A NEW FEATURE IS THE SOFTLY DRAPED JAPANESE COLLAR

The demand for something new, something different, allows of few monotonous moments in the life of a designer of women's clothes. When drapery first came into vogue it was comparatively easy to evolve new designs, but again we are looking for something novel.
 Promet is trying to rejuvenate the bustle. A frock of hers in blue silk poplin shows a bustle effect brought about by a clever cut and arrangement of drapery that is really quite attractive. It is a three piece suit, and an extremely smart little coat is another feature. Several other imported models give indications of the bustle, and several display draped collars after the Japanese style.
 No. 8104 shows a draped collar and shaped trimming bands on the skirt that give the effect of a three tiered skirt. A soft green mohair is used, with the blouse of chiffon in the same shade of green. Each of the flounces is lined with chiffon, which softens the mohair considerably.
 To copy this model in size 36 it requires 5 1/2 yards of 36 inch material with 1 1/2 yards of contrasting material.
 No. 8102 is a smart little frock, which is unusually effective developed in one of the bordered crepes.
 The dress closes in the back, has a kimono blouse and a one-piece skirt with a double tunic.
 This frock may be copied in size 36 with 6 1/2 yards of 36 inch material.
 No. 8102—sizes 24 to 42
 No. 8104—sizes 32 to 42
 Each pattern 15 cents.

To obtain either pattern illustrated fill out this coupon and enclose 15 cents in stamps or coin. Be sure to state number of pattern and size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust. Address "Pattern Department", care of this paper.
