

DUCK HUNTERS SECURE MANY

Fowl From North Found Fat and Thickly Feathered, Indicating Cold Spell.

Great flocks of ducks arriving in the inner waters of the county during the last week of heavy weather outside, has caused a big addition to the number of hunters, and the shooting season is in full swing.

Large numbers of the water fowl are being secured and the local gun and ammunition stores are being kept busy. Hunting licenses are in great demand, and small boats are being rented or purchased outright. Roast and stewed duck will grace many tables in this section during the next few weeks.

Hunters report that the ducks are unusually fat, and that their feathers are thicker than usual. Weather prognosticators have begun to make predictions that this winter along the coast will be unusually cold, or the ducks would not have been provided so early with thick feathers against cold weather.

Some of the ducks are said to be so plump that they can hardly raise themselves clear of the water for flight, and the vision of roast duck with plenty of meat is inspiring a rush for the game. The lower part of Coos Bay has been covered with the resting southbound flocks all week.

FOREST FIRE DANGER ENDS

County Association Protection Work Is Relieved by Arrival of Rainy Season.

With the arrival of the rainy season, any possibility of fire in the Coos county forests has been averted for this season and the Coos County Fire Patrol Association called in its wardens several weeks ago.

Secretary W. J. Conrad stated today that the efficiency of the system supported by the 265 timber owners, members of the body, had reached its highest point this year. The association, formed in 1910, and the first organized in the state under the new fire protection laws is gradually working out a system which will prevent any more forest fire damage even in the dry period.

Many miles of new trails were added to those already constructed in the 400,000 acres of forest controlled by the members of the association, and Secretary Conrad is preparing his annual report of the work done. Lookout stations have been established and telephone connections have been made, while huge quantities of underbrush have been burned to avert chances of a conflagration.

There has been an increase in the number of fire wardens, and already plans are being laid for more extensive work next year, when more trails will be laid out and the system brought to a point where prospects of destruction by flames will be at a minimum. It is estimated that the tract protected consists of 10 billion feet of lumber.

SHERIDAN NOT INDICTED.

Roseburg Grand Jury Did Not Hold Former Coos Bay Bond.

The Roseburg News says: After a session lasting ten days the grand jury reported in the circuit court at 11 o'clock and took a recess until December 2, when its members will reconvene and further consider complaints brought to their attention.

The last four days of the session was a blank as far as indictments were concerned. At least, The News is informed—and through what it believes an authentic source, that no indictments were returned by the body upon taking a recess. A presentment was filed with Judge Hamilton, and this may have something to do with one or two more cases now under consideration. The exact nature of this presentment could not be learned today.

During the last days of the session the grand jury is alleged to have heard evidence bearing upon certain business transactions of T. R. Sheridan, while acting as president of the First National Bank.

A motion was yesterday filed by the plaintiff in the case of E. C. Marks vs. T. R. Sheridan, asking that a certain attachment of property owned by Mr. Sheridan be released. The motion was filed as a result of Mr. Sheridan's procedure in making a voluntary assignment.

BIG LIST IS GOING NORTH

Breakwater Expected to Take Capacity Number of Passengers and a Good Cargo.

With a fine weather trip in prospect, the steamer Breakwater, Captain Macgenn, will clear from Marshfield tonight at 9 o'clock for Portland, with a capacity list of passengers. Indications at noon today were that over one hundred first cabin travelers would be signed up before the vessel's departure.

The Breakwater is taking a considerable quantity of freight, including canned salmon from the local plant, and household goods of a number of the passengers. Those booked for the passage up to noon today included the following:

Mr. and Mrs. George Herner, D. L. Elster, Mrs. W. E. Smith, Ruth Hopkins, Helen Howard, W. A. Reid, Mrs. W. E. Baker, F. A. Ross, Mrs. Sarah Tyler, George Rosenbacher, J. Gerstel, May Riley, G. W. Stokes, C. J. Hockberg, O. E. Yates, William Ross Smith, Harry Preston, O. W. Burnett, Alice Morgan, Mrs. L. Marlhorn, Harry L. Cradley, J. A. Smith, A. P. Russell, A. Gilberg, Sim Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Goss, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Sawyer, Anna Rosenberg, Mrs. Theo. Rosenberg, Nellie Matson, Alice Junta, Mrs. Junta, Milla Urell, Electra Estrom, Ethel Mannas and T. Rosenbaum.

MOVEMENT TO SOUTH HEAVY

Redondo Clears With Full List of Passengers and Heavy Cargo of Lumber.

Carrying as many passengers as the navigation laws allow a craft of her equipment, the steamer Redondo cleared from Marshfield this afternoon with 49 first and second cabin travelers. The local agents of the steamship line declare that if they had the room fifty more people would have signed up for the trip to San Francisco.

The Redondo is taking south over 60,000 feet of lumber of various dimensions, loaded at the C. A. Smith mill. Remarkably quick time was made in taking on the cargo, which was loaded under twenty-four hours, those who had been booked for the trip up to a late hour were the following:

W. C. Webb, H. G. Matterson, F. Wilson, F. W. Harmon, of North Bend, E. Estabrook, J. J. Clinkenbeard, Selma Holm, Hazel Peterson, G. F. Thompson, E. B. Jones, William O'Neal, J. A. Comminsky, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Abrams, G. D. Abrams, Mrs. Bell Backenstoe, Edith Thomas, J. M. Wright and wife, J. M. Wright, Jr., H. Johnson, M. Turek, J. E. Brown, Elna Frederickson, Mrs. M. O. Plank, Miss Margaret Stott, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Brown, Mrs. M. G. Johnson and G. J. Johnson.

NORTH BEND NEWS.

Peter Loggie has given Anderson and Klockers the contract for excavating his property at Sherman and Florida. The property has eighty feet frontage on Sherman and 100-foot depth on Florida. Mr. Loggie is having plans prepared for a three story apartment house to be built there at a cost of $15,000 and expects to start construction as soon as conditions warrant.

Robert Banks and bride have returned here from their honeymoon trip and will occupy the cottage on Union avenue which Warren Painter recently vacated.

Dr. Watson and E. M. Shriver have returned from Ten Mile. They report fishing as good, Mr. Shriver having landed about eighty.

Mrs. Frank Frame has returned from a few weeks' stay in San Francisco.

Miss Nellie Custer of Coquille is receiving treatment at Mercy Hospital.

Arthur Reynolds, who has been employed at the North Bend Iron works, has returned to his old home in Clackamas.

CURED OF CANCER.

Mrs. Jas. S. Kennedy returned since our last issue, from the hospital in San Francisco, where she underwent treatment for cancer. The doctor in charge of the case took the cancer out, root and branch, and the patient brought it back with her in a bottle. Mrs. Kennedy's cancer was on the right temple, and all that is left of it now is a small scar, hardly noticeable—Bold Beach Globe.

Thanksgiving Day starts the holidays

Yes, Thanksgiving Day is really the opening gun of the holiday season.

If you buy a new suit or a new overcoat now, you will have it at the very time when the holiday spirit spurs one to look his best. We suggest STYLEPLUS CLOTHES $17 because they have a character and a tone that appeal to any man.

Once you get the STYLEPLUS habit, you will keep coming back, knowing that here you can buy, any time and always, a guaranteed STYLEPLUS suit or overcoat—known quality at one known price.

Styleplus $17 Clothes

TRADE MARK REGISTERED
"The same price the world over"

In STYLEPLUS you get well-made, fashionable clothes for only $17 because the makers have worked out the scientific way to make clothes on a big scale.

They specialize on just one quality and by bringing into play their great buying power, their unlimited manufacturing resources, they have reduced the cost of good clothes till they are within every man's reach.

In the course of years, this intelligent way of buying your clothes will mean a big saving and a big satisfaction to you.

This is the STYLEPLUS store—the economy store. Try a STYLEPLUS for Thanksgiving and be well dressed all the holiday season—and as long as good clothes always last.

HUB CLOTHING & SHOE CO.

THREE STORES.

BANDON

MARSHFIELD

MYRTLE POINT

The Store of Clothing Economy—The STYLEPLUS Store

Suits--Rain Coats--Slip-ons

Gaberdines and Overcoats at $20 and $25, by easy stages up to $40. We are showing by far the largest assortment ever handled on Coos Bay.

"MONEY TALKS"

We have emphasized this more than ever in our clothing this fall. Don't buy at a credit store where you help to pay some one else's clothing bills.

Hub Clothing & Shoe Co.

Three Stores

BANDON

MARSHFIELD

MYRTLE POINT