M'DONALD GOES TO COUNTY JAIL

Accused of Cashing Worthless Sight Draft—No Word From Friend

Harry G. McDonald this morning was bound over to the grand jury by Justice C. L. Penneck on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. In default of $500 bail, he was taken to the county jail at Coquille this afternoon by Constable W. B. Cox.

EGGS TAKEN TO JAIL TODAY

Various California Unable to Furnish Bond—Gilligan Also Held

UNION FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Under a writ of habeas corpus, the of $5000 cash or bonds for $10-Maury I. Diggs, former State lect, and Walter Gilligan, his panion on New Year's eve, were to the county jail today where they remain until bail is given until they are brought to trial superior court on a charge of assault, preferred against Diggs and Paul R. Spott, by Ida King, a girl who swears she is fifteen years old. Spott is out bail. No date has been set for trial, but if the criminal calendar is in the usual course, the case will probably be reached in two or three days. Sheriff Eggers said that Diggs and Gilligan would have none of the usual probationary period couple of months had been and they will be kept locked in their cells excepting three hours when they will exercise.

KERLUK CREW "ALL SAFE"

Explorer Stefansen Wires That His Vessel and Men Are Well

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—A message was received today from Explorer Vilhjalmar Stefansen in which he expressed the belief that his vessel, Kerluk, and its crew are safe. The ship was caught in the ice, drifting away while Stefansen and three companions were on the North Alaskan coast hunting. They made their way to Point Barrow and when the message was dispatched here were encamped at Collinson Point engaged in scientific investigation.

COMISKEY BETTER.
ROME, Feb. 11.—Charles Comiskey, president of the Chicago Club of the American League, was well enough today to go with members of the American baseball teams to the Vatican, where the party was received by the Pope. Immediately afterward Comiskey went to a medical institute for an X-ray examination. The examination showed nothing serious.

Suffragettes Endeavor to Attack London Divine En Route to Parliament

WOMEN SENTENCED.
LONDON, Feb. 11.—Seven militant suffragettes were sentenced to four days' imprisonment each for obstruction and assaulting in connection with the police attempt last night to arrest Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst. The women declined to furnish security to keep the peace for six months.

KING GEORGE'S SPEECH

Safety at Sea and Home Rule Theme of Speech From Throne

LONDON, Feb. 10.—King George opened the fourth session of the present British Parliament yesterday. Queen Mary and the King both wore their crowns and brilliant robes. Only a few privileged strangers were admitted to the house. Police and soldiers, whose duties on these occasions heretofore has been largely perfunctory, searched every corner of the cellars and vaults for suffragettes.

posed yesterday by Murphy.

WANT VOTE ON IRELAND BILL

Note Home Rule Measure Brought Up For Discussion in Parliament Again

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The question whether home rule for Ireland should include the northern province of Ulster, was discussed again today in the House of Commons. Sir John Simons, Attorney General, defeated the Unionist amendment to reply to the king's speech. This amendment declared "it would be disastrous to proceed further with the government for Ireland bill until the measure had been submitted to the judgment of the country."

ONE KILLED IN AIR COLLISION

TWO OTHERS INJURED IN SOUTH AFRICA WHEN FLYING MACHINES COLLIDE AND OCCUPANTS FALL TO EARTH.

JOHANNISTHAL, Germany, Feb.
11.—A biplane and monoplane collided in mid-air over the aerodrome today, causing the death of one aviator and the serious injury of two others. Gerhard Gedlmayer, an experienced aviator, was flying in a biplane, carrying a passenger, Lieut.
Leonhardt of the German army.
They were circling the aerodrome at a height of 100 feet when the machine crashed into a biplane in which Degner, a pupil at a flying school, was making his first independent flight. Both machines fell. When the men were extracted from the wreckage Degner was found dead and the other two seriously hurt.

BROOKINGS TO BE BIG PLANT

Manager Ward Says They Will Start Mill June 1—Plan Other Plants

The Brookings Lumber Company will soon have a plant at Brookings, in the Southern part of Curry County, that will be somewhat of a rival for the C. A. Smith Company's plant on Coos Bay, according to Manager Ward of the land and timber department of the company, who was here last week. Mr. Ward was here especially to look into the assessments of the local lumber mills in order to get a basis for taking up their Brookings assessment with the Curry County assessor.

TELLS MINER'S SIDE OF STRIKE

John R. Lawson Testifies Concerning Peonage in Colorado Trouble

DENVER, Feb. 11.—John R.
Lawson, Colorado member of the International executive board of the United Mine Workers, testified before the house investigating committee concerning the mine strike.
Representative Byrnes asked about peonage. "We have the affidavits of four Mexicans," the witness said, "who were brought from Texas and put to work in the mines. The guards took their shoes to prevent their walking out of camp." The witness related the alleged importation of strikebreakers, which he said was in violation of Governor Ammon's original order to the militia.
He produced two letters addressed to "Mother" Mary Jones, which he said were not delivered during her present imprisonment in Trinidad. The letters were registered and indorsed "Addressee is military prisoner and delivery cannot be effected." These were admitted as evidence. Representative Byrnes said he would question the Postmaster of Trinidad relative to the non-delivery.
