Wed in Coquille.—George Long, of Grants Pass and Miss Evelyn Burke, of Marshfield, were married in Coquille the first of the week, Justice Stanley officiating.

Sails Tomorrow.—Word was received by Agent McGeorge today that the Redondo would sail from San Francisco for Coos Bay tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Fogger Hurt.—Ben Thompson, employed at Smith-Powers Camp 7 at Coaledo, was brought to Mercy Hospital yesterday for treatment. It was found that his big toe was broken as a result of the cable striking his foot.

Uncle in Congress.—The current issue of the Saturday Evening Post contains a write-up of Congressman Doremus of Michigan, in its "Who's Who and Why" page. Mr. Doremus is an uncle of Burt Doremus, of Marshfield.

Will Wed.—A marriage license has been issued to Tom Nichols, of Marshfield, and Mary Baker Yates. Mrs. Yates formerly lived at Fishtrap, but is now a resident of Marshfield. Mr. Nichols is the well-known Marshfield commercial salesman.

Son is Born.—Word has been received here of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Street, formerly of Marshfield, but now in Portland. While they had not formally christened the new arrival, Mr. Street wanted to name him Platt. Mrs. Street's family name.

Arrange Meetings.—The Norwegian Ladies' Aid will meet tomorrow afternoon in the chapel. Mrs. M. Matheson will serve. The Young Ladies' Aid of the Norwegian Church will meet at Rev. Thorpe's residence Thursday, January 15. Miss Dorothy Johnson will serve.

Sail on Redondo.—Misses Marian Seaman, Nora Tower, Frances Williams, Hazel Powers, Bessie Coks and Mr. Leslie Isaacson, will leave on the Redondo on Saturday for California colleges to resume their studies after spending the Christmas and New Year holidays in Marshfield.

Eastside Mill Plans.—According to present plans, the remodeling and improvements of the Eastside mill will be completed so that they can start operations about March 1. The high wind last Saturday night blew down some of the frame work erected for the new concrete smokestacks now being built but the damage was slight.

Many Want Horses.—J. A. Roberts, of Shinghouse Inlet, advertised a horse for sale in The Times want ads and got over a dozen answers in a couple of days, quickly selling the animal. He says this is the third time that he has tried The Times want ads recently and each time he received more answers than before.

Basketball Game.—Dr. Morrow yesterday made arrangements with the North Bend Independents to play here Friday night, probably as an opener to the Marshfield-North Bend High School League game. The Marshfield team will be slightly changed, Freeman playing center, Granis and Ben Chandler forwards and Morrow and Murphy guards.

To Resume Journey.—A. Barnard, a laborer bound for Myrtle Point, was arrested yesterday on the charge of drunkenness. He stated before City Recorder Butler this morning that he had acquired his alcohol in North Bend. He was discharged on condition that he resume his journey.

Is Found Guilty.—Bert Bellou, arrested on the charge of assaulting James McCall, owner of the Spokane restaurant, located in the building leased by Bellou, was found guilty by Justice Pennock yesterday afternoon and fined $5. George Stewart, who purchased the restaurant fixtures, and who also swore out a complaint charging Bellou with striking him, will be the main witness today in another case of assault against Bellou in Justice Pennock's court.

Port Commission Meets.—The Port Commission met this afternoon to pass on the warrants to pay the dredge Seattle for the work done up to the end of December.

Is Buried Today.—Falling to locate the brother of William Dahl, who hanged himself in a shack a few days ago, Coroner Wilson had the body buried this afternoon.

Gets Quick Results.—Herman Cordes says that The Times want ads are the greatest ever. He had a typewriter for sale and advertised it and had a score of answers, selling the machine quickly.

Ferry Traffic.—Capt. Alex Hall, of the ferry Transit, reports that during the month of December, the Transit carried between Marshfield and Eastside, 6,631 passengers, 446 autos, 67 head of stock, 194 single rigs and 92 teams.

Meet Tonight.—At a meeting of the College Women's Club to be held at the home of Mrs. F. S. Dow tonight, Rev. A. F. Bassford will speak on the "Juvenile Court" and Mrs. Henry Sengstacken will read a paper on "Playgrounds."

Issues Permit.—Inspector Tribbey issued a permit today for the repairing of the Montgomery building, which was damaged by fire recently. Under the ordinance there is no provision made for tearing down structures partially burned, and the permit covers the work of placing what is left of the building in habitable shape.

To Raise Houses.—General Manager Miller, of the dredge Seattle, states that the dredge will shut down on January 16 for about four days, which will give those living south of Elrod a chance to raise their houses. It is understood that the volume of water will prove greater than was expected and some of the houses will be too low.

Gets First License.—Henry Huggins, the most indefatigable follower of Isaac Walton who can be found in these "parts," determined some time ago that he would have the first trout fishing license issued in 1914, so as to be early on the ground for the opening of the season on March 15. A couple of days ago he received his license from County Clerk Watson and on looking at it, found it sure enough No. 1.

SHORT DAY FOR POLICE.

Eight Hours is Limit of Work Says State Labor Commissioner

The following dispatch from Eugene will be of interest here as it will probably affect the Marshfield police:
"That Eugene policemen will have to be on duty only eight hours a day is the announcement of Mayor Yoran, after a consultation with State Labor Commissioner Hoff. Commissioner Hoff said that this is in accordance with the new state law, which prohibits the working of municipal or state employees longer than eight hours a day. This will necessitate the hiring of several additional policemen here."

SOME OF LIFE'S MISTAKES.

AN UPRIGHT and learned judge has announced as the wisdom acquired in his long experience at bar and bench, what he considers the most easily made and not readily rectified errors of human thought and conduct. He designates them as the "Thirteen Mistakes of Life," and thus enumerates:
"To attempt to set up your own standard of right and wrong and expect everybody to conform to it."
"To try to measure the enjoyment of others by your own."
"To expect uniformity of opinions in this world."
"To fail to make allowance for inexperience."
"To endeavor to mould all dispositions alike."
"Not to yield in unimportant trifles."
"To look for perfection in our own actions."
"To worry ourselves and others about what can not be remedied."
"Not to help everybody," wherever, however and whenever we can.
"To consider anything impossible that we can not ourselves perform."
"To believe only what our finite minds can grasp."
"Not to make allowances for the weaknesses of others."
"To estimate by some outside quality, when it is that within which makes the man."
Good advice, but negative. These are things NOT to do, to be avoided as poison, for each of which there doubtless is an antidote of cure and an anti-toxin of prevention. A sunset philosopher would affirm five simple rules in antithesis. They are the points of a star of hope. Easily remembered, these:
Be fair.
Be kind.
Don't worry.
Do your best.
And smile.
Take this tablet and keep from blundering.
