BORN.

SCAIFE—To Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Scaife, at their home on Central avenue, Thursday, January 28, a son. Mother and child are doing nicely and Mr. Scaife's praise of the new arrival forms "a picture no artist can paint."

Vestry Meeting—The Vestry Board of the Episcopal church will meet this evening at 7:30 in the rector's study.

Choir Rehearsal—There will be a choir rehearsal this evening at 7:30 in the Guild room of the Episcopal church. Both junior and senior members of the choir are earnestly asked to be present.

Mother Dead—Senator J. S. Smith has received a card stating that W. F. Squire's mother died at San Jose, California, January 26. Mr. and Mrs. Squire have been in California for a few weeks.

One Imbiber Fined—Fred Haun's, charged with being drunk and disorderly on the streets, was arrested last night by Officers Smith and S'oupe, and on being brought before City Recorder Butler this morning was assessed the usual $5.

Recovers Brooch—Through a Times found ad, Mrs. J. B. Tower recovered a valuable brooch set with brilliants which she dropped on the street the other day. It was found by Irving Chandler, who brought it to The Times office and a single insertion of the ad in the Times found the owner.

Is Bound Over—Clarence H. McLaughlin, charged by his wife with failure to support herself and their children, was bound over to the grand jury this morning by Justice Pennock in the sum of $100. He guaranteed his appearance before the grand jury and if the case goes to trial there promises to be a lively contest.

Work in Quarry—W. J. Bomar, who is now employed at the Coos River stone quarry, was in Marshfield yesterday. He states that McLain and McLain will soon have a big force of men employed there within a few days getting out rock for rip-rapping the big fill of the Southern Pacific at North Bend.

Crew Laid Off—On account of the recent storms all the crew working on the railroad construction work at Myrtle Point have been laid off. A short time since the night gang was dismissed on account of the difficulties encountered during the wet weather and it was thought at that time that the men would be working in a few days if the weather improved. However, with the storms of the last week all operations have ceased.

Information Filed—An information was filed in Justice Pennock's court by Mrs. Helen McLaughlin against her husband, Clarence McLaughlin, this afternoon, charging him with failing to provide for her and the children. Constable Cox was over in Coquille, where he took Ozella Franklin to the county jail, and on his return he will place the defendant under arrest. His hearing will be held before Justice Pennock, probably tomorrow, when it will be decided whether he will be bound over to the grand jury.

Extension Work—The Normal School extension work in Oregon will be represented at North Bend, on February 2 with the appearance of M. S. Pittman, head of the extension department of the Oregon Normal school. The North Bend Teachers' Institute will hold a meeting in the Central Building on the afternoon of February 2. An invitation to all interested in Normal School work is extended. In the evening Mr. Pittman will deliver a lecture at the High School to which the public is cordially invited. Mr. Pittman is represented as an excellent speaker and those hearing him will enjoy his discourse.

Had Close Call—Parties from the Coquille report that J. L. Bean, living near Lampa Creek, and family, had a narrow escape from being crushed to death the other night. A monster tree was blown over on the hillside and rolled down to within a foot or two of the Bean home. Had the log gone a few feet further, the home and its occupants would undoubtedly have been crushed. Near Bullards, a tree was blown over on a woodsman's home and he had a leg broken in the accident.

Good Mail Service—Jens Hansen says that every Coos Bayite should take his hat off to C. P. Barnard and give him a vote of thanks for the efficient mail service. Mr. Hansen says there have been fewer delays than in years and the first of the week, when the big storm interfered so much, the mail was only delayed for a day or two and the entire lot began coming in schedule time several days before even the most hopeful had anticipated.

AMONG THE SICK

Miss May Myren is recuperating from a severe illness of two weeks. Mrs. Ole Peterson, of Eastside, who has been ill for several weeks, is reported to be improving.

Mrs. A. E. Morten, who has been quite sick at North Bend, is reported much improved.

A. J. Swanson, of Eastside, is reported quite ill at his home in Eastside. He was first afflicted with a severe cold and pleurisy and other complications have developed and two operations have had to be resorted to in order to drain his side.

Judge D. L. Watson, of Coos City, is reported to be rather poorly.

Emmerson Perry, of the Blanco Hotel, who has been laid up for some time, is reported improving. W. H. Dindinger, of the Bunker Hill Department Store, has been confined to his home for a few days by "Job's Comforters," but was able to get over to the store today.

PRAISE DRIVER.

Editor Coos Bay Times: A little incident came to my notice this morning that I think worthy of notice in your columns. This morning as I was on my way to the train an old soldier and his wife were aboard the White Star car. When we arrived at the depot the driver assisted the old couple to alight and when they asked how much the fare was the driver stopped whistling a popular tune just long enough to say "Dad wore the 'Union Blue' and when you ride with me you don't need any fare." I didn't know that driver. Never saw him before, but we need more men like him. A STRANGER.

PERSONAL OVERFLOW

MISS GENEVA WILCOX, who has been spending a few months with her sister, Mrs. Benj. Chandler, will leave tomorrow for her home at Independence, Oregon.

H. W. SMITH, who recently returned from Washington, has acquired a ranch on Catching Inlet. Mr. Smith is a son of Levi Smith of the Marshfield police department, is a former Coos Bayite and a booster for the Bay.
