NO TRACE OF CLARK FOUND

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Jan. 20.—That P. Lewis Clark, the Spokane millionaire who disappeared Friday night after seeing his wife off on a train, was almost helpless and would have had great difficulty in making his way alone any distance, developed today. Clark's valet told the police that his employer was in constant need of assistance.

Despite the theories of the police, Mrs. Clark, who arrived here yesterday, continues to hold a belief that her husband will be found in some sanitarium or hotel here or in Los Angeles. W. H. Cowles, a Spokane newspaper publisher, who accompanied Mrs. Clark on her return here, said today that while neither he nor friends of Mrs. Clark were making any endeavor to convince her of the fallacy of her belief, all of them feel certain that Clark's body is in the ocean.

GREAT RODEO PICTURE HERE

MANAGER MARSDEN OF GRAND THEATER SECURES FINE FILM FOR THURSDAY AND FRIDAY NIGHTS—REAL WILD WEST.

Manager Marsden today received one of the finest Wild West films that has ever been put out and has made arrangements to show it Thursday and Friday nights at the Grand. It is a three-reel feature of the great California Rodeo.

Every phase of Wild Western life is depicted—broncho busting, taming wild horses, bull riding, etc., of the old days.

The pictures were taken of the contests at the Rodeo, so there is none of the posing that detracts from many Wild West films and every act is the real thing. Some of the best riders and ropers in the West participated in the Rodeo.

Don't miss seeing this film Thursday or Friday night, as it will be a long time, if ever, before you can see its equal.

Grand Thursday and Friday nights.
