INDICT FOUR AT COQUILLE

GRAND JURY MAKES REPORT HOLDING MISTRESSES OF DIS- ORDERLY HOUSES AT BANDON AND MARSHFIELD.

(Special to The Times.)
COQUILLE, Or., Dec. 4.—Judge Morrow of Portland arrived here today and instructed the grand jury and started the adjourned term of circuit court. He has practically recovered from his illness.
The grand jury made a partial report this afternoon, finding true bills in a number of Marshfield and Bandon resort cases, the mistresses of the places being indicted for conducting houses of ill-fame. Those indicted were Maxine Coffin, Gladys Harrison and May Clark of Bandon and Jose Hoyt of Marshfield.
They will be arraigned soon and it is expected all will plead guilty.

MAYOR OF EASTSIDE EXTENDS THANKS

To the many friends who gave me their support and vote in electing me to the office of Mayor, I desire to extend my thanks and shall endeavor to be worthy of your confidence. I keenly feel my responsibilities, but will endeavor to do my duties faithfully. Again thanking you, I am, yours to serve.
R. C. KITTSON.

Along the Waterfront

The steamer Anvil, which has been undergoing a general overhauling at Portland for the last few months since she was taken off the Siuslaw spit, where she was wrecked last summer, made a trial trip the other day. She collided with a dock and did considerable damage as the result of the spark plug burning out and rendering the engine unmanageable. Capt. Levi Snyder, formerly of Coquille, was acting captain of her.
Capt. E. D. Parsons, formerly master of the Alliance between here and Portland, is now at Portland and organizing an independent bar pilot association to compete with the Port of Portland on the Columbia River. He is said to have strong backing and a number of pilots will join him. They will make a lower rate.
The barge Lawrence, which has been tied up here for a time, is taking on about 500 tons of coal from the Libby mine for Porter Brothers and will soon be towed to Gardiner and Florence by the tug Roscoe.

JOHN PREUSS HAS RETURNED FROM A PLEASURE TRIP TO SAN FRANCISCO.

CHRIS EVANS ASKS PARDON.
Ex-Bandit, On Parole From Folsom, Is Watchman in Portland.
SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 4.—Chris Evans, train bandit, who terrorized California in the 80's by a series of daring holdups in company with his partner, Sontag, personally applied to Governor Johnson recently for a pardon, as a substitute for the parole on which he now has his freedom from Folsom prison.
Evans is now acting as a city watchman in Portland. His application was taken under advisement.
"I've been working in a lumber yard, but I'm getting too old for such heavy labor," said Evans, as he held up an arm trembling with palsy and the stump of another which was shot away in his final battle with pursuers. "I don't want to be dependent on my children; I don't want to be dependent on anyone.
"I want to care for my wife and our crippled child and during the few years that remain for me I want to be a free man.
"I didn't rob the train as I was accused of doing. The Sontag brothers committed that crime. The Southern Pacific detectives were going to fasten the crime on me and that was why I fought them."

German Parliament Blames Govern- ment in Controversy.

BERLIN, Dec. 4.—A vote of non-confidence in the German government in connection with its attitude in regard to the trouble between the military and civilians at Zabern, Alsace, was adopted in the imperial parliament today by a vote of 293 against 54. One blank was handed in, while forty-nine members were not present.

Attempt Made to Renew Negotia- tions with Strikers.

DENVER, Dec. 4.—Secretary of Labor Wilson held a conference today with the Colorado coal operators in an effort to bring about a resumption of their meeting with the strikers. It was expected that if the operators agreed to continue the peace negotiations the Secretary of Labor would ask the strikers to make similar agreements.

A Few Words on Business

FOR THE next few weeks, those with goods to sell will especially desire to call the attention of the public to their wares, and to that end they will wish to exercise good judgment in selecting a medium. The paper that first reaches the most people and second, that reaches the people who do the trading, is the paper that can do the merchant the most good as an advertising medium.
In point of circulation The Times has no rival. There is no longer any question as to that. As to quality of circulation, note this: The paper that goes into the homes, the paper with character and conscience, the paper that censors its advertising as well as its news columns, is the paper whose advertising is scanned. The Times is the family paper of Coos County, read by father, mother and children. The message of the merchant is perused and discussed just as the news of the day.
There is no section of Coos County not reached by The Times, and it is particularly strong in Marshfield and North Bend and the territory tributary to these towns—strong among the people to whom the merchant must look for his trade.
Your ads from now until the holidays, if not inserted in The Times, will fail to reach 60 per cent of the families that subscribe for no other local paper than The Times.

A POOR FATHER.

YOUNG persons who disapprove of their fathers may find some comfort in statistics recently compiled by Havelock Ellis, who has been muckraking the ancestry of English men of genius. In many cases Mr. Ellis says he found that one parent, generally the father, had shown abnormally from a social or parental point of view. He had been idle, or extravagant, or restless, or cruel, or intemperate, or unbusiness-like; in the great majority of these cases "unsuccessful." The fathers of Dickens and Shakespeare were cited as examples. In this country the father of Abraham Lincoln is the most conspicuous progenitor, himself unsuccessful, of an illustrious son. The statistics seem to prove little or nothing except that no youth need despair if his father is not quite all the old gentleman should be. If, beyond that, the facts arrayed by Mr. Ellis prove anything, they demonstrate again how devious are the laws of heredity and how little our scientists know about them.

"Don't hug me," she said, "you're too rough—
Besides I don't care for such stough."
But as soon as he quit,
She said, with great wit:
"Oh, Gawge, that was only a blough."
—H—H—
Some Coos Bay people make light of trouble and others would keep it dark.
—H—H—
Getting a husband is an art, but keeping him is a science.
—H—H—
A love match has to have its flareups.
If a man has no end in view it is easy to see his finish.
In after years a barefaced lie grows whiskers and becomes a tradition.

TWOHY'S SHIP PLANT

The entire plant and supplies of Twohy Brothers stored in this city, are being loaded and shipped to Portland. P. B. Delano, of the firm will remain in the city for a few months more, due to the recent slide that took place at one of their rock cuts on the line. This work is being done as quickly as possible, but owing to the large quantity that is necessary to be moved, Mr. Delano must remain some time.—Roseburg Review.

RE-HEARING GRANTED.

Des Moines Saloon Keepers May Re-Open On Decision.
DES MOINES, Dec. 4.—Judge W. B. Preston, of the Iowa Supreme Court, at his home in Oskaloosa, granted today the application of the Des Moines saloon keepers for a re-hearing of the case in which nearly two weeks ago the Supreme Court decided that the local saloons must close. A stay of execution of the court's decree was ordered. Leaders of the liquor element announced that the saloons here would be reopened immediately.

MAIL WEIGHT ON INCREASE

FIGURES COMPILED BY POST- MASTER CURTIS FOR NOVEM- BER INDICATE FAIR GROWTH IN POSTAL BUSINESS.

Figures have been compiled by Postmaster Curtis of Marshfield covering the number of pounds of mail handled in and out of the local Post-office for the four star routes, including the Roseburg, Cooston, Eastside and Allegany routes.

These figures were taken at different periods under instructions from Washington, to ascertain the growth of the mail handled by contract and to reach a fair idea of what the contracts are worth in receiving bids. In the Roseburg figures, the Summer line is included, the figures for the four star routes in November being as follows:

I. W. W.'S THREATEN FLORENCE.

"Committee of Vengeance" Threatens Violence.
A letter addressed to the Mayor of Florence, and mailed at Portland, was received at Florence two or three days after the seven members of the I. W. W. were requested to leave town. The letter is as follows:
To the employers of Florence, Oregon.
Your action in driving out members of the I. W. W. will be met in a way that befits your barbaric methods. We will meet barbarism and its methods with barbaric methods. An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth only fourfold. Summer will be here and a few matches will do the work. Look out capitalist hellions.
