cute the laws of our city and serve the people. To achieve this purpose I seek the advice and ask the support of all my fellow citizens. I have no axe to grind and no corporation to serve, but shall welcome any industry or capital or business that will make Marshfield a bigger and more prosperous city. Again thanking you I am,

Yours to Serve,
F. E. ALLEN.

One on Butler.

A good joke is told on City Recorder John Butler in connection with the election. For two or three months he was as busy as could be registering the 967 voters who qualified for the city election under the new registration law and yesterday when he went to vote, he discovered that he had forgotten to register himself. He was quickly sworn in.

Late today Mr. Butler said that he had not forgotten to register but that the law does not provide any way for the registrar to register himself and so he thought the simplest way would be to have his vote sworn in.

South Done First.

The count in South Marshfield was completed at 9:40, considerably more than an hour before any other precinct finished. The clerks were Rev. G. LeRoy Hall, Rev. Bassford and J. H. Rahskopf and the judges E. A. Anderson, J. A. Blatt and Rev. A. F. Bassford, all of whom had previous election board experience. In the morning, during the lull in the voting, they got everything ready for the count and when the voting stopped at 8 o'clock they started on the count without stopping for supper. In a little over an hour and a half they were done.

The board in North Marshfield stopped for supper and it was nearly 9:30 before they started to count the vote. The judges were J. H. Milner, F. A. Golden and Geo. F. Averill and the clerks W. T. Merchant, E. F. Lemieux and W. E. Wilson.

In Central Marshfield they had about 200 more votes to count than the other precincts, but they were done before North Marshfield. The judges were S. B. Cathcart, C. A. Johnson and Justice Pennock and the clerks C. H. Marsh, J. H. Staden and Jay Doyle.

KITSON ELECTED EASTSIDE MAYOR

R. L. CAVANAUGH IS RECORDER AND W. H. CAVANAUGH, M. A. M'LAGGAN AND NELS NELSON CHOSEN COUNCILMEN.

Eastside's election yesterday resulted in R. C. Kitson being selected for Mayor by the voters across the channel, and W. H. Cavanaugh, M. A. M'Laggan and Nels Nelson as Councilmen. R. L. Cavanaugh was elected City Recorder and Sylvester McGriff was re-elected City Marshal without opposition.

The result was as follows:

For Mayor:

R. C. Kitson, 52.

R. T. Whitty, 36.

For Councilmen:

W. H. Cavanaugh, 75.

M. A. M'Laggan, 69.

Nels Nelson, 56.

J. C. Steckle, 43.

Arthur Horton, 25.

For Recorder:

R. L. Cavanaugh, 57.

J. L. Johnson, 30.

For Marshal:

Sylvester McGriff, 80.

The women voters turned out in nearly full voting strength at the polls, the election being unmarked by any unusual features.

DOESN'T MISS DAY IN 5 YEARS

CITY RECORDER BUTLER, ELECTED BY ACCLAMATION, HAS NEVER TAKEN A HOLIDAY IN FIVE YEARS.

One of the most satisfactory features of the city election was the placing in office of Recorder John W. Butler, who is commencing his sixth term in that capacity, and who polled the largest majority of any candidate, for the sufficient reason that he had no opponent, his election being unanimous.

In this connection it may be interesting to many to know that he has been city recorder, the present incumbent has never taken a single holiday. He has never missed a regular council meeting, and the only time he has been absent from his office except on Sundays or legal holidays was when he went to Coquille for half a day on business for the city.

clearing up the county.

It is understood that the arrests of Josie Hoyt and two women in her resort at Marshfield were also on evidence secured by the detectives. Those three and the three from Bandon, will be before the grand jury tomorrow.

The grand jury met today, but it is not doing much until Judge Morrow arrives here. Tomorrow they will take up the stabbing case from the Coos Hotel at Marshfield, the Italian being also accused of being a moral degenerate.

The case of Tapp Osborne, the former baseball pitcher who is charged with gambling, will be taken up by the grand jury tomorrow and A. E. Geer, Gordon Smith and Bill Shoupe, of Marshfield, have been subpoenaed.

TERMINAL DEAL IS UP AGAIN.

MEETING TO BE HELD HERE BY TERMINAL RAILWAY COMPANY WITHIN A DAY OR TWO — NO AGREEMENT REACHED.

W. S. Chandler, general manager of the Terminal Railway, and Ralph D. Moody, attorney for the Southern Pacific, are expected in overland tonight or tomorrow from San Francisco where they have been attending conferences about the transfer of the steam franchise rights of the Terminal Railway to the Southern Pacific.

It is understood that in a general way most of the details of the deal have been agreed upon and that a meeting of the directors and stockholders of the Terminal will be held here soon after their arrival to take action on the matter.

Regarding the right of way through the C. A. Smith Company's yards and the Alliance warehouse, it is understood that it has been agreed the right of way will follow almost a continuation of Front street leaving 100 feet between the right of way and Broadway for business buildings. This will eliminate team lines from Broadway and make it a fine thoroughfare. The price of the right-of-way has not been given out.

Big Fee Up.

Another matter to come up will be the disposition of J. W. Bennett's claim for a $5000 fee for organizing the Terminal Company. The Southern Pacific was to pay the Terminal Company's expenditures and six per cent interest, and then Mr. Bennett's fee came up.

What disposition was made of the Fire Pit Acre case and the Railroad reserve case is not stated.

TWO WOMEN TO GET PENSIONS

Mrs. Brainard and Mrs. King Granted $32.50 a Month—Commissioners Meet.

Mrs. Abbie Brainard, of Marshfield, and Mrs. Alice Jane King, of North Bend, were awarded pensions of $32.50 each by County Judge John Hall on Tuesday after a close investigation of their cases.

Mrs. Brainard is the widow of one of the men drowned from the gasoline launch North Star, which was wrecked at the mouth of the harbor about a year ago. She has four children.

Mrs. King, who also has four children, has a husband who is paralyzed and unable to earn a living for the family.

Commissioners Meet.

Judge Hall left on the morning train to preside at the meeting of the County Commissioners to handle general county business, including the fixing of the general tax levy and estimates of county expenses. Arguments will be heard on the subject Friday morning at ten o'clock.

Judge Hall stated this morning that the state board had not provided the Commissioners with its levy figures up to the present time and that there might be considerable inconvenience caused by the delay.

GORDON SMITH TELLS VERSION

Says George Doyle Was Not Abused in Jail—Acted to Protect Women.

That tonight's hearing before the City Council to investigate the turning of the hose on George Doyle in the city jail the other night will be a most animated one, was indicated today, and incidentally the lineup of evidence indicated that Gordon Smith, night officer then, did not give Doyle the brutal treatment alleged at the last Council meeting.

Officer Walter Richardson, Ed. Howatt, Mr. St. Clair, and Harold Stutsman, were present when Doyle was given the water cure and when Levi Helsner visited the jail and their evidence is said to be in support of Gordon Smith.

It is also said that they will testify that Levi Helsner was not there when the hose was turned on Doyle but came in afterwards and when told what was done is alleged to have said, "that's what he needs."

Gordon Smith in talking about the matter today said: "I did not turn the hose on Doyle until all other efforts to make him desist had failed. He had been swearing and hollering and we talked to him and urged him to stop. His foul language could be plainly heard in Front street, where women were passing and then I turned the hose in his face. He had a slicker, a rubber hat and a pair of gum boots on. I squirted water in his face and scared him and he quieted. Previous, while I was at supper, he fell out of the bunk and cut his head, and Dr. Mingus was called to dress the wound. He was washed off. After he quieted down I examined him and found that he was not wet around the body. I took the wet mattress out and cleaned out the cell. I didn't abuse the man and simply did what I thought was necessary to protect the women and prevent disgracing the city by such foul language emanating from the city jail."

Mr. Smith will have other representatives at the hearing besides

A Letter from Gov. West.

STATE OF OREGON
Executive Department
Salem

December 1, 1913.

To the Editor The Times:

We wish to ask your kind co-operation in a movement to connect unemployed with a job. There are undoubtedly many residents of Coos county who could use the services of a good hand this winter and there are many idle men in Portland and other cities in this state who would be glad to have a place.

If you will be kind enough to run this letter and attached information blank in a few issues of your paper our plan will be called to the attention of those needing a hand. Any requests for labor made to our office at once be taken up with those who are hunting for employment.

Assuring you that your hearty co-operation will be appreciated, I am,

Yours very truly,

NO HOPE FOR THREE

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Dec. 3.

Without hope of finding alive the three men caught in Monday's slide in the Golden Cycle mine, volunteers continued today the digging of their way through yesterday's second slide. So dangerous was the work considered that volunteers from the Golden Cycle employees were permitted to work.
