FOUR DAYS WINDS AND RAINS DO GREAT DAMAGE IN NORTH

Another Storm From Sea With Rain is Predicted by Seattle Experts... SLIDES AND CUTS OBSTRUCTING TRAINS... Wind Levels Great Number of Trees North of Seattle Near Border

SEATTLE, Jan. 7.—The weather bureau reports another storm approaching from the sea laden with rain. In the four days ending at 5 o'clock this morning the rainfall at Seattle was 4.81 inches. The wind storm last night blew down a great number of trees between Seattle and the Canadian border and it is unlikely that telephone and telegraph communication with the north will be fully restored today.

TWO RADIO MEN SENT TO PEN

Swindlers Who Used Mails to Rob Public of Thousands Found Guilty

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—James Dunlop Smith, president of the Radio Telephone company, was sentenced today to spend a year and six months in the Federal prison at Atlanta and to pay a fine of $5000 for conspiring to swindle investors in the stock of the corporation through the use of the mails.

POWERS BUYS RACING BOAT

"Coo Bay" Knocked Down by the Sheriff's Hammer for Sum of $255.

The racing motor boat "Coo Bay," built by Cavanaugh and Evans at Eastside some years ago for the purpose of bringing worldwide fame to Coo Bay by her wonderful speed, and the cost of which was subscribed for largely from the pockets of public-spirited citizens of Marshfield, was knocked down under the sheriff's hammer at noon today to Al H. Powers for the sum of $255, which includes the whole works.

Mother Dead.—J. R. Bunch of Allegheny yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of his mother, aged 85, in Josephine county. Mrs. Fred Noah of Coo Bay is also a daughter of the deceased.

R. COOLEY TO BE TRIED SOON

Preliminary Hearing in Curry County Murder Early Next Week... (Special to The Times.) GOLD BEACH, Or., Jan. 7.—Riley Cooley will have his preliminary hearing here the first of next week on the charge of the Van Pelt murder. The hearing was delayed until then to enable some of the witnesses desired to get here. It is understood that the preliminary hearing may be an exhaustive one, as some of Cooley's friends think that a thorough presentation of the case then might gain his immediate release or result in a minimum bond being fixed in case he is held to the grand jury.

P. M. FLECK SHOT; IS A MYSTERY

Railroad Contractor at Ten Mile Wounded at Vancouver—Few Details

Word has just been received here of the mysterious shooting of P. M. Fleck, member of the contracting firm of Scarpelli & Fleck, who are constructing the south approach to the big Schofield Creek tunnel, at Vancouver. It is said that he was fatally hurt.

But meager particulars have been received here. It seems that the shooting occurred about ten days ago. Fleck is said to have declared that he shot himself accidentally, but the nature of the wound is said to be such that his story of the trouble is doubted. The bullet is said to have entered the back of his neck and coursed downward, lodging in his lungs.

LABOR LEADER FACES CHARGE

OLAF TVEITMOE TO BE TRIED IN LOS ANGELES FOR HANDLING EXPLOSIVES DURING DYNAMITE OUTRAGES.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—Olaf Tveitmoe, labor leader, was granted a new trial by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in the Indianapolis conspiracy cases. He must stand trial here on a charge relative to the transportation of explosives for illegal purposes, according to announcement made today by the United States District Attorney. The indictment making the charge, was returned by the grand jury two years ago.

Is Not Disturbed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Tveitmoe took the news that he must stand trial at Los Angeles nonchalantly. "There should be on file in the records of the United States District Attorney's office," he said, "a stipulation entered into by myself and others with Federal representatives agreeing that the Los Angeles cases should be dropped in view of the Federal prosecution at Indianapolis covering the same ground."

ELKS NOTICE.

There will be an important meeting of Marshfield B. P. O. E. this evening to consider reports of several committees, applications for membership and other business of interest to every Elk. A full attendance is desired.

GEO. ROTNOR, Secretary.

HALF MILLION CHECK GIVEN

Knights of Columbus Present Sum for Fifty Scholarships at College

BALTIMORE, Jan. 7.—A check for a half million dollars from the Knights of Columbus of the United States for the Catholic University at Washington, was presented to Cardinal Gibbons today. The sum has been collected by the Knights in the past four years. The money will be used to establish fifty scholarships at the University.

WILL OPPOSE LEASING PLAN

Congressman Bryan to Bring Up Government Ownership of Railroads

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.—Representative Bryan, Progressive, of Washington, is preparing to bring up government ownership of railroads when the House takes up the Alaska railway bill next week. Bryan intends to lead the fight against the proposal to lease the Alaskan railroad when built, to private corporations, and to embody his Government ownership ideas as they apply to railroads recently in a separate bill.

CHAMBERLAIN WILL RETIRE

Aged British Statesman to Quit Parliament After Thirty-Seven Years

BIRMINGHAM, England, Jan. 7.—Joseph Chamberlain, the venerable British statesman, has decided to retire from Parliament at the next general election. He has served continuously as a member of the House of Commons since 1876, representing West Birmingham, in succession to his father.

VON REUTER'S TRIAL BEGINS

Man Who Answered Laughter With Machine Gun Fire Admits Charges

STRASSBURG, Germany, Jan. 7.—The readiness of Colonel Von Reuter of the 99th infantry regiment to reply to the laughter of citizens of Zabern with a raking fire from the machine guns was shown in the testimony given today before the court martial sitting to try him for illegal assumption of authority. District Commissioner Mueller of Zabern swore that when he requested Von Reuter to withdraw the military patrols from the streets the colonel curtly refused and said "I intend to prevent this standing about at any cost. I do not intend to let the people laugh at the army. If it continues I shall order the troops to shoot."

Von Reuter admitted he had the machine guns brought out from the barracks into the Zabern streets in readiness for use against the citizens.

INSIST BANK IS NECESSARY

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Despite the apparent opposition of Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department and Secretary Houston, of the department of agriculture, to the proposal of the New York bankers for the establishment here of a regional reserve bank of overshadowing size, the witnesses who appeared at today's hearing of the Federal reserve organization committee insisted almost unanimously that such a bank was necessary.

GOV. FERRIS INVESTIGATES

Michigan's Chief Executive Visits Scene of Trouble Near Calumet

HOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 7.—Gov. Ferris visited Sheriff Jas. Kruse, of Houghton County at the latter's home today, the Sheriff being too ill to leave his bed. Other officials of Houghton and Keweenaw Counties conferred with the Governor. After they had been questioned Ferris received representatives of mining companies and of the Western Federation of Miners, business men and citizens generally.

WILL RESTORE COMPETITION

Attorney General and New Haven Railroad Head Hold Important Conference

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.—After a two-hour conference between Attorney General McReynolds and Chairman Howard Elliott, of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, it was understood that the road will agree to a re-organization to restore competition in transportation throughout New England. No official announcement was made, but Elliott will remain here several days and it is believed he may settle the details of the plan.

TWO BROTHERS CLAIM KILLING

Louis and Rafaelo Cefalo Both Assert They Shot Man to Death

SEATTLE, Jan. 7.—Both Louis Cefalo and his brother Rafaelo claim the responsibility for the killing of Girolamo Vicorie yesterday at Louis' house. Each of the Cefalos fired five shots at Vicorie, who was making a call on Mrs. Louis Cefalo. Mrs. Cefalo was stabbed to death by her husband after the shooting.

MARTIAL LAW TO BE LIFTED

Colonel Lawson and Militia Leave Huntington Today for Copperfield

PORTLAND, Or., Jan. 7.—Colonel Lawson and members of the militia, Sheriff Raud of Baker county, and special officer Frank Snodgrass, left Huntington today for Copperfield, where it is expected orders will be received to lift the martial law and return to Portland.

WILL APPROACH BRITISH KING

Militants Excoriate Cabinet Members as Having Degraded Themselves

LONDON, Jan. 7.—The militant suffragettes offered today to lay their troubles before King George personally if they can get an audience. The militants argue that the doctrine that the king may be approached only through the cabinet ministers applies only to the case of men. They announce that "the women refuse to communicate their demands to the king through the cabinet ministers, whom they hold in contempt and who have degraded themselves

REBELS CAPTURE FOUR TOWNS AFTER THREE DAYS' FIGHTING

REBELS ATTACK TAMPICO AGAIN

Fighting Also in Progress at San Luis Potosi—South Is Cut Off

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.—Official dispatches from Tampico report serious fighting in the vicinity of Cardenas and San Luis Potosi. From Saitillo all communication to the south has been interrupted since December 22. Food in Saitillo is running low.

Match for Heavyweight Championship is Planned Over in Mexico

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—A match for the heavyweight championship of the world between Gunboat Smith and Jack Johnson, to be held across the Mexican border at Tia Juana on July 4, which would be just four years from the day that Johnson defeated Jeffries, in under serious consideration by the promoter who staged the Smith-Pelkey battle here January 1.

DEMAND MADE FOR INQUIRY

Congressman Keating Wants Conduct of U. S. Official Investigated

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.—An immediate investigation of the charge that Harry Ratliff, Superintendent of the Federal forest reserves at Steamboat Springs, Colorado, led the mob that took the strikers out of jail and deported them, was demanded yesterday by Representative Keating, of Colorado.

WILSON FOND OF CHILDREN

PLAYS SANTA CLAUS TO MANY YOUNGSTERS WHO NEVER RECEIVED PRESENTS.

PASS CHRISTIAN, Jan. 7.—President Wilson demonstrated his fondness for children today by assuming the role of a belated Santa Claus and distributing boxes of candy to the youngsters along the route from the Golfport links. When the news of the President's generosity spread among the children, it became known that many youngsters who do not live along the route to the golf course were disappointed. They were promised, however, that they would not be overlooked and that the supply of candy at the Presidential cottage was sufficient to meet all demands.

One great trouble is so many suckers have no money.

One Hundred and Thirty Soldiers Killed in Battle Near Torreon

FEDERALS ARE DRIVEN BACK AFTER A SALLY

Paras. Coerla, San Pedro and Coahuila Are Taken From The Federals

EL PASO, Jan. 7.—One hundred and thirty soldiers, eighty-seven of them Federals and the remainder rebels, were killed in a battle Saturday and Sunday eight miles north of Torreon, according to belated advices reaching Juarez today from Chihuahua. Two thousand Federals who had sallied out from protection of the walls of Torreon, evidently to attempt a flank movement around the right wing of the rebel forces besieging the city, were driven back into Torreon after a struggle that lasted nearly two days. Among the Federals killed were six officers. Twenty-eight prisoners were captured by the Federals, says the report.

The Constitutional forces have re-captured the important towns of Parras, Cepeda, San Pedro and Coahuila from the Federals, after three days' fighting, according to the advices. Parras and Cepeda are on the National Railway, connecting Saitillo and Torreon.

ALL PAPER MONEY.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 7.—Practically all the paper money left in Mexico was forced into circulation today by a decree issued by Huerta, cancelling the bills of the state banks legal tender and specifying as obligatory their acceptance for all payments. The inability to float bills of the state banks outside of the states in which they had been issued, and the limited volume of the bills of the National bank and the bank of London and Mexico, has brought about a condition which is almost a financial crisis. The redemption notes of the state banks are to be guaranteed by a fund subscribed by the banks issuing them.

MOYER WANTS TO BE PRESENT

RECENTLY ASSAULTED LABOR LEADER WILL TRY TO BE AT CALUMET WHILE GOVERNOR IS PRESENT.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, is anxious to return to Calumet, before Governor Ferris completes his investigation there, and said today that he would try to make the trip by the end of the week. He sat up today and presided, at a meeting of official advisers.

PREPARES FOR LEGISLATION

McReynolds Has Everything Ready for Taking Up Handling of Trusts

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.—When President Wilson returns to Washington early next week he will find Attorney General McReynolds prepared to take up in detail all the proposed "trust legislation" which has appeared in bills in Congress during the last nine months. A comparative summary of these bills has been prepared by the Department of Justice.

TRUST MESSAGE SOON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.—That the President's special message on the trust question will be delivered very soon after Congress convenes is the general belief in official circles. Some of the best informed expect that the President will take notice of recent actions.
