three months. He returned to the city on the Express today.
CAPT. JAS. MAGEE, of Empire, is a Marshfield visitor today.
MRS. WALTER SPADE, of Sumner, is a Marshfield shopper today.
C. K. PERRY will leave tomorrow for San Francisco on a few weeks' business trip.
MRS. MARY KRICK, of Chico, California, arrived in Marshfield on a short business trip.
CAPT. W. A. MAGEE returned on the Alliance yesterday from a trip to Portland and other northern points.
J. D. HEMMINGWAY and wife, of Oakland, California, arrived in Marshfield yesterday by way of Drain, and expect to locate here.
JOEL OSTLUND returned today from a two-weeks' trip to Bandon, where he was doing some ornamental concrete work on the new Bank Building.
R. J. MONTGOMERY came in today from his ranch near Bridge to look after matters here. Mrs. Montgomery and the children are well and he likes the ranch life.
JULIUS KRUSE was in from his Isthmus Inlet ranch yesterday showing some samples of clay that are considered to be especially valuable for brick and tile manufacture.
GEO. E. LAIRD, one of the owners of the Bandon Water Company, which is having a controversy with the city over the plant and service, came over last night to hear the debate at the Fellowship Club. He reports that the Coquille River is up pretty well, but is not doing any damage. He says that the many drainage ditches put in along the Coquille the last few years have reduced the liability of freshets like those of old days as they keep the swamps drained out and give the high water room to spread.

NORTH BEND NEWS.

The North Bend Concert Band will give a free concert at Eckhoff Hall Wednesday evening. A special program has been arranged, and the concert is to be one of the best the band has played.
It is reported that Kruse & Banks have taken a contract from Henry Peterson, the San Francisco Bay boat magnate, to build two boats sixty feet long with 14-foot beam, for use at the Golden Gate.
L. J. Simpson and Capt. Edgar Simpson will leave shortly for San Francisco to attend the annual meeting of the Simpson Lumber Co.
Owing to the inclement weather Contractor Horn has been compelled to quit work on the bridge across the big cut in Simpson park. He built one approach but the cost of the work was prohibitive and he has decided to hold up the balance until the weather is more favorable.
