

Look at the values more than at the prices

YOU never can tell whether a price is low or not until you know what it buys. Always estimate the price of the thing by the value of the thing. We're offering something more than just suits and overcoats at the prices mentioned. These are different; they are Hart Schaffner & Marx suits and overcoats at these prices.

You may see other prices lower than ours; but you won't get Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes anywhere else. Here are some figures:

field Independent basketball and the North Bend Independents will play the third game of the series in the Marshfield tabernacle tonight, each having one victory. The game will be a preliminary to a contest between the Marshfield and North Bend high school second teams.

Play at Bandon.—The Marshfield basketball team left today for Bandon, where they will play Bandon tonight. Last Friday night the Bandon team was defeated by the Myrtle Point team thirteen to eleven, it being necessary to play extra time to decide a tie score.

Mail Again Delayed.—Continuous slides at Brewster Canon for the past two days have severely hampered the mail service. The Marshfield mail had not arrived at noon today and it is not expected this evening. A force of men is busy clearing the roadway but with the heavy rains and repeated slides it is almost impossible to clear the road.

Delay on Bank.—Daniel Miller, of Bandon, reports slow progress on the construction of the new building for the First National Bank of Bandon. The uncertain weather conditions that prevail at the present time make it difficult to obtain building material. It is expected that the building, which is considered one of the finest in Southwestern Oregon, will be completed about March 1.

Will Leave for California.—Among the arrivals on the Express from Allegany today was G. A. Gould, who will leave on the Redondo Sunday for his old home at San Jose, Calif. Mr. Gould has not been to the scene of his boyhood for five years, and he is taking his machine along, intending to try some of the good roads in California. He will return to the Bay after a sojourn of three months in California.

Will Hold Joint Service.—The members of the Presbyterian Church of Marshfield, the High School Faculty, and the members of the Junior and Senior classes, have accepted the invitations of the Rev. Samuel Gregg to attend services on next Sunday evening, January 25th, at the Christian church. The subject of the sermon will be, "The Essentials of Culture, or the Secret of a Successful Career." This subject is well taken and an interesting sermon has been prepared by Rev. Gregg.

Bar Association.—The annual meeting and banquet of the Coos County Bar Association will be held at North Bend, Oregon, on February 3, 1914. Invitations have been extended to all members of the Bar Association in Coos County to be present. The afternoon of the meeting day will be occupied with a business session of the association at which various matters will be discussed. A large attendance is anticipated by the committee in charge. In the evening, a banquet will be held at the Hotel Oregon, at which the members will be called on to display their powers of oratory. The committee in charge follows: A. S. Hammond, C. E. Mayhew, A. H. Derbyshire.

Settled Out of Court.—The suit of D. E. Green, for insurance on his household goods, lost in a fire about a year ago, has been settled out of court by the firm of Peck & Peck, a satisfactory payment being made by the Queen Insurance company.

She was seventy years of age, and was a pioneer of Oregon, coming here in 1860. The funeral will be held at Scottsburg. Seven daughters, one son and several grandchildren survive her.

Injured by Needle.—Mrs. James Butts of North Marshfield was the victim of a peculiar accident while washing. A needle in one of the garments penetrated her arm almost the full length and broke off. The needle was located by Dr. Houseworth by the use of the X-ray and was removed. The injury was painful but not serious.

New Lakeside Doctor.—Dr. L. C. Melvin, of Atlanta, Georgia, who passed the state examination last summer, arrived in the city yesterday from the southern states and left this morning for Lakeside, where he will practice as a physician and surgeon. He secured a quantity of supplies from the Owl Prescription Pharmacy and will start in practicing as soon as possible.

Bridge Starts Again.—The dredge Seattle, which suspended operations for over a week while bulkheads were erected around certain properties below Elrod avenue, resumed work again today at noon and is making the fill above Fourth street.
