LOCAL NOTES

NOVEMBER TIDES.

Now is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield. The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison on consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water, or high water on the bar subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

WEATHER FORECAST.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

OREGON—Rain, warmer east tonight. Southerly winds, moderately high along coast.

Meet Wednesday.—The M. E. Brotherhood meeting will be held on Wednesday evening at the home of F. L. Sumner.

Let Contract.—J. L. Bristol of Eugene, has awarded Fairchiles and Oulmette the contract for the brick veneer building on his lot just north of the Gulovsen-Johnson Furniture company on Front street.

Scow Stolen.—J. R. Hillstrom reports the theft of a duck scow on Saturday, November 15. The scow had been in tow of the Vega and was left chained at the Market dock.

Sails on Thanksgiving.—The Alliance will sail from Portland on the evening of Thanksgiving Day for Marshfield and Eureka, sailing from this port at 11 a. m. on the following Sunday.

Dog Run Over.—A little black terrier dog was run down and killed at noon today on Second street South, just in front of the Dotson, hotel, by an automobile. It is not known who owns the dog.

Will Go South.—Mrs. A. H. Powers and daughter, Miss Florence, will leave the latter part of this week for Southern California in hope that the change of climate will prove beneficial to Mrs. Powers' health.

Broke Window.—Parties from Coquille report that a man who gave his name as L. J. Irvine was sentenced to twenty-five days in the city jail there for hurling a rock through the Coquille Postoffice window while intoxicated.

First Appearance.—Geo. C. Murphy, who arrived here recently, made his first appearance with the Coos Bay Concert Band yesterday and won much applause. He played an E flat clarinet. He formerly traveled with the Pat Conway band and is a musician of unusual ability.

Fine Concert.—Over 750 attended the Coos Bay Concert Band's concert at the Masonic opera house yesterday. The crowd was one of the largest that has attended a concert here. The program was a good one and Director Fenton and his players were roundly applauded.

Bergman Buys Property.—As the result of the sheriff's sale Saturday of the Annie Dooling property on Sherman street in North Bend in foreclosure of a mortgage of $700 held by Anna Wulf, of North Bend, the house and lot was purchased by Carl Bergman for $1197.83.

Good Hunting.—J. Homer Fritch returned Saturday from a short outing at Ten Mile. He reports great sport there and brought back some fine trout to show that he has not forgotten how. One day a party of them went out and got 150 ducks in about an hour and a half.

Grand Jury Delayed.—The Coos county grand jury will meet at Coquille a week from Wednesday to take up the pending matters. They were to have met a week from today but Judge Morrow will not be here until the later date and hence the postponing of convening them.

Son is Born.—On Sunday, November 23rd, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stutsman at their home in San Jose, Calif. They named him Allison Stutsman, after Mrs. Stutsman's uncle, Senator Allison. Mother and child are getting along fine. Mrs. A. H. Stutsman went down to be with them.

Goes to Portland.—Judge Coke will leave the latter part of the week for Portland to hold a term of circuit court while Judge Morrow conducts a term of court at Coquille. The adjourned term of circuit court will open at Coquille next week, but the regular December term will open a week later.

Are Bound Over.—Marshal Carter has received word that Jack Miller and Joe Howard, who were arrested here on word received from the Ashland police that they were wanted on a charge of stealing knives from a merchant of that town, have been bound over to the grand jury on the charge of larceny, their bonds being placed at $1000 each.

Good Hunting.—The Glasgow Gun Club and the Beale Lake Gun Club have been having more or less rivalry as to the advantages of the two grounds. Yesterday Claude Nas, Nat Tallant, W. S. Turpen, Ray Kaufman, Jay Tower and Tom James got forty-four at Glasgow, while I. R. Tower, H. J. McKeown and others got comparatively few at Beale Lake.

Daughter Born.—The following from the Brain Nonpareil will be of interest here as Mrs. Huntington is a sister of Gordon Smith and Mrs. Norman Johnson of West Marshfield: "A dainty, dimpled, seven-pound baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Huntington on November 17. Mother and child going nicely and Phil is wearing a smile that won't come off."

Children Bother.—Manager Fred Wilson of the Coos Bay Concert Band says that during the last few concerts some children have interfered seriously by creating noise and disturbance during the selections. He requests that henceforth parents accompany their children and see that they behave properly. They want the children to attend and enjoy the music but they do not want to let them spoil the concert for others.

Coquille Troubles.—The Coquille paving troubles came to an abrupt end the other night when at a secret session of the city council City Engineer Hobson tendered his resignation effective December 1. Marshal Sullivan, who was also under fire, adjusted his troubles without resigning. Hobson's troubles came over the paving, the council blaming him because the paving wasn't put in better. The Coos Bay Paving and Construction company did the paving and it was finally agreed to leave the settlement to an arbitration board to determine what part of the cost the company should forfeit for alleged poor work.

PLAN BIG FESTIVAL

Swedish Lutheran Congregation Perfects Program for Three Days. Rev. J. V. Benson and the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran Congregation have perfected the program for the three days' Thanksgiving festival and bazaar which they will hold on the evenings of November 27, 28 and 29 at the church. The affair will be one of the most elaborate ever attempted here. The program will be as follows:

Nov. 27, 7:30 p. m., Thanksgiving sermon. Theme, "Our Sacrifice of Thanksgiving to God." Special music by choir and soloists.

Nov. 28, 7:30 p. m., Address by State Senator I. S. Smith. Special music by choir and soloists.

Nov. 29, 7:30 p. m., Special musical program.

Come with us and enjoy this festival. You may purchase many valuable articles at the bazaar.

SOCIETY NEWS

AMONG THE SICK

Mrs. W. L. Claybaugh, who is the happy mother of a son, has returned to her home from the hospital, having recovered from her illness. Both mother and son are doing fine.

Mrs. Fred Nelson, who has been seriously ill, is showing great improvement and is considered out of danger.

Anson Rogers, the pioneer of this section, is still seriously ill from an attack of paralysis he suffered nearly a year ago, and owing to his advanced age, 83 years, much apprehension is felt.

Mrs. F. L. Grannis was reported quite sick at their home in South Marshfield today.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Ekblad is reported quite sick. Mrs. Carl Arneberg, who has been very ill at their home on Catching Inlet is reported to be much improved today.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC.

Automobiles, motorcycles and bicycles operated after dark are required to be equipped with lights. A city ordinance of Marshfield provides a severe penalty for violation of this regulation. Parents of boys and girls who have wheels are hereby notified that the first violation of this rule will result in wheel being confiscated and the offender fined.

J. W. CARTER, City Marshal.
