

Announcement Extraordinary!

Lando's Sale of Laces and Embroideries

Now for the most startling feature of our GREAT FIRE SALE. Something you have been waiting and watching for. An event that cannot fail to inspire you. No introduction is necessary to acquaint you with our large and elegant stock of Embroideries and Laces. For years LANDO'S has been known as the "Lace House." One show case alone contained over $1500 worth of Laces and Bandings. These were unharmed, but in accordance with our policy to make a clean sweep, they will be sacrificed at a price next to cost. Inclement weather has proven no bar to the bargain-seeking public. Hundreds of people have taken advantage of this, our first great sale. It is the chance of a lifetime. Following are but a few of the big bargains offered. Sale will last indefinitely. Out of consideration for our clerks, we earnestly request customers to refrain from handling sale goods any more than is necessary.

SOCIAL EVENTS

CONTRIBUTIONS

concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society department of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 o'clock p. m., Friday of each week. Exceptions will be made only in cases where the event occurred later than the time mentioned.

LENTEN

does not begin until February 25th this year and Easter Sunday will mark its close April 12.

The Lenten season is considerably later this year than last season and will not interfere with the St. Valentine and Washington birthday parties which have been leading functions in local social circles the last few years.

WED TODAY

The marriage of Sig Ekholm and Miss Ina Wildlund will take place this afternoon, the Rev. J. V. Benson officiating. The young couple will reside at Eastside and the groom is employed by the C. A. Smith Company.

BIBLE CLASS SOCIAL

The Bible Class of the Presbyterian church met at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Butz in Bunker Hill on Wednesday evening. The occasion was the monthly business meeting and social.

A. N. W.
