

MARSHFIELD IS EASY VICTOR

RIVERTON BASKETBALL TEAM WAS DEFEATED 26 TO 8 HERE LAST NIGHT BY LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL TEAM.

Friday, the thirteenth, was a fortunate day for basketball teams on Coos Bay, Marshfield defeating Riverton by a score of 26 to 8, at the Tabernacle at Marshfield last evening. The game was not part of the regular basketball schedule, being an exhibition game to give the Riverton team a chance to display their skill as basketball players. Marshfield—	Position,	Riverton
Curtis	.....	Hammon
Clarke	.....	Harrison
Seaman	.....	Hutchinson
Chapman	.....	Robertson
Hunter	.....	Floydson

Field baskets were made by Curtis, 3; Clarke, 8; Seaman, 3; Hutchinson, 2; Fouts, Curtis, 8; Simpson, 1; Harrison, 3. Officials, referee, Mast; umpire, Grannis; scorer, Jensen.

The Woman's Corner

Edited Under the Auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Marshfield.

Tramp, tramp, tramp, our cause is marching. Cheer up, comrades, Truth will win; And beneath an unstained flag We shall breathe the air again. Of a free land—free from a great sin.

Who walks with Fear adown life's road will meet His boon companions, Failure and Defeat; But look the Bully boldly in the eyes With mien undaunted, and be turns and flies. —Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

The cost of liquors in the United States in 1911, was $2,367,000,000. Equal to all wheat, corn, potato and rye crops in U. S. of 1911. U. S. Customs receipts of 1911, $314,497,000.

250,000 Saloons in America Many people labor under a mistaken idea in regard to the revenues from the saloons. They have been misinformed as to facts—they think their taxes will be much higher without the revenue, when the real truth is, as has been clearly proven, that with the abolishment of the liquor traffic, not only taxes will be less, but the cost of living diminished.

All things are possible to him who believes; they are less difficult to him who hopes; they are easy to him who loves, and simple to him who do all three.

Look up, not down, eye, when the light of morning breaks And saddened earth at last awakes Where think you, shall we wear our crown? Look up, not down!

As well might one say that the state is invading his personal liberty because it prohibits the creation of a powder magazine in the center of a densely populated section, as to claim that the prohibition of the liquor traffic is an invasion of personal liberty. The powder magazine would be the lesser of the two, for it would be destructive only to the present life, to the body only, while the liquor traffic destroys the will, the morals and both body and soul, for it is not written in God's Holy Word: "No drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of Heaven?"—The Instructor.

COQUILLE IS BEATEN 14 TO 10

The North Bend basketball team sprang a surprise last night when they defeated Coquille by a score of 14 to 10. Intense excitement prevailed at the opening of the game to see who would draw first blood. Oerding, of Coquille, rolled over in a heap immediately following the starting of the game, and when he awoke, discovered that his right eye was badly swollen. Despite his bad "lump," which threatened to go out several times during the game, Oerding made three goals for his team, being the most scored by any individual player on the Coquille team.

Play Good Game. North Bend played a clean fast game all through. Bowen was the saviour of the North Bend team, scoring eight points for his team. Tom Watters also showed considerable speed and generalship, and although he made but one goal, indirectly, by his fast work, was the means of three goals. Hage was almost knocked out in the middle of the first half when Coquille was trying to force a goal. At the climax in a mixup, Hage was stretched out and did not recover for a minute. He came to quickly, however, and played good ball.

With the winning of this game, North Bend claims they are practically assured of the championship. They are scheduled to play Coquille at Coquille on next Friday evening and in event of Coquille's winning another game, will be necessary to play off the tie.

The lineup follows:

North Bend—	Position,	Coquille
Jacobsen	.....	Oerding
Watters	.....	Kern
Bowen	.....	Leslie
Hage	.....	Miller
Simpson	.....	Watson

Field baskets were made by Jacobsen, 1; Watters, 1; Bowen, 3; Hage, 1; Oerding, 3; Kern, 1; Leslie, 1. Fouls thrown by Bowen, 2. Officials—Oerding, referee; Lafferty, umpire; timers, Grubbs and Howard; scorers, L. Chappelle, K. Leslie.

The Best City
In the Best Region
Of the Best Country
On Earth

This sounds like a pretty strong assertion to make about Marshfield, but that's what outsiders mean when they say that Marshfield is the best city on the Pacific Coast.

Billions of feet of lumber,
Hundreds of square miles of coal,
A harbor with only three peers on the Coast
are an old story to us, but these facts astound the outside world who are now reading about Coos Bay for the first time.

EVENTS OF A WEEK—
Porter Brothers will employ 2500 men on the Willamette-Pacific commencing March 1.
The Eastside mill will re-open, and the Nann Smith will resume her run to San Francisco in March.
Congress has appropriated $50,000 for operating the dredge Michie on Coos Bay this year.
The Southern Pacific is borrowing $2,200,000 to complete the Willamette Pacific to Marshfield.

These are news items that command our attention and make us realize that the above headlines are not a meaningless boast.

Don't have any misgivings about investing in land on Coos Bay. It's safe and certain. Look up FIRST ADDITION TO MARSHFIELD without delay. Select a home-site or an investment from our choice $300 lots. Sold on easy terms. With improvements installed.
