Orpheum Tonight

JUST IN TIME. This reel is full of interest, with an auto and engine race to save life.

CAVE DWELLERS' ROMANCE. Very fascinating from the subject and artistic viewpoint.

FUNNICUS BECOMES A MANICURIST. This is a good comedy. 4000 FEET OF PICTURES. ADMISSION 10c.

Keep Your Eye on Cooston

The right location has been selected, and right methods adopted to bring lasting and increasing value. Everything indicates that it will be the industrial city of Coos Bay. Development work will start in the near future. It is not a "get rich quick" proposition, but values are sure to increase to the satisfaction of any reasonable man.

Fix Building.—D. Y. Stafford has arranged with Contractor Teland to start the repair of the Montgomery building on Front street, recently damaged by fire, in a few days.

Firm Dissolves.—F. J. Holmes has disposed of his interest in the Saima Grocery on North Front street to his partner, Matt Rankla, and the latter will continue the business.

Comes To Coos Bay.—Hirsch Anderson of Springfield left for Marshfield, where he expects to remain for a few days. Mr. Anderson took with him plenty of ammunition and intends to do some hunting while in that vicinity.—Eugene Register.

To Buy Mill.—L. C. Reynolds is here from Coquille for the purpose of conferring with George Westland, receiver of the Hardwood Milling Company, for the purchase of the mill. He will probably move it to South Inlet, where he has considerable timber, if he makes the deal.

Moves Here.—S. J. Levine of North Bend was here today arranging for the completion of the remodeling of the store on Front street which Rehfeld and Barker recently vacated. He Levy All Right.—Some one started a report that the special tax levy at Eastside to make up the loss caused by City Recorder Leaton's defalcation had been thrown out, but Assessor Thrift has informed George Watkins, city attorney for Eastside, that the levy was all right and had not been questioned.

Bar Dredge.—Capt. Maegonn stated that the bar dredge P. S. Michie was scheduled to leave Puget Sound Tuesday for the Columbia River and should reach there today. She will remain there five days for a test in the sand and if found satisfactory is to be sent to Coos Bay at once. Major Morrow will come here, but whether on the dredge or the next Breakwater is not stated.

Recalls Fine Weather.—M. J. Bowron, the well known Isthmus Inlet pioneer, was in Marshfield today on business. He said that the present storm was accompanied by more wind than he had ever witnessed here. He recalled that the winter of 1875 was one of the mildest he ever saw here. He said that potatoes continued to grow all winter and in early April well developed new potatoes, peas and other garden truck were being furnished from Coos Bay gardens. He said that early in April the swamp grass was three feet high.

Kinney Better.—J. P. Morris of Plat B was in Marshfield today and stated that word had been received that Major Kinney was considerably improved at Dr. Newmark's sanitarium in California. He has regained his appetite but is not able to sleep much yet. No news as to how the physicians diagnosed his ailment has been received.

Auto Runs Amuck.—Mrs. Chas. E. Seafuse and Mrs. F. E. Grimes narrowly escaped injury this morning when a bakery delivery auto on North Front street ran amuck. Something went wrong with the steering gear and the auto shot across the street and up on the sidewalk in front of the Palace restaurant and the two women had to dodge lively to escape. Then it shot back across the street and barely missed the motor car.

Go To North Bend.—Last evening the Marshfield M. E. Brotherhood members went to North Bend and aided in the revivals being conducted there by the Rev. Williams. There was a good turnout and nearly every member from Marshfield gave a little "experience talk." Rev. Hisey then delivered a short sermon and five converts responded to the call. Among those going from Marshfield were Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Birch, Chas. H. Raymond, Milo Sumner, Frank Howe, F. C. Weaver, F. A. Sacchi, E. H. Campbell, G. H. Myers, I. S. Kaufman, W. R. Oxenrider, J. A. Baker, C. H. B. Smith, Will McIntosh and Mr. Moore.

Motor Hit Man.—Day before yesterday the Marshfield-North Bend motor car struck a man on the track near Porter. It was going about 10 miles an hour and threw the pedestrian up on the bank and he rolled back against the track, the ends of the ties being too high to let him roll underneath the car. W. J. Conrad and Tom James had just passed the man, who was walking on the track, in Conrad's auto and the noise from it drowned the noise of the approaching motor. He was not badly hurt and refused to give his name to Conductor Kardell, saying it was his fault because he had no business walking on the railroad track.

PERSONAL NOTES

JOE OSTLIND left this morning for Coquille to attend court.

W. J. WALLACE was down from his Catching Inlet ranch today.

F. J. MOWER, of Florence, arrived in the city last evening for a brief visit.

J. S. MASTERS, the Catching Inlet pioneer, is a Marshfield business visitor today.

L. L. THOMAS left on the morning train for various points in the Coquille Valley.

GEORGE CATCHING and Amil Mattson of Catching Inlet were Marshfield visitors today.

C. I. REIGARD returned last evening from Coquille, where he has had some cases in court.

ARCHIE JOHNSON was among the visitors to Coquille Valley points who left on the morning train today.

C. W. SPRAGUE, who is engaged in the electrical business at Myrtle Point, is a Marshfield business visitor.

TOM BENNETT was among the local lights advancing on Coquille this morning on the Courthouse Limited.

MRS. M. O. HAWKINS, of Coquille, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, left on the morning train for her home.

C. W. SPRAGUE, of Myrtle Point, reached Marshfield yesterday and is shaking hands with his numerous friends in the city today.

D. F. WYATT is reported to have disposed of his ranch near Norway and to be arranging to move on to the Lennon ranch near Allegany.

JOHN BIASCA of Coos River was a Marshfield business visitor yesterday. He is planning to make an extended trip to California points.

E. D. DORAN, who became a benedict during his last visit to Marshfield, arrived from Portland on the Breakwater this morning and is visiting the grocery trade.

G. B. DATSON returned on the Drain stage yesterday from Portland where he has been placing a few booster punches for Coos Bay and spending the Christmas and New Year holidays.

A. C. VESTAL returned on the train last night from Coquille after a business trip in the interests of the Union Oil Company, of which he is local manager. He drove from Coquille to Myrtle Point and found the roads in fair condition, despite the rains.

W. E. ARNOLD, representing the Warren Paving Company, arrived in "our midst" on the stage via Drain from Portland last evening. He will probably be heard from when the "city fathers" are passing the contracts around. This is his first visit to Coos Bay and when asked what he thought of the future metropolis he declared he was "dead stuck on it."

F. J. MONROE, formerly located at North Bend, but now engaged in the real estate and insurance business at Florence, is in Marshfield on business and pleasure. J. A. Wilkinson is also here from Florence. Mr. Monroe says that while it is a little quiet at Florence just now the prospects are for a good season and remarkable activity and growth in all lines, as the railroad will be running from Eugene to Acme within a few months.

TOM JAMES and W. J. Conrad made a trip to Smith-Powers Camp 1 on South Coos River yesterday. Wm. Garrett is now foreman of the camp and they declare that he has an ideal place. They took dinner with the men yesterday and Tom James says it beat any banquet that he has enjoyed in a long time. Milk is served to all who prefer it with their meals, the same as in the other Smith-Powers camps, and it is said that the company's milk bill runs up to about $250 per month.

AMONG THE SICK

Dr. Ira B. Bartle of North Bend, who has been quite sick, underwent an operation for throat trouble and is reported much improved.

Don Gardiner of North Bend, who has been quite ill of throat trouble, was reported improving yesterday.

Prof. Grubbs, of the North Bend high school, who has been suffering from an attack of pleurisy, was compelled to quit his school work today and return home.

AVERILL NOTE CASE DECIDED

F. W. Stevens Fails to Get Verdict Against J. A. Goodwill—Watkins Case
(Special to the Times).

COQUILLE, Or., Jan. 8.—A jury in the case of F. W. Stevens vs. J. A. Goodwill of Coos River for $100 and costs amounting to about $50 more, brought in a verdict for the defendant. This was one of the Geo. F. Averill note cases and was the first one to be decided by a jury. It was a decided victory for Chas. I. Reigard, who represented Mr. Goodwill. In the case of Geo. Watkins against the Record Photograph Abstract Co. of Marshfield, the plaintiff was given a verdict for $750 which he asked for money and services to the company.

In the case of Turner vs. Bailey, the plaintiff got a judgment for about $20. Turner is a homesteader near Cooston and Bailey is a printer at North Bend.

Coming Events Cast Their Shadows Before

For nearly two weeks a great event has cast its shadow over the hills, valleys and waters of Coos County.

An event far reaching in its scope and influence. An event of interest to every man, woman and child in the county.
