

CENTRALIZE AND MERCHANDISE ON CENTRAL AVE.

Kammerer Says:

ANY SUIT OR OVERCOAT IN THE HOUSE FOR JUST $7.50 LESS.

This is the time of the year when we wish to lighten our stock, so we will sell for less anything in the house. Come in and bargain with me.

Yours Anxious to Please,

The Toggery

There is a real pleasure in shopping in new and up-to-date stores. That's why Central Avenue is becoming more and more the shopping center of Coos Bay. Its stores afford the newest and best to be secured. Good goods, reasonable prices and prompt service are the watchwords of Central Avenue merchants. These, coupled with the convenience of location, are proving more and more every day the real merit of the advice to "merchandise, centralize and economize on Central Avenue."

HIS FRANKNESS COMMENDABLE.

IT IS A good thing to have friends who are willing to further one's political ambitions, but it is not always necessary to let the public spirit of another take all the glory of self sacrifice. H. F. Jones, former register of the United States land office at Roseburg, is aware of this, for he has been before the people long enough to know that the old game is not the best. He therefore launches his candidacy for Congressman from the First district in the following language:

"Hundreds of people living in every county in the first congressional district have never written, telegraphed or asked me to become a candidate for congress. However, believing in the principle that if a man wants anything the best way to get it is to go after it, and not wait for it to come to him, and holding to the doctrine that under our form of government it is no disgrace to seek an office at the hands of the people, I therefore desire to say that after due consideration and without any mental reservation or undue influence, I have decided to become a candidate for congress on the Republican ticket at the coming primary election."

Now, we all know who is backing Mr. Jones. He wants the office and has the courage of his convictions. He is willing to fight for it.

RODEO FILM IS THE BEST EVER

GREAT PICTURE WILL BE SHOWN AGAIN AT GRAND THEATER TONIGHT—LARGE AUDIENCE APPLAUDS—REAL WILD WEST.

"The Great California Rodeo" film, one of the best wild west pictures ever shown, was greatly enjoyed by a crowded house at The Grand last night. Every inch of the film is good. There are no blurred or "smoky" scenes, but the pictures on the screen are as clear and distinct as the best photo you ever saw. The California Rodeo film is so far ahead of the last Pendleton Roundup film that there is no comparison.

The pictures depict real cowboys and "cowhells" busting wildest bronchos, bulldogging wild steers, relay pony express, wild steer riding, hippodrome and chariot races and many other events, including world's championship contests. No ordinary person could attempt these feats and escape alive. Every scene is a thriller. See the youngest cowboy in America, aged ten, and many comic situations, including the donkey none could ride.

Manager Marsden has arranged to repeat the great film again tonight and no one should miss seeing it.
