

CAN SWEAR IN VOTES TUESDAY

Unregistered Voters Will be Allowed to Vote Tomorrow—City Election.

WILSON'S STATEMENT.
Editor Times: Regarding the candidacy of the undersigned for the office of City Councilman for the one-year term, will say that I am not a Prohibitionist, but have always been a Republican. I am progressive in principle and believe in law enforcement.

I am a strong believer in a progressive municipal administration and the handling of the city's affairs along strictly business lines, the city getting a dollar's worth of work for every dollar expended.

J. WRIGHT WILSON.

Considerable interest has been aroused in the city election which will be held tomorrow. The polls will open at 8 o'clock and will close at 8 o'clock in the evening.

However, the principal interest centers in the fact that the voters will be allowed to be sworn in if they did not register, the state law prohibiting swearing having been held unconstitutional. Only 927 were registered which is probably less than two-thirds of the voters of the city.

The candidates are:
For Recorder—John W. Butler.
For Councilman—(Three-year term and two to be elected)—Duncan Ferguson, R. A. Copple, J. W. Hildenbrand, A. J. Savage, Guy Latin and Mrs. Carrie Wright. The latter is the Socialist candidate.
For Councilman—(One year term and one to be elected.)—J. Wright Wilson, Arthur McKeown and Jack Farley.

Opposed to McKeown.
J. W. Bennett and Arthur McKeown have been making a hard campaign in behalf of Mr. McKeown's candidacy.

A strong effort has been made to line up all the school voters and the ones they control for McKeown.

However, owing to the fact that the Council next year will have the strongest phase of the water question to solve, everyone who has the interests of the city are opposing McKeown because he is so closely identified with the Coos Bay Water Company. Some of McKeown's friends have started the report that the Council would not have anything more to do with the water question, but this is absolutely untrue. The findings of the Oregon Railroad Commission are expected almost any time and if they should raise the rates, it will be up to the Council to take action against it. Not only this, but it will be up to the Council to provide a source of supply of a municipal waterworks which will probably have to be installed unless Mr. Bennett is able to secure the enormous price that is asked for the Coos Bay Water Company's plant. It is owing to this, it is stated, that they are particularly anxious to elect Messrs. McKeown and Savage.

Albrecht Denies Report.
It was pretty generally reported the last couple of days that the Marshfield Socialists had pledged Carl Albrecht, candidate for Mayor, 180 votes, and that in return he had agreed to allow them to select his successor upon the Council. It was stated that Tom Howard, Andrew Storgard and C. H. McLaughlin were the three from whom he was to select his successor.

Mr. Albrecht stated today that the report was absolutely false. He said that he had not promised anything to anyone except a "square deal" to all. He said that if the Socialists voted for him all well and good. He said that the only remark about his possible successor was that he had stated that if Mrs. Wright was elected he would name a woman to take his place so that Mrs. Wright would have company.

CAMPAIGN IS WARM.

Among those running for councilmen are: A. A. Nichols, A. Soderstran, George Jackson, H. B. Ingersoll, James McGee, George Wilson, Glen Rozell, John Caperton and Mrs. T. J.

GREAT DEMAND FOR OLD KIND

MARSHFIELD PEOPLE HUNGER FOR HOME-MADE BREAD—SWEDISH-LUTHERAN CHURCH BAZAAR IS A HUGE SUCCESS.

That many Marshfield people hunger for good, old-fashioned home-made bread was shown by the enormous demand made for this product at the Swedish Lutheran Church bazaar, which came to a close Saturday night after the annex of the church had been packed all evening with an enthusiastic throng. To fill this demand to some extent, the ladies of the church will make some more of the home-grown staff of life and it will be placed on sale Friday night, when what is left of the articles from the bazaar will be sold. Rev. Benson, pastor of the church, was greatly pleased at the showing made and stated that despite the marring of the sale on Friday night, the other two evenings came up to what had been expected of all three, and with the coming sale Friday night the proceeds will be beyond all expectations. Through The Times he desired to express his heartfelt thanks and that of the congregation for all who aided in the bazaar and church program.

Prizes awarded Saturday night were as follows:

Best layer cake, Mrs. August Carlson, first; Mrs. Benjamin Ostlund, second.

Best angel cake, Mrs. W. E. Curtis.

Best coffee cake, Mrs. Andrew Storgard, first; Mrs. Beatrice Lund, second.

Judges of the cake contest were: Mrs. Hazard, Mrs. Deubner and Mrs. Kronquist.

Judges of the bread contest were: Mrs. I. S. Smith, Mrs. J. Lee Brown and Mrs. August Carlson.

The winner of the bean guessing contest for a picture donated by the Walker Studio was Mrs. Kronquist and the winner of the vacuum cleaner donated by Johnson & Gulovson was William Ekblad.

ALLIANCE GETS OVER RIVER BAR

Delayed Two Days and a Half Clearing Columbia River—Waves There Unusual.

After having been bar bound for two days and a half, the steamer Alliance, Captain Lofsted, passed out from Astoria on her way from Portland to Coos Bay yesterday afternoon, according to word received here last night, and is due to arrive in the harbor shortly after noon.

The steamer has a big list of passengers and a capacity cargo of freight. Reports from the Columbia are to the effect that the bar at that point on Friday and Saturday was worse than it has been for several years and a big fleet of steamers was prevented from crossing out to sea.

Babe Born On Sea.

Wireless reports received by Operator Williamson at Marshfield this morning were to the effect that the Alliance would cross the bar at noon, but she had not crossed in shortly after 2 o'clock and it is expected that the captain is waiting for high tide. Wireless dispatches also stated that a baby had been born to a mother aboard the steamer while on the way down the coast, and the ambulance will meet the steamer at North Bend to convey the woman to the hospital. Her name could not be learned.

COMPANY CLOSES BILL.

Show Troupe Leaves for Valley Towns for Five Days.

After having played in Marshfield for a week, the Bon Ton Musical Comedy Company left on the morning train for Coquille, where it opens for two nights. From there the company will go to Myrtle Point for two nights, thence to Bandon for three nights and back to North Bend for two nights before staging inland.

Although the company got off to a wrong start through a number of unexpected occurrences, those who attended the show enjoyed it and got at least their money's worth. Some members of the audience who were accustomed to attending nothing but first-class two-dollar-and-a-half-a-seat performances told the rest the actual standing of the Bon Ton Company from their lofty viewpoint, but the consensus of opinion is that the company provided more enjoyment than any company visiting on the Bay in a long period.
