CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN AT ONCE, HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

In One Minute Your Stuffy Nose and Head Clears, Sneezing and Nose Running Cease, Dull Headache Goes.
 "Try Ely's Cream Balm."
 Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the raw catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.
 End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

 Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.
 Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

EXTRAVAGANT MATERIALS FAVORED FOR EVENING WRAPS

Wonderfully patterned and colored brocades and silks that we have heretofore admired at a distance with a vague notion that they were intended for some use, but never for a moment connecting them with the idea of dress, have come into favor for evening wear. Often the entire wrap is fashioned of a material which reminds one strongly of a Chinese mandarin's coat, and then, again, a wrap of a rich velvet or silk in a plain color is trimmed with a gorgeously colored brocade in a Persian or Indian design. It offers the woman who really loves these vivid, glowing colors to indulge in them without appearing in poor taste.
 A charming dancing frock with a double tunic of chiffon in a delicate shade of yellow over charmeuse of a darker shade is illustrated in No. 8100. Over the shoulders and edging each tunic is a band of Persian embroidery in which there are glints of gold and intermingling of shades that harmonize exquisitely with the material of the gown.
 The bodice is a very simple surplice design; the transparent sleeves and decolletee are edged with tiny pearls. This gown may be copied in size 36 with 2 3/4 yards of plain material for the skirt, 6 3/4 yards of 42 inch material, silk or chiffon, for the overdress. A simple charming design for an evening wrap is shown in 8076. It is perfectly plain, closes on the left shoulder and is well suited to the rich brocade in which it is here developed.
 This wrap may be made in any size with 3 3/4 yards of 42 inch or 54 inch material without up and down.
 No. 8100—sizes 34 to 42.
 No. 8076—sizes 32 to 40.
 Each pattern 15 cents.

To obtain either pattern illustrated fill out this coupon and enclose 15 cents in stamps or coin. Be sure to state number of pattern and size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust. Address Pattern Department, care of this paper.
