Likes Coos Bay.—The Florence Pilot says: "J. A. Wilkinson, a prominent merchant of Mapleton, returned Monday from Coos Bay and says this country looks better to him yet."

Go East.—C. A. Smith and F. A. Warner, of the C. A. Smith Company, left San Francisco last Sunday on an extended Eastern trip on matters connected with the company. They will probably spend several weeks in the East.

Bring Dredge Back.—The Florence Pilot says: "Capt. and Mrs. Herman Lars expect to move to Coos Bay within the next few weeks, where the Captain has a four or five-months' contract for the S. P. Company, doing dredging on both sides of the draw bridge there on the river."

Son Is Born.—Jack Flanagan has received a card from Frank Lambertson, of Boise, a former well-known Marshfield real estate man, bringing the joyful tidings of the birth of the first son and heir in the Lambertson household. Mr. Lambertson's many Coos Bay friends will unite in felicitations.

Hotel Changes.—The Central Hotel, formerly owned by P. N. Thurston, has been leased to Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hampton, for a period of five years. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton are well known in Marshfield and the public can rest assured that under the new management every courtesy will be extended.

Funeral Held.—The funeral of Lois Evelyn Smith, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Smith was held from their residence on Sherman avenue, North Bend, on Monday afternoon. Rev. Mrs. Lewis, assisted by Rev. Bassford, officiated. The pallbearers were playmates of little Evelyn and were Misses Eva Wilmot, Thelma Walker, Minnie Renhausen, Velma Quintermass. Interment was at the Marshfield Cemetery.

Alcoholist Fined.—Joe Mercer, who has been working at Camp 4 since the first of the year, was brought before City Recorder Butler and fined $5 for appearing on the streets in a drunk and disorderly condition. Mercer had $15 yesterday morning, he told the court and when arrested had 15 cents left. He promised to go to work and was allowed to depart with instructions to pay his fine when he made his next visit.

Breakwater Coming.—Catching up with her schedule despite the fact that she was delayed in the harbor here for one day and several hours more while trying to tow the damaged steam schooner Yellowstone, the steamer Breakwater, Captain Macgenn, crossed out over the bar at the Columbia this morning at 9:20 o'clock for Marshfield. She will arrive here in the morning with a considerable cargo and good-sized list of passengers.

Many Out of Work.—Will Eickworth, of Millicoma, was in Marshfield today on business. He has just received a letter from his brother, August Eickworth, who is a linotype operator on the San Francisco Bulletin, in which he says that the number of men out of work and suffering from lack of food there is appalling. Chas. Woodruff also writes Mr. Eickworth from Los Angeles that conditions there are similar to those in San Francisco.

Court Adjourns.—Judge J. S. Coke has adjourned circuit court at Coquille until he can secure a new court reporter, Ira N. Riddle, who has been reporter in this district for many years was compelled to resign on account of threatened paralysis and will engage in the practice of law at Roseburg. Mr. Loud, formerly court reporter in the U. S. district court but recently with Porter Brothers at Florence, has applied for the position and will probably be appointed by Judge Coke for Coos and Curry Counties.

Powers on Vacation.—A. H. Powers, head of the Smith-Powers Logging Company, will leave tomorrow on the Adeline Smith on a vacation trip and to enjoy a visit with Mrs. Powers, who has been spending the winter in California for her health. It has been a long time since Mr. Powers took a vacation and just how long he will "take life easy" depends on the fun he has. However, he was more anxious to see Mrs. Powers than to get the vacation. She is now in San Francisco and is much improved, having gained sixteen pounds, and is feeling fine. While away, Mr. Powers will see that Dr. Dix, who is in California, religiously complies with his doctor's orders.
