

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS

We are moving into our new store at the corner of Central avenue and Broadway, opposite the First National Bank and the Irving Block. The Stephen Rogers Block is being remodelled to furnish us finer and more commodious quarters. We expect to be ready for business in the new location between February 5th and 10th, and cordially invite all to visit the new store and inspect the new and larger stock.

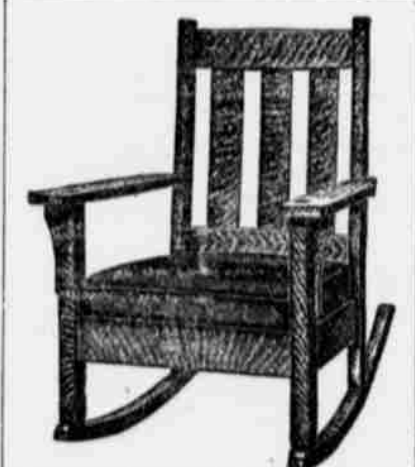

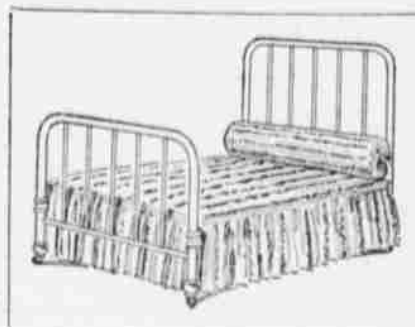

Thanking you for your past courtesies and trusting that we will be able to serve you better than ever in the new location, we are

Very Truly Yours,
MARSHFIELD HARDWARE CO.

Fine Furniture Makes Fine Homes

FINE FURNITURE means attractive homes and attractive homes add to the welcome; son and daughter take pride in inviting their friends to share your hospitality. This is a most wholesome influence for the young people and an endeavor should be made to provide a home environment that will interest and please them.

"Where Is My Wandering Boy (or Girl) Tonight?" could be solved many times if a home atmosphere were created that the young people could be interested in. Besides, the luxurious utility of fine furniture adds much to the comfort of the entire family. Our furniture for the living room, den, dining room and bed room reflects the best in American workmanship and design. We have just the pieces of furniture you need for brightening up your home.

Dr. Dix Home.—Dr. George E. Dix arrived home from California this morning, where he has spent a few weeks. He is greatly improved after his vacation.

Install Boilers.—Mr. Tillsley, who will have supervision of the installation of the large new boilers at the C. A. Smith company's mill at Eastside, arrived here on the Adeline Smith today.

Mereen Returns.—Arno Mereen, of the C. A. Smith company, arrived here on the Adeline Smith today and will spend some time on the Bay looking after improvements in the local plants.

Coos River Visitors.—Among the Coos River people who came down on the Wah-Ta-Waso today were Fred Maserle and wife, Alfred Gunnell, Julius Gunnell, Wm. Bonebrake and wife, Mabel Bonebrake, Mrs. J. W. Riggs, Mrs. B. F. Ross, Geo. F. Ross, John Carlson and wife, Alex. Honzell, H. L. Russell, John Hayden, Wm. Lackstrom, Ellis Hagstrom, Alvin Lackstrom, John Mattson, Reuben Mattson, Arthur Holmes, Mrs. Dan McIntosh, Miss Estrele Holmes, Herman Smithgall, T. M. Collier and wife and Clarence Collier and wife.

Plan Warehouse.—At a largely attended meeting of the Farmers' Union here today plans for putting in a big co-operative warehouse here were discussed, but no definite action was taken. Another matter discussed was the advisability of sending an agent out to purchase large quantities of hay for the local ranches so that they could use all their land for grazing and used imported hay for the winter feed, especially alfalfa.

Powers On Trip.—A. H. Powers, who has been enjoying a vacation in California with Mrs. Powers, has gone to Los Angeles and San Diego. Dr. Dix visited with them in San Francisco this week and said that "Al" was having the time of his life. "They looked more like a couple out on a honeymoon than a couple of grandparents," remarked Dr. Dix today. Just when Mr. Powers will return is not certain. It may be that while in California he will purchase

The Most Numerous Variety of the Slave

Is the man who's a slave to daily, foolish expenditures. It keeps more people "down" than anything else.

Doesn't it occur to you that the money you fool away could just as well be placed in a permanent, growing investment? The interest on a good investment will provide money you can better afford to spend.

10.00 down will buy a lot in BAY PARK. $5.00 a month, with a few cents added for interest, will finish paying for it before you know it.

If it never grew in value you'd be better off, wouldn't you? But it will. Coos Bay real estate is sure to grow in value, and you can't, positively, buy anything else as close in, at the same money, or on better terms.

Think this over, and ask us to show you BAY PARK. It won't cost anything to LOOK at it.
