BORN.

LUND—To Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lund, at their home in Marshfield, Saturday, January 24, a son.

Sells Organ—L. L. Thomas, of the Wiley B. Allen company, sold an organ to the people of Coaledo for the new chapel there.

Hoy Candidate—The Oregonian, in a write-up of the probable candidates for state offices this year, says that Harry G. Hoy of Marshfield is expected to be the Bull Moose candidate for Attorney General.

Improve Store—Harry Winkler is making arrangements to remodel and improve his Central avenue pharmacy, adding a balcony and other improvements. W. H. Burton, a pharmacist from Idaho, arrived here the other day to assist him in the store.

Want Hildebrand—The Bandon World says: "The Patron-Teacher meeting will be held at the high school building Friday evening, January 30. An effort is being made to secure Mr. Hildebrand, manual training teacher at Marshfield, to talk on the subject of 'Manual Training in the Schools.'"

Have Books—Clyde Gage, while here Saturday, was endeavoring to arrange to borrow a set of two volumes of the old Connecticut blue laws which Mrs. Clarke, mother of Mrs. A. J. Savage and Mrs. M. E. Everett, had. They are said to be the only set on the coast, the late Mr. Clarke having secured them when a boy.

Got Results—"The Times want ads sure get results," remarked Nell Watson, a well-known Isthmus Inlet rancher, Saturday. "I sold the hogs that I was advertising in a couple of days." Mr. Watson had some blooded swine he wanted to get rid of and finally decided to try the want ads. He got results, the same as all the others.

Smashed Auto—Saturday was an unlucky day for Claude Tucker's auto. Among its mishaps was a collision with Carl Evertsen's balky auto. The latter was smashed up and Mr. Evertsen slightly bruised. Mr. Evertsen says Mr. Tucker was to blame, having turned the wrong way in passing.

Goes To Jail—E. S. Geer, formerly proprietor of the Blanco Cafe, was taken to the county jail Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Gage to begin a three-months' sentence for selling liquor to minors. Geer was first paroled, but his parole was revoked on account of card playing with Tamp Osborne and others. He planned to appeal, but his bondsmen, D. A. Curry, George Cook and others, gave him up. His wife went north Saturday to remain with relatives.

Lecture Tuesday—Dr. Hodge, of Oregon University, will deliver his noted address, "The Conservation of Human Health and Vitality," at the Marshfield M. E. church Tuesday evening. He appears under the auspices of the Coos Bay College Women's Club. He will arrive by stage tomorrow and it is hoped there will be a large turnout to welcome him. Miss Topping, city librarian, will be pleased to arrange to have as many people as possible meet him during his stay here.

GREAT FILM AT THE ORPHEUM

"THE LIVING CORPSE," ADAPTED FROM COUNT LEO TOLSTOI'S GREAT DRAMA TO BE SHOWN HERE TWO NIGHTS.

The Orpheum has arranged to show "The Living Corpse," one of the greatest films ever shown here, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Beautiful photography and exceptional dramatic work make it a most remarkable feature.

"The Living Corpse" was written in the year 1900, at Moscow, on the estate of Tolstol's brother and at Yasnaya Polyana, Tolstol's own estate. It is an enthralling story—one of the best and most extensively read—and the pictorial version in four parts makes one of the greatest features ever presented to intelligent in veng picture patrons.

You can't afford to miss this wonderful feature production; it is adapted from a world's classic, and you owe it to yourself to become familiar with the inspiring philosophy of Tolstol, the Russian Sage. A photoplay that will appeal to those who appreciate magnificent acting, perfect photography and a powerful plot. This is a genuine dramatic treat, so don't miss seeing it either Tuesday or Wednesday night at the Orpheum.

The Royal TONIGHT

Two vaudeville acts. Miss Norma Boardman will do an Italian song and dance, together with her regular act.

Miss Lois Powell in two beautiful songs.

Four new reels of pictures. "The Trail of Steel." A thrilling and spectacular Western drama in two reels by the 191 Bison Co.

"The Half Wit." A Reliance drama.

"A Pawnee Romance." Millionaire Bob goes West for excitement and gets it good and plenty.

A rip-roaring comedy, mixed in with a clever love story.

Admission, lower floor, 15c; balcony, 10c.

Coming Wednesday, "Robinson Crusoe" in three reels. Don't miss this.

Thursday and Friday, Kinemacolor pictures. Everything in these pictures in its natural color.
