LOCAL NOTES

TIDES FOR FEBRUARY.

Now is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison on consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on the bar subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

Table with tide data for February 17, 1914. Columns include time (17 Hrs., 18 Hrs., etc.), high water (Ht.), and low water (Lt.).

BORN.

HILL.—To Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hill at their home in the O'Connell Apartments, Monday, February 16, a son. Mother and child are doing nicely, and Mr. Hill, who is with the Smith-Powers company, is elated over his fine valentine.

New Position.—Guy W. Chambers has taken a position in the wholesale house of H. W. Painter.

Indian Runner Ducks.—The Times has an inquiry for Indian Runner ducks. Who has some for sale?

Not President.—The statement that Geo. Steinburn is president of the Bartender's Union is incorrect, that position being held by Arthur Johnson.

New Home.—Edwin Erickson is making arrangements to have Louis Nelson build him a fine new home on his lots at Bunker Hill, the work to start this week.

Print Poem.—The Oregonian last Sunday printed an illustrated poem by Capt. Macgenn "Crossing the Bar." The poem was printed first in The Times a year or so ago.

Will Build.—It is announced that H. Folsom will have a fine new six-room bungalow, of the latest modern type, erected at Eleventh and Commercial this spring.

Birthday Dinner.—Mrs. Jas. L. Ferry entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd W. Jacobs, birthday. Those present were members of the family and a few intimate friends.

Has Smallpox.—C. O. Gosney, living near Eastport, was quarantined yesterday for smallpox. He had been ailing for some time, but the first symptoms were shown yesterday.

Mill Slough Done.—It was expected to have the big drain box in Mill Slough completed this evening and soon the slough will be closed for all time. The dredge Seattle may start pumping in there about Saturday.

Glee Club Concert.—Glen J. McCadden, of Willamette University at Salem, was here today and made arrangements for the Willamette Glee Club to give a concert in Marshfield April 3. Prof. Grannis, of the Marshfield High School is an alumnus of Willamette.

Not President.—The local bartenders resent the statement that Geo. Steinburn, known as "Duke" is president of their union. Duke is now facing bootlegging charges. They say that he was president only for a short time after the organization was perfected and that at the first election, Art Johnson was elected in place of him.

Blast Throws Bolt Far.—Lynn Lambeth this afternoon declared that one of the blasts of dynamite used in blowing up the bulk of the old Escort across the Bay from the Alliance warehouse hurled a spike clear over into Broadway. It almost struck his car in front of the Copple store and he got out to see what fell and found one of the big spikes used in boat construction. The explosions jarred the entire down town section.

Two Births.—Dr. Culin was here from Coquille today noon. He reports two visits of the stark last night, one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shine, formerly of Empire, and the other at the Vincent home in Coaledo.

Two Miners Hurt.—Two miners were injured in the Hennessey mine last Saturday. One was severely burned about the head by an explosion and the other suffered a bad wound from a pick. Both were brought here for treatment but their names could not be learned.

Fine Ball.—The benefit ball given by the Royal Auction Bridge Club Saturday night at the Eagle's Hall was a decided success from every standpoint. The hall was attractively decorated, the St. Valentine scheme being carried out. Punch was served. The attendance was large and the music good. The club expects to net about $125 for the library.

Floods Hill Avenue.—A large portion of Hill avenue has been flooded by the dredge fill south of there. Part of the Hill avenue elevated plank roadway is rather narrow street, but it was not thought that it would be necessary to raise it. However, a second fill was made north of it, and this resulted in the fill on the south side flooding most of it near Broadway.

Goes to Alaska.—According to a Portland paper, B. M. Stone, who was figuring on starting a daily paper in North Bend, has bought a newspaper plant in the Rose City and left for Seward, Alaska, where he will start a daily. He was formerly in the newspaper game at Vale, Oregon, and came to Coos Bay several months ago from Honolulu to look this field over with J. K. Smith, who is now secretary of the North Bend Chamber of Commerce.
