Brotherhood Meeting.

The Marshfield M. E. Brotherhood will have charge of the revival meeting at the M. E. Church Wednesday night.

Pay Insurance.

The A. O. U. W. Lodge has paid Mrs. Carl Walker $2000, the amount of a policy which her father, Robert Kruger, carried in her name.

Call for Warrants.

County Treasurer Dimmick has issued a call for all warrants issued prior to April 1, 1913, and will stop interest on them February 5, 1914.

More Lumber.

The Bandon World says that the lumber shipped from there last year totaled 93,271,000 instead of 54,209,959 feet, the total given by the Timberman.

Council Tonight.

The Marshfield City Council will meet tonight to take up the paving matter. The Central avenue slip controversy is also expected to come up.

Fire Scare.

A chimney burning out caused a fire alarm to be turned in late Saturday afternoon from the home of Billy Smith on North Second street near Highland. No damage was done and it was not necessary for the fire department to turn on the water.

Libby Road.

A protest against the county vacating the old Libby road up along Coal Bank Inlet from Fifth street to Eastport, was filed with the County Court. No petition asking for the vacation was filed and so the court did not take any action on it.

New Garage.

B. B. Ostlund is completing plans for a fine garage to be built by J. L. Koontz at his present location on Front and Alder. It will be about 75 feet square and one story. It will be planned especially for garage purposes and be most modern.

Home From California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Piper, of Coos River, returned Saturday from a winter's sojourn in Los Angeles. Mr. Piper reports an unusual rain fall in that section, but says the people were glad to get it after two dry years. He says he is pleased to be back on Coos Bay again.

Melle Pitching.

A Portland paper says that "Pitcher Melle, a big farmer boy from Marshfield," has been signed up by Manager Williams of the Portland Northwest League team. Melle pitched for Bandon and Coquille last season and came from some place near Vancouver. He played in Marshfield a few years ago.

Baby Dies.

Robert Duncan McDougald, the six-weeks' old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McDougald, died at their home in Bay Park of heart trouble. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, the Rev. A. F. Bassford officiating. The worthy couple will have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement.

Many At Concert.

The concert of the Coos Bay band yesterday was largely attended and proved a most enjoyable one, the various numbers being roundly applauded. The new kettle drums were not tried out as the player was at Coquille. Director Fenton has four new musicians en route here to take various positions and play in the band and hopes to have the instrumentation up to the forty mark before long.

A Fine Compliment.

Harry Nasburg is in receipt of a splendid compliment from Good Housekeeping Magazine on his new calendar. In a letter they say: "We were tremendously pleased with the Good Housekeeping calendar which you so kindly sent to us. It was such a decidedly novel way of using the Good Housekeeping window cut that we have sent a page of the calendar to each of our representatives in the twelve large cities. Allow us to thank you for this fine work."

Many Attend.

A large crowd of Marshfield citizens attended the Lincoln anniversary service at the Christian Church last night. The address was given by Rev. Samuel Gregg, who used the stereopticon with many excellent views of Lincoln and other prominent men, besides a view of the rebellion. It was stated that in 1849 the President tendered Mr. Lincoln the appointment as Governor of Oregon, which appointment he declined to take up matters of public interest in which he and his state were interested.

New Court Reporter.

A. D. Loud, the new court reporter for Judge Coke's court, and wife, arrived Saturday night via Bandon. They have taken apartments in the Black house on South Fifth street. Mr. Loud was en route to the southern part of old Mexico when he received the appointment from Judge Coke.

Official Here.

Chas. Keesline, salesmanager of the Standard Oil Company, is here from San Francisco to confer with Manager Montgomery. They went to Bandon this afternoon.

Court Wednesday.

Judge Coke will convene the adjourned term of Circuit Court at Coquille Wednesday morning. Judge Harris is expected to be here then to hear some cases. Only equity matters will come up.

Has Operation.

P. N. Flagg, who has been very ill for a few days, underwent an operation and is reported to be doing nicely. Mrs. A. H. Eddy, mother of Mrs. Flagg, is expected here Wednesday from Ashland.

To Build Here.

Mrs. Lola Baldwin, formerly Mrs. Bert Belleu, will leave Saturday for her old home in Kentucky to sell a big farm there. She expects to return in a few months and build an apartment house here.

Auto to Beach.

F. D. Cohan and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Chandler, Miss Genevieve Wilcox and John Meehan, constituted a little auto party that went to the beach yesterday. The machine made the run without difficulty.

Bolt Wins.

Geo. N. Bolt has received word that his son, Eric, won the oratorical contest at Willamette University Friday night. Eric also delivered an address at an Epworth League convention at Vancouver, Washington, Friday.

Dredge Work.

The Port of Coos Bay was to have met today but postponed the meeting, owing to the absence of a quorum, and adjourned to meet tomorrow. The principal matter was to pay the dredge Seattle for last month's work, the bill totaling about $31,000.

Want Inlet Improved.

A delegation of Kentuck Inlet ranchers was here today to urge the Port of Coos Bay Commission to improve the channel there. They are also to try and get aid from the county. It will be presented tomorrow.

Brookings Man Here.

Manager Ward, of the timber department of the Brookings Lumber Company, left today for home after spending Sunday here. He reports that they expect to have one side of the big mill operating about June 1. It will have a capacity of 250,000 feet per day, but will not operate at this capacity until they get the harbor and shipping facilities arranged. They are building about seven miles of logging road.
