Mr. Sneddon was ordered committed to the asylum by the insanity commissioners and appealed to the court. The case may be carried to the Supreme Court.

Accuses Agent—R. A. Hazen, representing the West Coast Specialty company of Portland, appeared before Justice Pennock and wanted to swear out a warrant charging Helen Williams with the theft of about $600. He alleged that Williams was agent for the company and came to Coos Bay several months ago and sold a large amount of peanuts and then went to California without turning in cash for them. As a warrant had already been sworn out at The Dalles, Justice Pennock referred Hazen to Sheriff Gage.

Knew Dr. Hamilton—Dal Cathcart yesterday recalled the intimate acquaintance he had with Dr. Hamilton, father of Judge Hamilton, who died at Roseburg a few days ago. Dr. Hamilton settled near Roseburg and in the winter of 1854 Mr. Cathcart helped Dr. Hamilton shell the first crop of corn that the latter raised. Later Dr. Hamilton engaged in the drug business and made a lot of money.

Leave Friday—J. C. Kedsling, assistant general salesmanager of the Standard Oil Company, who has been spending the week here with Manager Montgomery, will leave Saturday for Portland.
