New Assistant.—Miss Alice McLain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McLain, is in charge of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce today while Secretary Motley is attending court in Coquille.

Rehearsal Tonight.—The senior and junior choirs of the Episcopal church will have a rehearsal tonight in the basement of the church. All members are urgently requested to attend.

Dr. White Delayed.—Rev. A. F. Bassford received a telegram today stating that Dr. Calvin S. White, who was expected here today, had been delayed and would not be on Coos Bay until some time in February.

Is Ill.—Dr. Edgar M. Wilson, the Missionary to India, who was to have given an address at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, has been compelled to cancel the appointment because of illness.

Several Fined.—J. N. Scanland, tried yesterday on the charge of vagrancy, was found guilty before City Recorder Butler and was fined $5. Dan Budi, arrested by Gordon Smith for drunkenness, was fined $5 this morning.

Doing Well.—Friends of J. E. Lyons, formerly one of the owners of the Coos Bay Steam Laundry, have received word that he is doing well at Cosmopolis, Wash., where he is general superintendent of the big Grays Harbor company's plant, which employs nearly 1000 men. Their son, Don, is recuperating from the injuries sustained last fall.

Sells Rooming House.—H. H. Wilson has sold the Wilson Rooming House on Market avenue to Miss Catherine Weddell, formerly in charge of the Chandler cigar stand. Mr. Wilson has moved into apartments over his marble works, where he will remain until Mrs. Wilson and daughter return from Baker City, where they went to settle up her father's estate.
