Plans Trip.—Tom Howard is making arrangements for an extended Eastern trip and plans to spend a month or so with two brothers in Illinois, whom he has not seen in over twenty years.

Very Ill.—P. N. Flagg, of the Coos Bay Wiring Company was taken suddenly ill at his home early yesterday morning of general peritonitis and was taken to Mercy Hospital. He is reported to be in a rather critical condition.

To Open Soon.—Photographer Quaternass is arranging to have his studio in the rebuilt Montgomery building opened about February 15. He will have the quarters fixed up even better than before and is glad to be able to greet his patrons at the old location.

Raze Landmark.—Wm. Saunders is having the old Lockhart hotel at Empire, a landmark of the Coos Bay section, razed. It was built about 1870 and it is said that much of the timber is as solid as when it was put into the building.

Firm Dissolves.—D. F. Barnard has sold his interest in the Coos Bay Wiring Company to his partner, C. A. Langworthy, who will continue the business alone. For the present Mr. Barnard will remain with the firm, but will engage in other business later.

Get Out Logs.—About 75,000 feet of logs cut off the Perham tract were floated out Mill Slough today. They were sold by Receiver Weststead of the Hardwood Milling Company to the North Bend Lumber Company. They were the first log drive out of Mill Slough in many years.

Steamer Rates Reduced.—August Frizeen is in receipt of advices from the big steamship companies announcing a big reduction in passenger rates from New York to German and French ports. As a result of the war in rates tickets to and from New York to foreign ports are held for $22.00.

Open March 1.—J. W. Hildenbrand and Wm. Schroeder expect to open their plumbing, hardware and builders' supplies store about March 1. They will occupy the quarters which the Marshfield Hardware Co.

is vacating. Both are well known and will have the best wishes of many friends in the new business.

Life Lease.—Under his settlement with the Fletcher heirs, A. E. Seaman received $3000 for the money he had expended and is given possession of the house, and lot under the life of Mrs. Young, the widow of the late Mr. Fletcher. The settlement was on the basis that Seaman simply bought Mrs. Young's equity in the property. Mrs. Young is a sister of Mrs. Robert McCann, of North Bend.

CAT GIVES HOT BATTLE.

Policeman and Tabby Have It Warm and Heavy.

PORTLAND, Feb. 6.—Having a hard fight with a big black cat was the unusual experience of Patrolman "Jack" Reid, who had to engage in a spectacular hand to hand battle with a ferocious tabby in the rabbit warren of Clayton Weatherly of this city. When the policeman got hold of a heavy shovel he laid the cat low and won the fight.

The cat had been stealing young rabbits for some time, and this morning a child saw the animal start from the warren with a rabbit in its mouth. Reid lives nearby, and he, too, saw the theft. Reid gathered a handful of rocks and the cat was forced to drop its prey and seek refuge in the warren.
