do no less than join him in his expression of patriotic sentiment and maintain unaltered his dignified attitude toward Washington.

This statement was made at the national palace and appears to cast extreme doubt on any renewal of negotiations between Mexico and the United States, according to the view taken by well informed persons here. They declare it tends to substantiate the belief that no hope is left for an amicable adjustment.

POWERS JOIN WITH AMERICA

Great Britain's Minister to Mexico Notifies Huerta he Must Quit.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—Officials are confident that Huerta now realizes that not only is the United States in earnest in its intention to oust him and may accomplish his elimination by lifting the embargo on arms, but also that Great Britain and other powers have assumed more than a passive attitude of acquiescence in the American policy. The fact that Sir Lionel Carden, the British Minister to Mexico, is communicating to Huerta intimations of a strong character that he must eliminate himself in accordance with the American contention, is said to be the development on which the situation has turned within the last two days.

The rebels' capture of Juarez, an important point through which munitions of war must be passed for a vigorous campaign on Chihuahua and the large cities to the south, is expected to have considerable effect in Mexico City.

ALL QUIET AT FLORENCE NOW

No Disturbance Follows Deportations—I. W. W. Were Planning Strike.

Nothing new has developed in the deportation case at Florence, according to the last word from there. The deported men left quietly and the citizens regard it as a past incident. The few members of the I. W. W. left there are understood to have renounced the organization or arranged to leave.

Organizer Duggan, who was among those deported, is said to have just come to the coast from Duluth, Minn., where he participated in the recent I. W. W. troubles. He is said to have been one of the big leaders in that trouble.

He and Secretary Ed Ross of Eugene started to organize the millmen, loggers and railroad laborers in and around Florence about ten days or two weeks ago and so the deportation "nipped" them in the bud.

J. W. Gardner of North Bend today returned from a trip to the Siuslaw. He happened to be in Florence just in time to witness the deportation yesterday. He said it passed off very quietly, there being no clash and the I. W. W. leaving without any particular opposition. They started north along the coast for Yaquina.

It seems that Wednesday the I. W. W. held a meeting to consider a strike at Florence and vicinity and this resulted in the mass meeting of the citizens being called for Thursday night and the decision to oust them.

The I. W. W. occupied an old house near the mill and the citizens went to it yesterday morning at 11 o'clock and told them that they had to go away and stay away. They were escorted to a boat and taken across to the North Spit and given some provisions. Everything was done in a most orderly manner.

Felicitations for Florence

FELICITATIONS and fellowship for Florence from Coos Bay and Coos County. We hasten to extend our compliments to the people of that section for their commendable action in protecting their homes and their community from a gang of anarchistic agitators that would destroy and despoil both, if permitted to continue their pernicious preaching of anarchy and destruction. The men of Florence have proven to the world that they know how to protect themselves from irresponsible promoters of violence and viciousness.

The I. W. W. stands condemned in the minds of the general public and all honest men, not only because of its tenets and its teachings and what it announces as its principles or lack of principles, but because of its methods in action. It is judged like the individual, by what he does.

The conditions produced and precipitated upon any community by the I. W. W. is one of expediency. They enter a peaceful community and agitate and advocate, not a constructive, but a destructive policy, actual bitter and relentless war.

In Socialism, the I. W. W. is revolutionary. Its propaganda is not that of the forum, but that of the battlefield. It advocates violence and destruction. It would win through ruin. Its leaders wholly lack mental integrity and directly give the lie by their acts to the frequent beauty of their verbal proclamations and pleas of brotherhood.

They directly mislead workmen since they have no intention of bettering their present conditions. They call a strike, not to better working conditions, but merely as a part of their warfare against capitalized industry, to ruin it and force the socialized state.

They openly say that even if every demand is conceded, this settles nothing. They would at once call another strike, and then another, until their final object is won and all industry and order is reduced to chaos. In the meanwhile, they would keep a constant state of turmoil, of wretchedness, of abject poverty and distress. To them even a temporary peace is but an opportunity for sabotage, that is, the destruction of machinery and output by the workers in charge of it, entrusted with it and paid to produce.

Regardless of its theories, of the occasional genuine eloquence of its speakers and agitators, of the unbalanced sincerity of many of its members, of their martyr-like quality and search for self sacrifice, the I. W. W. in its methods in action is as wicked, as totally lawless and insane an organization as ever existed.

It is relentlessly condemned by other labor organizations and by all honest and sincere Socialists, as it is by the general public. One may admit all the ill charged to the present social order and yet condemn as without excuse the methods of the I. W. W. and this the vast majority of those who sympathize with the general labor or social reform movement are doing.

The I. W. W. works upon the ignorance of men and plays upon their prejudice, envies and all real or imagined wrongs. Its leaders deliberately deceive the workmen. They are not helping them, but merely using them to create that turmoil and strife out of which they vainly hope to bring a socialized state as a phoenix from the ashes.

No greater calamity can come to any community than to have the I. W. W. fastened upon it. It should be fought by every peaceful weapon. It should be met with wisdom and common sense and courage, and Florence has met it in this manner, and their action yesterday will be approved and applauded by honest men everywhere.

Most men are by nature honest, inherently none want in moral sense and what is right and honest will prevail when the issue is squarely met and courageously and openly presented. This is proven by the unanimous action of the people of Florence yesterday.

Florence, we salute you as a neighboring city of which we are proud. You did a good day's work, and one that will redound to the honor and happiness of your homes and the peace and prosperity of your community.

PRESIDENT WILSON WOULD END SOUTHERN RAILWAY STRIKE

Federal Board of Conciliation Takes Steps to End Labor Struggle on Southern Pacific Lines.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 15.—The Federal board of mediation and conciliation conferred here today on plans to bring about the resumption of traffic on the Southern Pacific, pending the settlement of the strike.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] HOUSTON, Nov. 15.—One of two peace proposals aimed to settle the Southern Pacific railroad strike was refused by labor leaders here today. They rejected Julius Kruttschnitt's offer to confer with the Federation Union's board, asserting it was an evasion. President Wilson's move for mediation remained as the only apparent hope for a speedy settlement. The Kruttschnitt offer was to discuss with a representative committee of four labor organizations on the strike question of inaugurating a system of dealing with controversies through a joint committee representing all four organizations. Meanwhile, except for a few passenger trains, the entire Sunset Central system is tied up.

THREE AMERICANS ARE KILLED DURING FIGHT

Loss Given as Eighteen Federals and Four Rebels—Federal Leader Gone.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 15.—Ciudad Juarez was captured by the Constitutionalists under General Pancho Villa and Maceo Herrera early today with small loss on either side. The occupation of Juarez by the rebels began at 2:30 o'clock after the men under Villa and Herrera had reached town in trains thought to be corralling federal soldiers to the garrison. The rebels detoured undiscovered, placed their artillery and had everything in readiness for the battle before word was given to fire on the Federal garrison. At the first volley the astounded government troops were assembled and returned the fire, engaging in a battle which lasted two hours. Villa and Herrera were at Chihuahua City Thursday, reported to be attacking that city. The Federal troops were rushed to the reinforcement of the Chihuahua garrison, but Villa never really pushed his attack there. By pre-arrangement trains were made ready to convey his army to Juarez last night while all the Federal officers in northern Mexico believed him to be exerting his energy to take Chihuahua. Leaving a small force of men there, Villa took more than 7000 of his troops on board the trains, which reached Juarez at the time the Federal troop train was expected. Not once was Villa challenged by the Federals, who little dreamed the rebels were near.

Three Americans were killed during the fight. Charles Serguson, an automobile man of El Paso, was killed in his car. Two unidentified Americans were killed in a raid on a gambling house.

Gen. Francisco Cedro, commanding the Federal garrison, is missing and is supposed to have fled. Seventeen Federals and four Constitutionalists are reported killed. 3000 Constitutionalists participated in the capture. Others will arrive from Saúz today.

EL PASO, Nov. 15.—Villa has sent south for additional troops and will make his headquarters at Juarez. It is possible that Egen Carranza, the recognized head of the Constitutionalists, will remove his headquarters to Juarez, as it is the largest and most important border point in the hands of the Constitutionalists. Excellent order is being maintained in Juarez, but only persons with military passes are permitted to cross the border.

STOP SHOOTING AT EL PASO

California Railroad Commission Cuts Toll Charges Twenty-one Per Cent

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 15.—Just before daylight this morning Lieutenant Carlos Velasquez Menezes of the Mexican Federal artillery in Juarez, who is a prisoner in the hands of the rebels, made a dash across one of the international bridges for El Paso. Immediately there was a fusillade of shots from the rebel guards, and bullets fell among the U. S. soldiers on the American side of the river. The American soldiers rushed toward the river as if to return the fire, and the rebel officer in command threw up his hands as a signal that firing had ceased and immediately sent an apology. Major Michie, commanding the American troops, sent a deputy United States marshal across the bridge to tell the rebel officer that under no circumstances were his men to shoot again toward American territory. Menezes, having succeeded in reaching American soil, fell at the feet of the American officers, wounded in the leg. He was sent to the El Paso police station.
