

FORM OF CRAWFORD

Jan. 22.—Attorney Crawford has formed his candidacy for the nomination for Governor. He makes application for the office of the high office of the state," said the attorney. "The public should know of the candidate's views on the events and government. My duties as Attorney General have given me the insight into the needs of the state, and I am announcing my candidacy for Governor of Oregon, following the will of the voters in making for the betterment of Oregon: He Favors.

That every effort be made to protect and advance the interests of women and children.

Efficient administration and support of schools and the placing of all officers under the general supervision of the state.

Eight hour day law for all workers.

Reduction of tax laws so that the burden is extended to the rich and the reduction in penalty for the payment of single tax proper.

Control and regulation of the liquor industry and consolidation of the same in the interest of economy and efficiency.

Enactment of laws to promote the happiness and liberties of the people to meet changing economic conditions.

General Crawford is a Republican, of Oregon City, Oregon, and practiced law in New York, and practiced law in Oregon for three consecutive years, later moving to the bar in Bingham, where he lived until his present office was a member of the legislature of the state, and receiver of the Federal office at Roseburg from 1908. He is the only man to have been elected attorney-general for three consecutive terms.

HERE AN UNUSUAL VEST IMPARTS DISTINCTION

As the vest and tunic are favored in grown up modes so do they also appear as smart features on the frock or suit of the younger girl. The little dress of dark serge is wonderfully brightened by a vest of colored tapestry or brocade.

No. 7877 is a school or street frock of dark brown eponge with a surplice vest of brown and gold figured ratine. The tabs extending below the girdle are an effective touch, and the band of the same figured material at the bottom of the tunic is another.

The bodice shows a set-in sleeve with a deep cuff. The skirt is a two-piece model.

To copy this frock in size 18 it requires 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material, with 1 yard of 30 inch material for the vest and cuffs.

The waist-line for children is almost entirely done away with this season. Dame Fashion allows them all the ease of movement possible, and designs gain rather than lose in attractiveness.

No. 8995 is a straight little dress for a child from 4 to 12 years. It is here fashioned of eponge in dark red with a folded sash of satin.

In size 8 it may be made with 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch material.

No. 7877—sizes 16, 17 and 18.

No. 8995—sizes 4 to 12.
