OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MARSHFIELD.

VISIT AT ROSEBURG.

Mrs. Raymond Hewitt and Mrs. C. E. Short arrived here from Gold Beach for a visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Hewitt is teaching at Gold Beach and Rev. Short is pastor of the Baptist church there.—Roseburg Review.

NOTI TUNNEL WORK.

Twohy Brothers, contractors on the Noti tunnel, laid off forty men at the tunnel. This only leaves a small crew of about 15 men remaining at the tunnel, and these men will be used to surface and construct ditches on the approach cut of the west end and will be retained until Twohy Brothers have completed their contract in full.—Eugene Register.

BRIDGES IS ILL.

Recent reports from W. O. Bridges, of Oakland, are to the effect that he is critically ill at his home there. Mr. Bridges has many friends here who are pained to hear of his illness. He is a brother of Mrs. Laura Applegate and Mrs. J. F. Miller of this place.—Drain Nonpareil.

NEWS OF NORTH BEND

At the annual meeting of the North Bend Commercial Club most of the old officers were reelected. The club is in good financial condition and Secretary J. G. Mullen reported fifty-five members in good standing. The officers elected are: President, Henry Kern; Vice-president, A. H. Derbyshire; Treasurer, E. F. Russell; Secretary, J. G. Mullen; Steward, Alex. Olson.

E. J. Arms and bride are making their home in North Bend, instead of Coquille, as was first reported.

Jas. Parker, who recently underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital, is getting along nicely and will soon be able to return to his home in Ash, Oregon.

Emil Kardinal has returned from a delightful visit with his brothers in Los Angeles.

Prof. J. F. Grubbs has started a small employment agency for the benefit of the high school girls and boys who want to earn money outside of school hours. He is receiving orders from all who want boys or girls to help them and then delegating some of the students who wish work to the various jobs that come in.

W. H. Kibbler left today for his home at Point Terrace after a short visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Velde are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter at their home on North Inlet.

Miss Lela Ten Eyck, who has been employed at Smith's store, has returned to her home in Portland.

Harry Pence, of Portland, a cigar maker, has arrived here and taken a position in Otto Groke's factory.

Mrs. Bert Marcellis of Cooston, who underwent an operation for a tumor at Mercy Hospital, is reported to be getting along nicely.

C. H. Pullen and family will leave in a few days for Portland to make their home.

There is talk of two more saloons being opened in North Bend and among those who are said to be figuring on opening them are Jay Wilcox, Wm. Murphy and Olaf Olson. The increase in population is said to warrant the increase, the saloons being limited by ordinance to one for every five hundred people.

Clarence Kibbler has resigned as deputy Postmaster in North Bend to accept a position in the First National Bank of North Bend, effective December 15. Lloyd Raab, son of Supt. A. G. Raab, will succeed him in the Postoffice.

R. E. Andrews, formerly an engineer for the Blackwell Lumber company at Fernwood, Idaho, has been elected city engineer of North Bend to succeed Mr. Hobson and will take up his duties at once. Mr. Andrews and wife have been living on South

Sixth street, near the Catholic church, in Marshfield.

N. C. McLeod, Fred Hollister, D. A. McLeod, V. E. Watters and A. S. Hammond have been named as a committee to appear before the Port of Coos Bay at its meeting in Marshfield next Monday and protest against the erection of a warehouse in front of Ferndale by the Port. They claim that the Port should not expend the money that way.

The North Bend M. W. A. this week elected W. H. Chappell and L. O. Strommen managers and the following officers: Consul, C. F. Chase; Adviser, R. B. Fry; Banker, S. Rogstad; Clerk, Jno. H. Greves; Escort, B. H. Sanford; Watchman, S. S. Johnson; Sentry, A. T. Andrews.
